

His First Job

A short time ago, John D. Rockefeller, the richest man in the world, hoisted a big American flag, out at his Forest Hill estate in Cincinnati. The occasion was the 56th anniversary of securing his first job, and he says that everything that followed has been the result of thrift, industry and some business sense and skill. The job was that of book-keeper in a Cincinnati river front forwarding house. He proved to be a good accountant, one of the first on the job and last to leave. One year later his salary was raised $25 a month. He began to save money and the next year he was in business for himself. It is a short, simple, human interest story, containing all the philosophy of business success, and the crux of the whole matter is "he began to save money."

You probably had a better start than Rockefeller had, but the magicians of millions began to save money, and it is fair to assume from the results that the saving of his earnings was as important a matter to him as the job. The savings were made as industrious as the man. They were husbanded for the opportunity, put to work, perhaps, in some strong bank, like the

with Three Hundred Thousand of assets to guarantee their safety, where they added their earnings to this and were ready on call for the opportunity.

Have YOU begun to save money?

Some of them landed on a ledge two hundred and fifty feet below and twenty went to the bottom, some landing in the river and others on the bank. Three of the spears were dead when found and two others injured so that they were immediately killed. The others were rescued with some difficulty. What caused them to rush over the edge of the cliff is not known.

M. E. CHURCH CONFERENCE

Annual Session Began in Asbury Tuesday at 8 O'clock—Bishop Burt Presiding

The Genesee Conference of the Methodist Church opened its 107th annual session Friday evening at 8 o'clock in Asbury Church with an Epworth League anniversary and rally service. The Rev. Dan B. Brummitt, D. D., of Chicago, editor of the Epworth Herald, was the speaker. The Rev. F. M. Baker presided, and a chorus under the direction of Mrs. E. A. Southall sang.

The conference examination board convened in the afternoon to examine candidates for the ministry. Bishop Burt, who presided over the sessions of the conference, arrived in the city Monday from Elmira. Wednesday morning was the formal opening of the conference.

Bishop Burt Presided

Bishop Burt administered holy communion and memorial services were held for the seven members of the conference who passed away during the past year—Dr. Alonzo E. Colburn, Dr. Horace A. Crane, Dr. S. A. Morse, Dr. Ward B. Platt, Dr. G. A. Williams and Dr. Charles W. Winchester.

At noon Wednesday the pastors attending the conference had luncheon in the South Presbyterian Church. The meal was served under the auspices of the Seneca Street Methodist Church. In the evening the Rev. Dr. B. M. Tipton of Rome, spoke at the foreign mission meeting in Asbury Church, and the Rev. E. L. Waldorf spoke on home missions in Plymouth Church. The Rev. T. O. Grieves, who made the arrangements for the conference, announced Tuesday morning that the banquet and reception in honor of Bishop and Mrs. Burt Friday evening in the Hengerer Tea room was for laymen and their wives as well as for ministers.

IMPRESSIVE CEREMONIES MAKE DAY MEMORABLE

Major General Gurney, assisted by his staff and Canton Loyal 43, of Hornell, conferred the degree of Chivalry upon eight members of the Rebekah Assembly of New York State, at the Federation Hall, on Friday evening. This event came as a climax to several hours' doings of the Odd Fellows, which, by way, was the largest and most thorough event of any that has, or will be held in Hornell this year.

Following the parade, through which those who had passed through "Jericho," marched undaunted through a drizzling rain, they repaired to Federation Hall, Broadway, where the festivities began. Before the largest crowd that had ever entered this hall the degree of Chivalry was conferred which was very impressive. Hundreds in the hall watched with abated breath and awe this elaborate, impressive ceremony, which consumed about an hour and thirty minutes.

Mrs. Minnie F. Leonard, president of the New York State Rebekah Assembly, who resides in Hornell, Mrs. Julia Pitzzenmaier and Mrs. A. S. Atwood, of Hornell; Mrs. Lottie E. Mann, in-law of Andover; Mrs. Jennie Dawson, noble grand, of Iola Lodge, of Canisteo; Miss Grace Jessup left herald, of Poughkeepsie; Mrs. May Egather, member of the finance committee, of Syracuse, and Miss Flossie Alton, of Canisteo, were those who had so signally honored their lodge as to be given the privilege of receiving this degree.

Following the conferring of the degree dancing was engaged in until 1 o'clock by music furnished by the Hornell Band. The dance on this occasion accommodated the largest crowd of dancers ever upon the floor; nearly all being Old Fellows, Rebekahs or relatives of those who were.

In a "nut shell" the Odd Fellows and Rebekahs staged the biggest affair that has occurred in Hornell during the 1916 season. That Hornellians were hungry for big parades and excitement accompanied therefrom, can be seen when it is known that the streets were crowded onto the pavements despite the fact that a cold rain had set in during the evening and which lasted all through the parade.

The Andover Odd Fellows and

Rebekah Lodges were well represented; there being about a hundred members present.

The man who does not take his home paper misses three-fourths of what is going on in his home community. He must either borrow the paper from his neighbor and be considered a tight wad and a nuisance, or he must be content to learn a little and know less. This paper costs but $1.50 a year, and is worth ten times that amount to any person.

MAY USE FERRETS IN NEARBY COUNTY

Conservation Commission at Albany Makes Ruling of Interest to Hunters in Hornell

Albany, Oct. 1.
