

Beacock & Davidson

114 118 Main Street

Hornell, New York

Our Annual Blanket Sale

Begins Its Busy Whirl Saturday Morning

People who are not "caught napping" will buy at once their complete supply of winter bedding.

Last March we placed our Blanket order at prices from 10% to 30% below the present market values. Two months afterwards we were notified by the reason why that fair price for the entire season had been sold and that while our standing order would be filled they would be unable to supply any additional orders.

This means that while

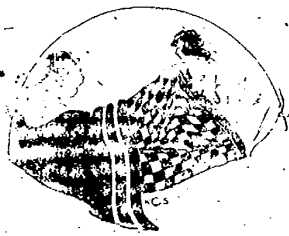

We Now Have a Splendid Assortment of Blankets

There Will Be a Shortage Early in the Season

Avail yourself, therefore, of the opportunity "get in" on Blankets as we did.

Buy your winter bedding supply now before prices are further advanced (which will surely happen) and before many of the most desirable patterns, sizes and qualities have been sold (they cannot be duplicated at any price).

We would even suggest that you pick one or more Christmas gifts from among these new, bright and beautiful assortments of luxurious winter bed-comforts while varieties are so generously full.

Famous Munsy Woolen Blankets

- Woolen Plaid Blankets, 66x80—a beautiful heavy blanket $5.00
- Woolen Plaid Blankets, 68x80—weights 4 1/2 pounds $5.75
- All Wool Plaid Blankets, 68x80 inch size—weight 4 1/2 pounds—bound with silk $7.50
- White Woolen Blankets with pink or blue borders, or in grey—weight 5 pounds—72x82 $5.00
- All Wool White Blankets with blue or pink borders, 82x82 in size—weight 5 pounds $8.00
- White Blankets made of fine California lambs' wool warp and filling—beautiful combination color border—72x82 $10.00

Bath Robe Blankets At Last Season's Prices

A wealth of new patterns, about every popular design and color is here at the sale's start, but as the sale proceeds of course the selection grows smaller.

The same is true of both Robe Blankets as of all other Beacock Blankets—we can get no more this year. So it is advisable to select now for not only present needs but for Christmas gifts and other future bathrobe necessities.

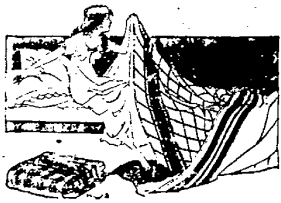

Beacock Bathrobe Blankets at the old low price of $2.75 and $3.58

Plain Blankets

- Blankets in white, grey or tan 56x74 75c
- Blankets in white, grey or tan 64x76 $1.19
- Blankets in white, grey or tan 70x80 $1.50
- Extra Heavy Cotton Blankets, 64x76 $1.75

Beacon Blankets

- Made entirely of cotton, but they look and feel so much like wool that the difference can hardly be detected.
- Beacon Blankets in white, grey or tan, 60x76 $2.19
- Beacon Blankets in white, grey or tan, 66x80 $2.50
- Beacon Blankets in white, grey or tan extra large and heavy, 72x81 $2.85
- Beacon Blankets in white, grey or tan, superlative weight, 72x84 $3.50

Beacon Plaid Blankets At Last Season's Prices

Just think! Our buying shrewdness makes it possible for you to buy the newest and most attractive Beacon Plaid Blankets at the same low prices of last year.

- Beacon Plaid Blankets in full bed size—colors guaranteed fast $2.75
- Beacon Plaid Blankets—large size—extra heavy $3.98
- A lighter weight Plaid Blanket—large size—only a limited quantity $1.89

Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Crandall were week-end guests of their mother, Mrs. E. R. Crandall, at Little Genesee.

Mr. and Mrs. Rob. Mungus and Mr. and Mrs. Louis VanWie took an auto trip Saturday and Sunday to Rochester and other places.

SLATE CREEK

Mr. and Mrs. George Donaldson of Purdy Creek, were called here Friday by the illness of Mrs. Donaldson's mother, Mrs. Jefferson Fox.

Mrs. Bessie Foote and son, Archie, of Sugar Creek, visited Mrs. Ella Slocum Wednesday.

Mrs. Alice Stephens, of Call Hill, visited at the home of Mrs. Mary Mullen, Friday.

Newell Stephens was in Canistota on business Saturday.

Miss Maude Slocum was a business visitor on Bennetts Creek Saturday.

Frank Slocum and son, Charles, were business callers at Fred Conrad's, at Greenwood Hill, Friday.

Bert Orvis, of Call Hill, was through our vicinity Friday.

Frank Slocum, C. M. Stephens, William Mullen, John Crawford and Herman Mullen were Canistota business visitors Saturday.

Charles L. Slocum was a business visitor on Bennetts Creek Sunday.

