An artist is of interest because of his aim and the way in which he has reached it. The makers of Sten-Stork Smart and Clothcraft Guaranteed Clothes have achieved their high aim only by placing QUALITY FIRST.

A certainty of quality is assurance of satisfaction. The absolute new styles in fabrics which are correct and above all—satisfaction in wear are here to be shown for the asking.

FALL AND WINTER

About time to think of heavy underwear. "Superior Union Suits" are the kind sold at this store because we think it the best undergarment for any man or boy to wear. Superior—the perfect Union Suit can't gap in the seat, can't bind in the crotch, gives double wear where the wear is hardest; in the famous closed crotch—wool, worsted, merino, silk and wool and cotton in different weights from $1.15 to $1.90 a garment.

GREENWOOD LOCAL BRIEFS

Fine weather.
 Potato harvest is booming.
 Quite a strife between potato buyers.
 The woods are gaily dressed now.
 Allie Ford was in town Wednesday.
 Clinton Dailey, of Wheeler Hill, is a business visitor in town.
 Mr. and Mrs. Frank Cole, of Rough-and-Ready, were in the city Thursday.
 In the reform suit Thursday between Rhoda Donaldson and S. O. Brown over the identity of a cow sold by plaintiff to defendant and which it was claimed that the wrong cow was taken by mistake, the cow in question was awarded to the plaintiff by the jury.
 County Supt. Bowers, of county highways, was in our city Thursday.
 Mr. and Mrs. Horace Barnard, of Canisteo, are guests of their daughter, Mrs. Frank Warriner.
 Fred Miner has opened a barber shop in the building recently purchased from Mrs. Laura Badgero. Mrs. Badgero has moved to Mills, Pa., where she owns village property.
 A goodly number of buyers attended the auction sale on State Creek, Saturday, and fair prices were realized for goods sold.
 Jacob Vealey, of Goshen, the cattle buyer, is in town looking after stock.
 The Standard Photo Play Co. are exhibiting at the Opera House for the entire week.
 Some large potato yields are reported in town. L. Pease has a crop that turns out 300 bushels per acre, and at present prices will bring him upwards of $2,000. J. K. Miller has already marketed over $1100.00 worth. John A. McCormick has about 7 acres that are fine and other good crops are reported. A dollar per bushel with occasionally a bonus on a fine load is the price paid, making the potato growers the moneyed aristocracy of our town.
 Ward O. Slocum, candidate for the Assembly, does not believe in a wet campaign as he is re-roofing his residence on Main Street.
 Atty. J. B. Hargreaves, of Canisteo, was in town Thursday on professional business.
 H. A. Cole and wife were city callers Wednesday.
 James McCormick of West Greenwood, was in our city Thursday.
 The German submarines are working great havoc with shipping along our eastern coast. It would seem that submarine warfare upon non-combatant shipping should be the first act prohibited by the law of nations, even if the sunken boat has warning. The turning a ship-load of passengers adrift in open boats on the sea is disgrace to civilization. That help from U. S. shipping was near was not due to Germans.
 Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Slocum were in Canisteo Sunday.
 Editor and Mrs. C. J. Lathan and Mr. and Mrs. M. Allison, of Canisteo, were guests of Greenwood friends Sunday.

CAUGHT IN THE WIRE ENTANGLEMENTS.

As the supreme court candidate cannot say what he would have done if in President Wilson's place, or what he will do if he succeeds him—as he is certain only of the wrongfulness of everything the administration has done—his inducement to change our foreign policies will be great. Will it be a change to suit Germany, or have the country get into some sort of fight?—From an Article by Richard O'ney in the New York World.

Any one who surveys the extraordinary series of legislative and executive acts accomplished by the Democratic party in three years and a half will realize two things: First, that President Wilson has proved himself a party leader of unusual power, and secondly, that the party thus led has done much more for the country than the Republican party accomplished in five times as many years.—Dr. Charles W. Eliot, President Emeritus of Harvard University, in the Atlantic Monthly.

—New York World.

Wilson's Stand on Votes For Women Contrasted With Hughes' Wabbling

HUGHES. He did not vote for Suffrage when he had the chance.

Suffrage plank in Republican platform: "The Republican party, reaffirming its faith in government of the people, as a measure of justice to one-half the adult people of the country, favors the extension of the suffrage to women, but recognizes the right of each State to settle this question for itself."

A few days before his public endorsement of the Federal Suffrage Amendment, a committee of Antislavery National Woman Suffrage Association visited him, came out smiling and said he was the man of the hour. The Suffragists had a similar experience at the same time.

Mr. Hughes has said that suffrage is the result of social unrest, that it will cause sex antagonism and that it raises a disturbance which might as well be stopped.

HUGHES FOR SUFFRAGE BECAUSE HE'S AGAINST IT.
 In a letter to the New York World, Senator C. S. Thomas, of Colorado, a member of the Committee on Woman Suffrage of the United States-Senate, said on Sept. 14:

"I am moved to propound the following inquiry to the Republican candidate for President: Did he not say to a committee of Anti-Suffragists, 'I have always been opposed to woman suffrage, probably because Mrs. Hughes has always been strongly opposed, and my daughters think with their mother. The increasingly active feminist movement, to my mind, makes the ultimate granting of votes to women lamentable, but inevitable. Sex antagonisms and the subversion of national issues into petty personal issues is to me more lamentable still, more ruinous to our womanhood and our country, than the doubting of the electorate, or votes for women, calamitous as that may be.'"

And when Candidate Hughes subsequently declared for the Federal amendment it was on the ground that, inasmuch as the women were bound to have the vote, it should be given to them by the shortest possible route, irrespective of the merits of the question.

CRISIS FOR NATION'S TOILERS.

What the laborer didn't see under the Republican regime was that High Tariff does not regulate wages, but makes it possible for the manufacturer to so regulate prices that he can control labor. The farmer, with his characteristic self-reliance and naturally independent spirit, asked no favors. All he wanted was an equal chance with other business men. Wilson saw the farmers' interests in a big way.

The Rural Credits Act alone, of more than a dozen big things this Democratic Congress did for agriculture, gave greater direct benefits to the farmers than any legislation enacted since the creation of the Department of Agriculture a generation ago.

There came a time when the laborer saw that his labor was a commodity, a thing to be bought and sold, or restrained or enjoined by the unwarranted issuance of injunction writs in Federal courts; he saw that he did not have the right guaranteed to him by our constitution—of voluntary association for his own protection and welfare; in short he saw that he was a wage-slave! He saw that he was up against Capital—organized and entrenched behind the Powerful Pull of the Political Bosses of the Republican High Finance

Gang, and Organized Capital fought to prevent the Organization of Labor!

What did Labor demand? Merely this: That labor be made part of the national councils; that its patriotism be conceded; and that its knowledge of its own needs give it paramount voice in legislation directly and peculiarly affecting its own rights.

And what has been the spirit of this Democratic Administration? Let Samuel Gompers, President of the American Federation of Labor, tell:

"In my experience with United States Congresses during two score years I have not seen anything like the fine spirit toward labor, toward the rights and welfare of all the people, pervading all the branches of the Wilson administration. This fundamental right spirit has guided the Wilson administration to wise and righteous labor legislation."

Farmers and Laborers of America—biggest of all Big Interests—the crest of the crisis has come.

Make no mistake. The issue of this campaign is as plain as the nose on your face. It is:

Big Interests vs. the Biggest Interests. Invisible Government vs. True Democracy.

Big-Words vs. Deeds. Promises vs. Accomplishments. Hughes vs. Wilson.
