

Among Our Neighbors

South Hill

Jan. 18. — The sleighing is being improved by some of our farmers in drawing potatoes and lime.

Leland Livermore disposed of one of his team of horses in Andover last Saturday.

Will Lynch was a Hornell visitor on Saturday.

Mrs. Appier and little son were guests of her parents in Andover Saturday night and Sunday, Mr. Appier joining her there on Sunday.

Something doing in real estate business in this section last week, and in his purchase of the Smith farm we are pleased that Mr. and Mrs. Jim Dean do not lose their membership in our community life, just locating nearer the "Hub" which is an advantage.

A baby daughter was born to Mrs. Mary Lynch Murphy, last week at St. James Mercy Hospital, Hornell. Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Murphy are in order.

Chaire Backus acted as substitute mail carrier on our route Saturday.

Mrs. P. A. Dean, who has been a "shut-in" for some weeks with a severe cold, is able to be out again.

Edward and Leland Livermore were doing business in Wellsville Tuesday.

Mail Carrier Church came over the Indian Creek road Monday with the mail, and Tuesday went direct to Independence, as the Joice road was impassible.

Davis Hill

Mrs. Harry Sweezy and infant daughter are at home now with Mr. Sweezy after an extended visit with her mother of Whitesville.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Slocum were in Hornell Tuesday.

Burt and Glenn Halsey were visitors on the hill from Saturday until Tuesday.

Menzo Mead delivered millet seed to Hornell Saturday.

Clyde Slocum is working for Peter Hayck.

Joseph Padden was a guest of friends out of town recently.

For Sale

Three cook stoves, two set bobs, 2 set dickies, five cutters, good work

Horse, street and stable blankets, new harnesses, stove wood.

Harness and Shoe Repairing

JOHN C. LEVER

no tax now

LUDEN'S

menthol cough drops

price 5 straight

GIVE QUICK RELIEF

Now is the Time to

BUY THE BOY A SUIT

Take Advantage of the 20%

DISCOUNT SALE

Your Choice of ANY SUIT in the House

LESS TWENTY PER CENT

Some Great Bargains Here

Jos. Levy Clothing Co.

WELLSVILLE, N. Y.

Corwin Hill

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Reinard and little daughter, Virginia, of Hazlehurst, Pa., are guests of Mr. and Mrs. Ash Shirey.

Leland and Clyde Hall commenced work Monday at Campbell and Hall's saw mill.

Mrs. Shirey is suffering from neuritis in her arms.

Baby Leo Baker, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Baker, has been very ill the past week with intestinal poisoning.

Miss Agnes Monroe is on the sick list this week.

Mr. and Mrs. William Pingrey entertained Harold Pingrey, of Hornell last Sunday.

Voorhees Hill

Jan. 17. — Typical Allegheny weather came our way last week and left some troublesome snowdrifts.

James L. Lewis attended Mrs. Edward's funeral at Whitesville Saturday.

Perry Van Schaick is taking farm census for the Farm Bureau.

The Fanton children spent Saturday with their grandmother, Mrs. Wm. Church, of the Proctor District.

Victor Perkins, Roy Van Schaick, Francis Higgins and Alex Degman are taking Regents examinations in Wellsville this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Almond Cline, of Hallsport, called on her father, Jacob Holladay, Sunday. Mr. Holladay is not improving in health as much as his friends would like.

Several of our residents are victims of the prevailing colds.

Hunters from Beach Hill were trailing foxes in our vicinity one day last week.

Independence

Jan. 9. — The Bishop Class had a very enjoyable time at S. W. Clarke's Saturday evening.

Mrs. E. R. Crandall is very ill with jaundice.

Miss Evelyn Clarke returned to Alfred Sunday after a three week's vacation.

E. R. Crandall is attending a Holstein Sale at Syracuse this week.

The Ladies Aid Society will serve supper at the Parish House, Saturday evening, Jan. 21st.

The tax collector, Mark Wilson, sets at O. G. Clarke's, Thursday.

The body of C. E. Brown was brought from Almond Wednesday for burial.

E. W. Briggs attended the funeral of C. E. Brown, at Almond, Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Lester Saxton, of Stanards, are visiting at Wallace Briggs.

Mrs. Myrta Briggs fell on the walk and broke her hip Thursday.

The Cemetery Association held their annual meeting at O. S. Clarke's Monday evening.

