FIND MAN'S BODY IN SHALLOW POND ON PAINTED POST FARM

Corning, Dec. 12.—The body of an unidentified man was found lying in two feet of water in a small pond on the W. E. Brooks farm near Painted Post, late this afternoon by L. E. Slocum. It is believed that the man wandered into the pond in the darkness last night.

Coroner Herbert B. Smith said the body was that of a man about 60 years old, well dressed and apparently in comfortable circumstances. A taylor's mark on the clothing indicated that the clothing was made in Chicago for W. B. Forsythe. A suit case found on the ice gave no further clue to the man's identity. On a slip of paper found in a pocket were written the name and address of Mrs. Belle Matton of No. 270 East Third Street. Mrs. Matton could throw no light on the man's identity.

Mark Twain
A Real American

Mark Twain was a steamboat pilot. He was a searcher for gold in the far west. He was a printer. He worked bitterly hard. All this without a glimpse of the great destiny that lay before him. Then, with the opening of the great wide west, Mark Twain's genius bloomed. He had found his great place.

His fame spread through the nation. It flew to the ends of the earth, till his work was translated into strange tongues. From then on, the path of fame lay straight to the high places.

The world has asked is there an American literature? Mark Twain is the answer. He is the heart, the spirit of America. From his poor and struggling boyhood to his glorious, splendid old age, he remained as simple, as democratic as the plainest of our forefathers.
