A Wonderful Collection Of Dresses And Coats Purchased By Our Buyer In New York Last Week

Arrived Today

These new Dresses and Coats which interpret the latest Paris modes will be shown tomorrow. We call your special attention to our first comprehensive display of

Party Dresses

The season's most beautiful creations in Silk Evening Gowns, Satin and Chiffons being the most favored materials.

Come in tomorrow and try on a fascinating gown, one that will take you to the ball in triumph.

Luxurious Coats In The New Pile Fabrics

Coats with the most recent mark of distinction and smartness, plain or fur-trimmed effects with the newest shaped collars, in Wool Plushes, Velours, Silk Plushes and Broadcloths.

The assortment offers great latitude for choice and all are correct fitting, gracefully hanging garments such as must appeal to women who desire fashionable clothes at a moderate price.

New Cretonnes Designs Copied From Rare Old Tapestries

We have just received several pieces of heavy Cretonnes the designs of which have been copied from rare old tapestries. The cloth upon which these beautiful richly colored patterns have been reproduced is heavy and durable. The colors are fast, and they are marked at the surprisingly little prices of 50c - 59c - 69c a yard

Satin Damask

53c a yard

A very heavy, serviceable Table Damask, full 72 inches wide. Its beautiful pattern stands out exceptionally clear. If we were to purchase this damask at today's price it would be marked 75c a yard. You will, therefore, save a nice little sum. If you buy it here tomorrow for 59c a yard.

Beacon Plaid and Fancy Blankets At Last Year's Prices

Many new designs never before seen in our store. Our stock is large now, but we have all we will be able to procure before next fall. Choose from this beautiful assortment at once. Later you may not be able to get the blanket you most desire at any price. They are priced at $7.75 $7.00

$3.50 $3.98

Nainsook

As fine a piece of Nainsook as can be found elsewhere at 30c a yard—36 inches wide—has enough body to make a very durable cloth

25c yard

Do You Want A Glove That You Can Wash With Soap And Water

Then try a pair of Merrilsuede Gloves. They are superior to the imported Chamoisuede Glove in both fit and quality of fabric.

The unusual satisfaction which these gloves have given is testified to by the large army of women who have bought them at this store.

OLDER BUT STRENGTHENED

To be healthy at seventy, is sound advice. The strength of middle life is the key to that neglected code, or receipt of slight advice and modern strength and weakness for later years. To be stronger when older, blood pure and rich and active, strength-building and blood-purifying properties of Scott's Emulsion food, a tonic and a medicine to blood rich, alleviate rheumatism, avoid sickness. No alcohol in Scott & Bower, Bloomfield, N. J.

FORGET YOUR ACHES

Stiff knees, aching limbs, lame back, make life a burden. If you suffer from rheumatism, gout, lumbago, neuralgia, get a bottle of Sloan's Liniment, the universal remedy for pain. Easy to apply; it penetrates without rubbing and soothes the tender flesh. Clearer and more effective than many ointments or poultices. For strains or sprains, sore muscles or wrenched ligaments resulting from strenuous exercise, Sloan's Liniment gives quick relief. Keep it on hand for emergencies. ## SOUTH HILL

Oct. 25.—Wild geese are migrating southward.

As a number of our residents are interested in oil, the advance in the market is gratifying.

Potato digging is still on, and at the present price of $1.30 we have some moneyed aristocracy on our hill, several crops running considerably over 2000 bushels.

Mr. and Mrs. John Wahl, of Elm Valley, were Sunday guests of the Horan family.

Mrs. R. McAndrew is spending the week in Wellsville with her daughter, Mrs. Appier, and that new grand-son.

Mrs. Holmes, of Friendship, visited her son, Frank Holmes, and family last week.

Mrs. M. T. Garvin and little sons, of Andover, spent the week-end with her people, in the absence of Mr. Garvin in Buffalo.

Our people were indeed grieved on hearing of the death of James Dougherty, youngest son of Mrs. Bridget Dougherty, who died early Sunday morning, in the Wellsville Hospital. Mr. Dougherty had not been well for a year or more and Wednesday was taken seriously ill and Dr. O'Donnell was called.

Saturday morning a consultation was held with Dr. Comstock of Wellsville, who concluded an operation was the only hope of saving his life, but after arriving at the hospital his condition grew rapidly worse so the operation had to be abandoned and he died in a few hours. "Jimmie" was born and lived his 42 years of life on the hill with the exception of a few years that he spent in Ohio. He was of a quiet unassuming nature, and truly a "home lover" who will be sadly missed in the now small home circle.

Funeral services were held Wednesday morning, in the Blessed Sacrament Church, of Andover, Rev. Father Sheehy, celebrant; Father O'Brian, of Wellsville, deacon, and Father Kelley, of Bolment, sub-deacon. Relatives from Sugar Notch, Bolivar, Carrollton, Wellsville, Scio and Hallsport were present at the funeral.

Sympathy is extended to the aged mother, brothers and sister.

A number of our residents attended the funeral of Mrs. James Cannon from the Blessed Sacrament Church, Andover, Tuesday morning.

Miss Mary Casey was home from Hornell Wednesday.

Dr. Brainard made a professional visit at the Riley home-stead Monday, Jim Dean being on the sick list.