Dan Stephens, of Bennetts Creek, John and Dan Mullen, Harry Stephens and Charles L. Slocum attended the ball game on Greenwood Hill Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. George Slocum and Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Norton, of Woodward Hollow, were thru our vicinity Sunday.

Mrs. Jefferson Fox is very ill. John R. Stephens visited at the home of his sister, Lottie Mullen, Sunday.

Frank Kough, of Greenwood Hill, visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Verna King, Sunday.

Frank Slocum and Harry Stephens were in Canistota and Hornell, Monday.

Herman Mullen and John Crawford were in Canistota with milk and cream Monday.

Dr. G. L. Whiting called to see Mrs. Jefferson Fox, who is very ill, Monday.

Miss Amy Erskin visited Mrs. Mary Mullen Wednesday.

Mrs. Edward Boodie and Miss Amy Erskin are visiting at the home of Lester Erskin, at Holland.

Herman Mullen was in Canistota Wednesday.

Herman Mullen was in Canistota Thursday.

Newell Stephens was in Canistota on business Thursday.

Frank Stephens, of Greenwood Hill, was calling on friends on the creek Friday.

Herman Mullen was in Canistota

NOT ENOUGH CHILDREN

can receive the proper balance of food to sufficiently nourish body and brain during the growing period when nature's demands are greater than in mature life. This is shown in so many pale faces, lean bodies, frequent colds, and lack of ambition.

For all such children we say with unmistakable earnestness: They need Scott's Emulsion, and use it now. It possesses in concentrated form the very food elements to enrich their blood. It changes weakness to strength; it makes them sturdy and strong. No alcohol.

Scott & Bowne, Bloomfield, N. J.

on business Tuesday.

Vern Foote, of Sugar Creek, worked on the highway this week.

Herman Mullen has purchased the W. D. Dullion farm, of M. F. Smith, of Hornell.

M. F. Smith, of Hornell, and Harry Walker, of Canistota, were business callers at Herman Mullen's Wednesday.

Miss Helen Mullen visited at the home of her aunt, Mary Mullen, Wednesday.

John R. Stephens returned home Thursday after passing a few days at Purdy Creek.

Ed. Dixon was in our vicinity Thursday.

C. M. Stephens was in Canistota Thursday.

Charles L. Slocum was in Canistota Thursday and Friday.

M. F. Smith, of Hornell called on William Dullion Sunday.

Frank Slocum was a business visitor at Purdy Creek and Canistota Monday.

A. Dixon and M. F. Smith were business callers in our vicinity Monday.

Herman Mullen and Harry Stephens motored to Hornell Monday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Dillon were business visitors on Bennetts Creek, at Charles Jefferson's, recently.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Parken, of Westfield, Pa., and Mrs. Edward Boodie and Miss Amy Erskin, of Ward, visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Slocum recently.

Miss Mildred Cummings, of Bennetts Creek, visited friends at this place Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Williams are the proud parents of a baby girl born Tuesday morning.

Miss Olive Stephens, of Call Hill is the guest of her aunt, Mrs. Mary Mullen.

DON'T LET SKIN TROUBLES SPREAD

Trivial blemishes are sometimes the first warning of serious skin diseases. Neglected skin troubles grow. Dr. Hobson's Eczema Ointment promptly stops the progress of eczema, heals stubborn cases of pimples, acne, blotchy, red and scaly skin. The antiseptic qualities of Dr. Hobson's Eczema Ointment kill the germ and prevent the spread of the trouble. For cold sores or chapped hands, Dr. Hobson's Eczema Ointment offers prompt relief. At your druggist, 50c.—Advertisement.

SOUTH HILL

Sept. 27.—Potato digging will now be the leading industry for a few weeks. Crop fairly good, and price better.

Miss Mary Dean spent the week-end with Wellsville relatives.

Mrs. J. Sauter, of Hornell, was a Sunday guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. P. A. Dean.

The "Forty Hours Devotion" being held in the Blessed Sacrament Church, Andover is largely attended from our hill.

John Keough and family motored from Wellsville Sunday to spend the day at the McAndrew home. Miss Nora McAndrew, whose school is now closed for the annual potato vacation, accompanied them to their home.

Miss Mary Casey, of Hornell, was a recent visitor at her home here.

Leo Frey and sister, Miss Florence, of Endicott, N. Y., spent Sunday with their aunt, Mrs. P. A. Dean and family.

The bans of marriage were published Sunday in the Blessed Sacrament Church, Andover, of William Dean Jr., of Syracuse, a former South Hill boy, and Miss Strehan, of Clyde, N. Y. Two months ago will be removed from Hammond's port to accept a good position with the Franklin Automobile Co. of Syracuse, where he will establish his new home. Congratulations and well wishes of all his many friends will go with him as he bids in their new life.

Mrs. John Wahl, of Elm Valley, was the guest on Monday of the Horan family.

Dr. E. J. Loughlen, of Andover, was a professional visitor on the Hill Monday.

