

A Pass Book

In our Interest Department is an investment always worth One Hundred Cents on the Dollar.

On the first day of each April and October the interest is added to the principal and thus compounded every six months.

There is no other form of investment which offers the advantages of automatic compound interest and the privilege of withdrawal should the depositor desire.

Monday, Jan. 30th, the Junior Class enjoyed their first social evening.

After a pleasant program had been enjoyed, a delicious supper was served by Chef Harvey and waitresses, Lillian and Cymbeline. The table was decorated with the class colors. Everyone reported a good time.

Last week the old Kappa Zeta banner, that has for some time past adorned the walls of the study hall, was taken down. In its place there is now another ensign which with its gold background and purple letters proclaim the new colors recently adopted by the "K. Z." girls.

The banner was made by the girls at "Happy House" and it is evident that their work was a splendid success.

Last week, in the report for those who passed Regents in Drawing, Cryilla Dunnigan's name was overlooked.

Friday night the Basket Ball teams go to Almond. Next week the Richburg team comes here.

Last night the second number of the school entertainment course occurred. It was a first class entertainment and was well given.

Reporters for next week, Carl Hann and Clara Nobles.

KANTLEEK

It Can't Leak, Because It's Made in One Piece

A KANTLEEK is built like a bottle—all in one piece.

Most hot-water bottles are made in sections, then cemented together. When cement dries and cracks, the bottle leaks.

Every Kantleek Hot-Water Bag is moulded of pure soft rubber—one continuous piece. No parts, patches, cement. Even stopper socket is moulded in.

And guaranteed for a full two years' service—or a new Kantleek free.

Don't wait until your old bag leaks. Get a Kantleek. Your old one may break open tonight.

VOL. XXXV CARDINALS RATTI

Final Ballot For Cardinal Boston Reach Rome

Cardinal Achille Ratti, of Milan, has been elected by the Church to succeed Benedict XV. His election is expected to take place in Rome.

After the announcement of the election the Pope's balcony outside the Vatican was thronged with people who had gathered there to witness the ceremony.

The election was a surprise to many, as Ratti had been considered a candidate for the papacy only in the event of a conclave.

Cardinal Ratti, who is 75 years of age, is a native of Italy and has served the Church in various capacities for many years.

His election is expected to take place in Rome, Italy, and will be a significant event in the history of the Catholic Church.
