

WELLSVILLE

Dec. 6.—Last month of the year that in many ways has been an extraordinary one.

Dr. Hayward, of Andover, is a professional visitor at the home of R. McAndrew this week, where he is treating the infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Appier, of Wellsville, and reports the little one as improving.

Mrs. Wm. Dean went to Dunkirk, Sunday, to attend the funeral of an aunt held in that city Monday, returning to her home on Tuesday.

Mrs. Carrigan and son left for her home in Sugar Notch, Pa., Tuesday, after a six week's visit at the Dougherty homestead.

Mr. and Mrs. James Murray, of Hornell, were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Ed. McAndrew.

John Dean returned Sunday from a trip to New York where he enjoyed a few day's sight-seeing in the great city.

Dean Horan, of Wellsville, and Mary Casey, of Hornell, were Thanksgiving guests at their respective homes on the hill.

Richard McAndrew was a business visitor at Wellsville the first of the week.

Mrs. Huggins was called to Chicago Saturday, by the serious illness of her sister, Mrs. Katherine Springer. If possible Mrs. Huggins is to bring the lady back with her to the home of a sister, Mrs. Griswold, of Wellsville, and is expected this week.

Wm. Dean, while blasting stumps on his farm, Tuesday morning, was badly injured when lighting a fuse the second time, that apparently had not ignited the first time, but must have been smouldering inside. The charge filled his eyes with dirt and powder and badly lacerated his face. Dr. Gronolds, of Andover dressed the wounds, but fearing for the sight of one eye Mr. Dean went to Hornell in the Horan car to consult a specialist Wednesday morning, accompanied by Henry Horan and by his daughter, Miss May, who was called home from the Wellsville Hospital, Tuesday. Dr. Mitchell will treat his eyes for a few days, and assures him there is no permanent injury which is good news to his family and many friends.

Dec. 13.—More like winter and the Christmas season.

Miss Nora McAndrew, of Pinegrey Hill, spent the week-end at her home.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Holmes and Mr. and Mrs. James Dean, motored to Wellsville, Friday evening.

Rev. Collins, of Andover, was a caller at the Mingus home, Monday.

Wm. Dean and daughter, May, returned from Hornell, Sunday evening. Mr. Dean is improving nicely from his recent injury.

Miss Nellie Horan was the guest of her sister, Mrs. Lou Snyder, of East Valley, Thursday and Friday, of last week.

Miss Lenora Dean spent Saturday night with her cousin, Miss Anna O'Leary, of Andover.

Mrs. M. Harrington spent a few days this week with her daughter Mrs. Herman Dean.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed. McAndrew, Miss Eva McAndrew and Mrs. Appier and little child motored to Wellsville last week Thursday. Mrs. Appier remained at her home in that city, Miss Eva being her guest for a few days.

Henry Horan is spending the week with Mr. and Mrs. Lou Snyder, of East Valley, Mr. Snyder being laid up from injuries received by falling in his barn Sunday.

South Hill producers note with satisfaction the big jump in the oil market.

Some of our residents attended the funeral of Mrs. Springer, who died Sunday evening, at the home of her sister, Mrs. Griswold, and was buried from the Immaculate Conception Church in Wellsville, Tuesday. Mrs. Springer will be remembered as Miss Kate McAndrew, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Anthony McAndrew, who was born and grew to womanhood on our hill, and whose people now extend their sympathy to the surviving members of the family.

Horan Bro's. motored to Wellsville, Monday night.

John Keough and family, of Wellsville, accompanied by Miss Eva McAndrew, made a trip to our hill Sunday, in their new car and were guests of R. McAndrew and family.

Mrs. Herman Dean was a week-end guest of her mother, Mrs. M. Harrington, of Vorhees Hill.

ELM VALLEY

The funeral of Mrs. Harriet Burdick was held at the Chapel, Monday afternoon, Rev. Youngs of Wellsville officiating.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Howland attended the wedding of Earl Howland and Miss Mathews of East Valley, Thursday.

Curtis Burdick and Al. Hinchey went to Friendship to attend a meeting of the Masons.

Leon Wahl was taken suddenly ill Thursday night with ptomaine poisoning.

Ella Swain, of Hornell is visiting her niece, Mrs. Paul Caple, and other friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Nevel, of Elmira, spent last week with relatives, she being called here by the death of her grandmother, Mrs. Burdick.

Mrs. Bowns, of Port Allegany, is spending the week with relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Scott, of Hornell, attended the funeral of Mrs. Burdick.

Rev. and Mrs. Randall, of Andover, were callers in the valley, Monday.

Archie and Sarah Dodge, of Alfred, are visiting their brother, Charles Dodge.

Mrs. Simeon Hann is spending some time in Wellsville, while taking treatments of Dr. Swart-out.

Mrs. Breese and Charles Stuart, of Kane, were visitors in the Valley Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Ives were business callers Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Mead and Miss Annette Taylor were at Scio to attend Grange, Thursday night.

Several of our residents attended the shows at Andover, last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Low Howland and son, Harold, motored to Alfred, Thanksgiving Day.