Mrs. A. M. Mungus died at her home Monday forenoon, after an illness of many months. Funeral took place Wednesday, at 11 o'clock from the Methodist Church in Andover. Interment was in the Valley Brook cemetery. Mrs. Mungus came to reside among us as the wife of A. M. Mungus 20 years ago and proved herself a good friend and neighbor, a bright, capable, energetic woman, who strove to do her duty to the utmost in her walk in life. Our sympathy is extended to the surviving husband and brothers and sisters.

Mrs. Ellen McCann, of Andover, was a guest at the home of her brother, A. M. Mungus, this week.

TIP TOP

Mrs. F. E. Martin, of Belmont, spent Wednesday night at W. E. Baker's.

Mr. and Mrs. Erwin Baker and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. A. O. Tucker and son Carl, Helen and Arling Baker and Marjorie Williams, of Andover, were guests at M. Lee's, Tuesday evening.

M. F. Baker, of Salamanca, was the guest of his parents Wednesday afternoon.

M. F. Ball was a Naples visitor Wednesday and Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Baker and daughter, Esther, were in Andover Wednesday evening.

F. M. Lee was in Alfred Tuesday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. N. M. Lanphear were callers at W. E. Baker's Tuesday afternoon.

Frank C. Place, of Alfred, has placed one of the Cortright shingle-roots on a barn for C. S. Lusk.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Baker, Mrs. Carrie Caples and David Yentzer were visitors at the County Home at Angelica, Thursday afternoon.

Mrs. A. C. Baker and Mrs. Lawrence Kenyon were guests at B. S. Baker's Thursday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Baker, Mrs. Carrie Caple and David Yentzer were visitors in Dansville Friday.

B. S. Baker was a visitor in Hornell Thursday.

Clate Baker and Lawrence Hallock, of Roulette, Pa., were visitors at W. E. Baker's from Saturday until Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. B. S. Baker, and F. M. Lee were Hornell visitors Saturday.

Mrs. Mary Willard, of Belmont, is visiting her brother, N. M. Lanphear.

R. C. Baker, of Salamanca, visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. S. Baker, Wednesday morning.

ELM VALLEY

Mrs. Margaret Fuller, of Alfred, was a guest of her sister, Mrs. Jennie Howland.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Mead and sons, Loyd and Arlow, motored to Cuba Fair last Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Burdick and family spent Friday at the Cuba Fair.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Crowner, who have moved her from Hornell, are staying with Ed. Leonard's for a couple of weeks.

Truman Dodge, of Alfred, has been working for Charles Dodge during his absence.

Chas. Wright is taking a two week's vacation from his duties in the Borden milk station.

The Misses Mary and Carrie White of Andover, and guest, Miss Eliza Chin, of Washington, D. C., spent Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Wahl.

Mrs. Lottie Wahl and Mrs. Bell Doran were called to Bohvar Wednesday to attend the funeral of Mrs. Strayer, a relative.

Mr. and Mrs. Jay Burdick and family enjoyed a motor trip to Rochester last week.

Chas. Cochran has purchased a new Ford.

Threshing is nearly done in the valley.

INDEPENDENCE

Sept. 25.—Mr. and Mrs. I. B. Crandall, of Westley, R. I. were guests of Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Crandall Sunday and Monday.

Prof. and Mrs. Place, of Alfred, spent Saturday and Sunday at S. W. Clarke's. Prof. Place spoke at the Aid Society.

S. W. Clarke was in Little Genesee Sunday calling on Mrs. Emily Wells.

W. C. Warren and family, of Cuba, passed Sunday at the Crandall homestead.

The Aid Society realized most $15 from their supper Saturday night.

Mrs. F. E. Warren, of Cuba, was visiting her sister, Mrs. M. Crandall, Sunday and Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Costello, of Washington, D. C., were guests of John Costello Tuesday and Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Stephens are spending a few days in Andover.

HOTEL EMPIRE

Broadway at 63rd Street
NEW YORK CITY

Room, $1.00 Room with Bath $1.50
use of Bath

Parlor, bedroom and bath,
one or two persons $2.50
Add to the above rates, 50c for each additional person.

All surplus cars and Fifth Ave. Busses pass the door.
Subway and "L" stations—two minutes.
Beautiful Central Park—1 block.

OUR RESTAURANT
is noted for its excellent food and moderate prices.

P. V. LAND - Manager

Centrally Located
Near all the Famous
Shops and Theatres

Merchant's Gargling Oil Liniment

Within reach of all who are Tortured with Pain
You get Instant Relief from

RHEUMATISM NEURALGIA
LAMENESS
Sprains and Bruises

Stops Pain.
Heals Quickly.
Draws out Poison.

GOOD FOR Man and Beast.

Doing good for nearly 100 yrs. since 1833
Guaranteed Remedy. 25c Bottle. Sold everywhere.