

October 20, 1916
98 YEARS AGO TO-DAY

The United States and Great Britain Concluded a Treaty Fixing the Boundary Line Between the United States and Canada.

I has always been to the credit of these two great countries that practically no subsequent trouble concerning this question has ever arisen between them. It has not even been necessary to maintain a border patrol between the two countries. In this manner this institution aims at having amicable relations with all its patrons.

There is satisfaction in doing business with a bank of our standing.

PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH
Hamilton B. Williams, Minister.

Sunday, Oct. 22, 10:30.

Worship at this hour, followed by the session of Sunday School.

Sunday Evening, 7:30.

Federated meeting in the Presbyterian Church.

In the Continent is running a series of editorials on the condition of the church. These should be read by every person and considered deeply. In the uproad for this week the editorial is copied that many hundreds may have the inspiration of this series.

Go to church that the church may go to the world. The person who refuses to go to church refuses to do his part toward building of the kingdom.

THE METHODIST EPISCOPAL CHURCH
Rev. Chas. Collins, Pastor.

The pastor will preach at 10:30. Subject, "The Thorn and Its Fruit," a message of consolation for all tired and burdened souls, showing how God's strength is made perfect in our weakness and how "His grace is sufficient." A well of refreshing for way-worn pilgrims. Everybody welcome.

Sunday School and Brotherhood at 11:45.

Epworth League at 6:30.

Federated service in Presbyterian Church, at 7:30. Mr. Williams will preach. Let it be remembered that the evening service is not less important than the morning service and embracing all the congregations of the federation. Should fill the church. Plan to attend.

The class for study of the text book, "Teacher of Galilee," held its first meeting Tuesday evening. The pastor delivered a short address on "The reason for our study" and assigned the portions to be studied and questions to be answered at next meeting. The class will meet on Wednesday evening next week, and thereafter will meet on Tuesday evenings without fail.

Prayer Meeting Thursday evening as usual.

"The neutrality proclamation issued by President Wilson is the reiteration of that policy of detachment which every American school-boy reads in Washington's words of farseeing wisdom, and which we shall forget only to our sorrow."
