DAIRYMEN HOLD GREAT MEETING

Series of Meetings Attended and Constructive, One Jan 26th for T

Not since the so-called "League of Dairymen" there been such interest shown in any series as is being manifested in a great sectional meeting held at various points of the League Co-operative spirit of real co-operation developed at the great meeting recently held in the spreading like wild fire territory. These meetings held are serving to bring home to those who come to the annual meeting and their feelings into a staunch support for the League. "Problems of men ever faced a practical importance to that which the League confront. Poolers and alike are attending these going away with real and the vision of a new history of dairy farming. It is very evident that has become tired of his business is only to farmers, in the League at least, have declared that they have something to offer to the League as they offer particular interests. One of these meetings at Hornell, Jan. 26th, men in this section attend.
