233 YEARS AGO TODAY

The First Emigrants from Germany Arrived in this Country. They Landed in Philadelphia, Pa.

The German immigrants have always proven desirable citizens. Thrifty and economical, they have taken advantage of the opportunities of the banking institution in a way that has made them envied by many. To squander is poor management. Save and follow the example of the prosperous Germans, and you will be in time to be comfortably situated as many of them.

LOCAL LODGE ENTERTAINS HIGH OFFICIALS

Andover Rebekah Lodge Has Notable Meeting and Reception to Grand Assembly Officers Last Thursday.

Thursday, Sept. 28th, afternoon and evening, was Rebekah day in Andover. At three o'clock a reception was given at the home of Mrs. F. L. Hann, on North Main Street, where at six o'clock a dinner was served by the Past Grands of Andover Lodge. The guests included the Noble and Vice Grands and Past Grands from the several lodges in the county, with the officers of the Rebekah Assembly I. O. O. F. of the State of New York as guests of honor as follows:

President, Mrs. Minnie T. Leonard, of Hornell; vice president, Mrs. Anna VanAken, of Kings-ton; warden, Mrs. Nellie J. Meech of Rochester; secretary and past president, Miss Agnes E. Rogers, of New York; treasurer, Mrs. E. H. Griffith, of Jamestown; marshal, Mrs. Hattie Atherly, of Auburn; conductor, Mrs. Matilda Becker, of Buffalo; chaplain, Mrs. Ida Y. Smith, of McGraw; inside guard, Mrs. Lottie E. Hann, of Andover; advisory supporter and past president, Mrs. Minnie F. Snyder, of Newark; instructor and past president, Miss Edith G. Carpenter, of Watertown; left herald, Grace A. Jessup, of Poughkeepsie; Finance committee, Miss Mary A. Stow, of Clyde, and Mrs. May Egarter, of Syracuse; and past presidents, Mrs. Nellie Barber, of Auburn; Mrs. Lillie S. Budd, of Rochester, and Mrs. I. Tamblin, of Copenhagen; also Mrs. Chloe Sarstfield, of Cuba, Deputy President of Allegany District.

In the evening a special meeting of Andover Lodge No. 303 was called for the purpose of receiving the Grand Lodge officers and conferring the degree upon a class of candidates. I. O. O. F. Hall was attractively decorated in the lodge colors, pink and green, and the entrance and introduction of the State Staff very impressive. Following the conferring of the degree the Past Presidents and Grand Lodge Officers spoke in fluent words of the hospitality accorded them and the excellent work of the Degree Team. Mrs. Lottie Hann, in well chosen words, presented Mrs. Leonard, Assembly President, with a diamond ring, a gift from the Past Noble Grands of Allegany District, and in turn Mrs. Flora Deming most graciously presented Mrs. Leonard with ten dollars in gold from Andover Rebekah Lodge and to Mrs. Lottie Hann, Inside Guardian of State Assembly, a five-dollar gold piece from the Degree Team of Andover Lodge.

After the work of the evening a bountiful supper was served by those in charge.

It is an honor seldom conferred upon a local lodge to be given the opportunity of entertaining and meeting personally, their entire staff of superior officers, and Andover Rebekahs were justified in doing their best to give these charming ladies a thoroughly good time. The occasion was one to be recalled with pleasure and pride by those in attendance.

Sunday Evening, Baptist Church

The people of the town will have the privilege of hearing Mr. Gullian at the federated meeting. It will afford an opportunity to show a wide-awake town's courtesy to the stranger.

The Sunday School Affords

all true lovers of children the privilege of giving instruction by presence and percept. The children will believe in the reality of religious character by the testimony of the people pledged to its support. Where our treasure is our heart will be also.

One Thursday Evening Conference.

A meeting so profitable that no emphasis seems too great to be put upon this meeting of the church.

A violin tuned to proper pitch responds to every shade and color of the artist's music-dream. Off-tune, no musician can express his thought.

Our souls are instruments of noble expression when tuned with God. Off-tune by disobedience to the fine sense of loyalty, to opportunity, to responsibility, the indifinite is helpless to express himself. If those who voluntarily offered themselves to be the custodians of the Christian religion refuse to be loyal—There is for Him another Calvary—not in Judia.
