was worth a lot of money. But did you ever stop to think what "good will" means? Let's use our store as an example. We have customers, many of them, who wouldn't think of buying anything else. They come back to us, season after season, because they get what they want at the price they want to pay. And it's this continuous patronage that is one of our biggest assets. That's why we carry merchandise of high quality and do our best to please everybody who comes in.

Maybe you're already on our "good will" list. Come in anylow and see our new line for Fall and Winter. If you have deided to pay $18 or $25 for eithre Suit or Overcoat you can't get any better values than ones shown here. 'Styles?
