TO MAKE FISHERMEN PAY

Assemblyman Charles Betts is at it again. This time he is endeavoring to make every one who goes down the creek with a fish pole pay a license fee to the state. In a few years he will have his bill ready to introduce in the legislature metering the air we breathe, and paying for it accordingly. All he lacks now is to get the meter system worked out to suit him. Betts, you may be sure, is a Republican.

Tidbits From Our School

There was no program last Friday on account of Regents.

Canisteo did not come here Friday evening as was expected. Nevertheless fast games were played between the girls' first and second teams and the H. S. boys against the Town Team. The girls' second-team won 8-16 and the H. S. boys won 13-15. The first girls' team was divided and the line-up was:

First Team
Forwards; Loretta Harrington, Ruth Parker.
Center; Virginia Hyland.
Guards; Rose Harrington, Viola Wildman.

Second Team
Forwards; Emily Blodgett, Olive Chase.
Center; Clara Nobles.
Guards; Loretta Gage, Anna Faisant.

Betty Cannon is absent from school on account of a severe illness. Alice and Angie Edwards returned to school Monday.

More of Mr. Tubb's Algebra Class might have passed had they not attended so many dances.

"Darn it" is Ronald's favorite expression. The girls' and boys' basket ball teams journey to Almond next Thursday, Feb. 2nd. We all wish them good luck.

The second Redpath entertainment will be held Tuesday, Jan. 31st, at the Auditorium. The Fine Arts Quartet come to Andover highly recommended. A musical comedy sketch dealing with life and songs of Ireland is a pleasing feature of the program. A special arrangement of the best in Spanish music will also be rendered by the quartet with appropriate costumes.

The personal of the quartet is as follows: James Wall, tenor; Clara Lyons, soprano; Genevieve Olcott, Contralto; John Olcott, baritone. These people have rare voices and have appeared in concerts and on Lyceum platforms with great success. John Olcott and Genevieve Olcott, his wife, have just finished a long season with the French Grand Opera Company of New Orleans. You cannot afford to miss this entertainment on Jan. 31st. Reporters for next week are Mildred Dodge and Gertrude Beebe.

KANTLEEK

It Can't Leak, Because It's Made in One Piece

A KANTLEEK is built like a bottle—all in one piece. Most hot-water bags are made in sections, then cemented together. When cement dries and cracks, the bottle leaks.

Every Kantleek Hot-Water Bag is moulded of pure soft rubber—one continuous piece. No parts, patches, cement. Even stopper socket is moulded in.

And guaranteed for a full two years' service—or a new Kantleek free.

Don't wait until your old bag leaks. Get a Kantleek. Your old one may break open tonight.

VOL. XXXVII. CLOTHING PRICES AT ROCK

National Industrial Conference Board Figures Showing Apparel Back to New York, Jan. clothing prices of all dropped 42 per cent. in March, 1920, and clothing for men and July, 1920 to November 33.4 per cent. These facts in the analysis by the National Retail Association, of the in search report on change of living compiled by Industrial Board.

The difference of 2.6 between the average of prices and the cost of and wife is due to the that the clothing cost for couple is actual, as be cost of clothing items a each clothing item as couple consume in the year.

Previous investigations shown that the cost of clothing changes in prices adults, the reduction actually to the cost of clothing. The cost of having decreased in advances in ready-to-home-made clothing—yard goods would show same net increase in to-wear which, in Nov remained 61 per cent. 1914, altho the actual home-made clothing what less than that of year.