The Earnest Worker's Bible School Class has planned a Cobweb Social at the Parish House, Jan. 28th. The boys are requested to furnish the money and the girls sandwiches and another dish. Everybody come prepared for an evening of jollity.

Alfred University

President Davis will preach in the Seventh-day Baptist Church in New York, Saturday morning, Jan. 21st.

The freshman class is busily preparing for the presentation of its minstrel show on Jan. 26th.

There was an annual meeting of the Alfred Farmers Association, held in Agricultural School, Monday morning, Jan. 16th. Officers for the following year were elected.

The rural teachers training class girls are taking state examinations this week.

President Davis, Professor Binns and Director Champlin left Monday night for Albany where they will attend the meeting of the Budget Committee of State Schools.

The agricultural school has an increased enrollment of 20 new students making a total of 120.

The Glee Club will fill its first engagement in Belmont Jan. 25th. From there it will go to Wellsville and Hornell. March 22nd is the date set for the club's departure on its eastern trip.

Alfred means education.

Education means

1. Developing of your personality.
2. Broadening of your sympathy.
3. Living your own life with the experiences of all the world.
4. The knowledge of the best the world has that, said and done.

Knowing a good man or woman when you see one.

The Theta Chi Society gave a banquet to celebrate its first birthday, at 6 o'clock Saturday evening, in Morgan Hall.

It was just a year ago that a dinner was given in the "Brick" announcing the beginning of the Theta Chi. At this dinner there were present seven. At the one Saturday fifteen active members were there. The Alumni was represented by Miss Eloise Clark of Andover.

The Kanakadea dance, held Saturday evening, is considered the most financially successful of any recently given.

Tip Top

Several from the valley attended Grange in Alfred Saturday evening.

Miss Mary Dodge has entered the Willard Business School in Hornell.

Miss Esther Baker, of Arkport High School, spent Saturday and Sunday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Baker.

F. M. Lee was a business caller in Wellsville Monday.

N. M. Lemphear had the misfor-

Hornell visitors one day last week.

Mr. and Mrs. T. G. Burdick attended the funeral of W. H. H. Keller in Alfred, Tuesday.

You can make your ad pay you by making it pay anybody to read.

Mr. and Mrs. E. V. Greene were answer-

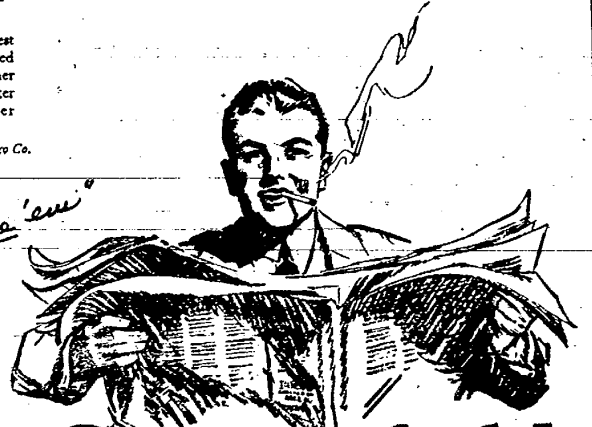

Perhaps your habit of reading the ads may save you only a dollar or so this week. But there may be weeks in which the saving is five or ten dollars—so much advantage is there in "wise buying."

Our Classified Ads get results.

Taste is a matter of tobacco quality

We state it as our honest belief that the tobaccos used in Chesterfield are of finer quality (and hence of better taste) than in any other cigarette at the price.

Liggett & Myers Tobacco Co.

Chesterfield

CIGARETTES

of Turkish and Domestic tobaccos—blended

Lower Prices

20 now 18c

10 now 9c

(Two 10's—18c)

"I like 'em"

"They Satisfy"

C. F. BABCOCK Co. Inc.

114-118 Main Street Hornell, New York

Beginning the Eagerly Awaited Event

January Sale

Saturday Morning January 14th

CONTINUING

Until Saturday Night, January 21st

SEVEN DAYS

A Great Pre-Inventory Stock Reduction Event

A Great Mid Season Clearance—
A Means of Quick Raising of Cash

All Effected Through the Power of Tremendous Price Reductions

Our entire stock at Sensational Reductions

Nothing reserved—articles not quoted at greater reductions subject to 10% Discount

SALE PRICES ARE FOR CASH. Goods charged at regular prices