Will Dean Jr., of Hammondsport, with a party of Bath friends spent the day with Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Dean and family.
Seldom have our people been so shocked and deeply grieved as upon hearing of the sudden death of Friday, of John Harrington, in Tulsa, Okla. The recent betterment of the family, in the case of the father, makes the son's death doubly sad. John was known on our hill since his boyhood days, where he was a general favorite and respected as an exemplary young man. Our heartfelt sympathy goes out to the stricken wife, and to his family. Many from this section attended the funeral held in Wellsville, Tuesday morning.

Mrs. Edw. Horan and daughter Ellen, spent a few days recently with relatives in Wellsville.
Mrs. Herman Dean was called to her home on Vorhees Hill Friday morning by the death of her brother, John Harrington.
John Keough and family of Wellsville, accompanied by Miss Eva McAndrew, who had been their guest for a week, motored to the home of R. McAndrew Sunday for a day's visit.
Relatives and friends of Paul Jean, a former South Hill boy, but now located near Casey Hill, extend congratulations and best wishes for future happiness to himself and bride.
Mrs. Joseph Sauter, of Hornell, spent Saturday and Sunday at her home here in the absence of her mother, Mrs. P. A. Dean, in Bradford, Pa.
The Horan family motored to Wellsville Monday evening to the John Horan home where the body of John Harrington had been brought from Tulsa, Okla.
