NEW YEARS AT THE AUDITORIUM

An extra show will be given Monday evening in which Marguerite Clark will be seen in "Silks and Satins"; of which the N. Y. Telegraph said: "The play was chosen for those things that Miss Clark can do best. There are abundant opportunities for the petite star to be romantic, winsome, wilful and altogether charming. The nature of the story, too, lends itself to pretty costuming, and here Miss Clark again scores. Miss Clark is aided by some most excellent actors and the photography of the play is superb. Handsome Donald Brian will also be seen in a four act comedy, "The Smugglers," a story of Pearls and Breakfast-Food.

Rev. C. H. Frederick, of New Jersey, will be the preacher at the Baptist Church, for the next two Sundays. Rev.
