

Among Our Neighbors

South Hill

Feb. 22. — To-day we honor Father Washington.

John P. Dean spent last Wednesday night and Thursday at the home of his sister, Mrs. Sauter of Hornell, who was quite ill with the prevailing epidemic.

Mike Casey is not driving to Andover this week, but stopping at the Mingo home.

Doris Dean and Julia Joyce came from Andover Saturday to spend the day with Miss Mary Dean.

Master Richard Appier has been quite sick with the grippe, but is now recovering nicely.

Several of our young people took their choice "round or square" at the Andover Firemen's dance, Monday night.

Mrs. Margaret Garvin was the guest of her daughter, Mrs. Jim Dean and family, Sunday and Monday.

Ed. McAndrew remained on the hill Monday night at the home of Dan Appier.

Mrs. Ray Hurlburt visited her husband Wednesday, at St. James Mercy Hospital, Hornell, where, having sufficiently recovered from his former operation, he was operated on Monday for hernia. With a recovery from this ordeal, Mr. Hurlburt hopes to leave the St. James feeling like a new man.

Davis Hill

Mrs. Harry Sweezy entertained the Water Melon Club, of Whitesville, one day last week.

C. F. Meade is moving on the Rosebud farm and his father, who has just vacated, is moving to his place on Grove Street.

The farmers are hustling the potatoes into the market this week.

Leo Davis and family, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Davis and Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Slocum spent Saturday evening at Roy Davis'.

Mrs. Edward Padden was the guest of her son, Joseph, recently.

L. E. Davis and Harry Smith have been cutting logs on the Hess farm.

Independence

Feb. 20. — Mrs. R. A. Clarke is visiting her mother, Mrs. Lewis, at Wrights, Pa.

Mrs. C. M. Crandall and two children spent Thursday and Friday with her mother, Mrs. Green, in Alfred.

The Bethel Class had a very enjoyable time at the Valentine party at Mr. and Mrs. Milford and Elrene Crandall's, Tuesday evening.

Stephen Clarke has been home from Alfred for a week on account of an injured leg.

Carl Clarke is confined to the house by sickness.

Will McGraw was a business visitor in Andover Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Spicer and Mary Etta and Mrs. S. G. Crandall and Elrene spent Thursday with relatives in Whitesville.

The Farm and Home Bureau held a meeting at the Parish House, Monday. The local Home Bureau served the dinner.

Mr. and Mrs. Victor Chaffee entertained from 2 to 5, the occasion being the birthday of their daughter, Marion.

Jesse Grossman returned to his work in Friendship Monday.

Miss Evelyn Clarke was home over the week-end from Alfred.

W. E. Densmore was in Whitesville Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Briggs and Wilma drove to Almond Sunday to see Mrs. Erwin Briggs, who is recovering very nicely from a broken hip.

Miss Margaret Grossman, of Andover, was over the week-end guest at her home.

Voorhees Hill

Feb. 21. — Allison Baker has moved his family here from Andover. He expects to work for H. B. Adams the coming year, and we are glad to welcome them to our neighborhood.

Friday evening several friends gathered with Mr. and Mrs. James Lewis to celebrate their 15th wedding anniversary. They brought ice cream and cake and spent a jolly evening. Many happy returns of the day.

Bernard, Burrell and Russell Fan-ton were week-end visitors of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Church, of Procto District.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Wager, of Whitesville, spent 2 days last week with her-niece, Mrs. Gertrude Var Schaick.

The community was saddened to learn of the death, Sunday evening of Mrs. Mary E. Sherwood, at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Valencio Slocum, of Andover. She spent the greater part of her 79 years on the old homestead here and made many warm friends among her acquaintances, young and old.

Mrs. Millie Van Skoik and baby daughter, of Sonyea, are visiting her father, Jacob Halladay, who has been in poor health for several weeks. His condition is slightly improved.

Perry Van Schaick lost a valuable horse Sunday night from asatoria.

Owing to the illness of our teacher Miss Harriet Tuttle of Scio, there was no school part of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Church called on her grandmother, Mrs. Mary Sherwood, who was very ill, Sunday morning.

Dr. O'Donnell was called to the home of John Higgins Monday. Mr. Higgins was suffering with grippe, but is reported better.

Mr. and Mrs. Abram Slocum and Mr. and Mrs. James Lewis and daughter, Thelma, called at the home of David Slocum, of Andover, Sunday afternoon to see Mrs. Sherwood.

Births

Feb. 10th, to Mr. and Mrs. Richard Scholes, of Belmont, a daughter, Grace Emily.

Marriages

Miss Ruth Lytle and Lyman Deming, of Angelica, were united in marriage Feb. 11th.

Miss Gertrude M. Root and George E. Osborne, of Bolivar, were married Feb. 14th, at New Castle, Pa., where they will reside.

Miss Ruth E. Shannon and Lynn E. Corrier, of Bolivar, were married Feb. 14th, at Olean. They will reside in Bolivar.

Deaths

Frank Cleary, a resident of Salamanca for four years, and employed by the Erie Railroad Co. as a track foreman, died at his home in Salamanca, Friday, Feb. 17, 1922. The deceased was born in Ireland 66 years ago and was a son of Michael Cleary and Ann Daugherty Cleary. He had resided at times in Andover. The body was taken to Wellsville for interment.

ST. MARK'S HOSPITAL

OF NEW YORK CITY

Offers a Complete Course in Nursing to Young Women Desiring to Become REGISTERED NURSES

Practical and theoretical instruction in all branches by members of the Medical Staff and the Faculty of the Training School. During the period of instruction, Full Nurses receive free board, lodging, laundry, uniforms and text books, and a monthly allowance sufficient for incidental expenses. Upon successful completion of the course, the graduate may secure the equivalent while in residence at hospital. Ample opportunities for observation. For further particulars, address: Superintendent of Nurses, St. Mark's Hospital, Second Avenue at Eleventh Street, New York City.

Mrs. Charles H. Fuller, of Belmont, N. Y., died at her home on Milton St. Feb. 11th, 1922, at 4:30 a. m. Deceased was born in 1882, being the daughter of Frank and Lucy Bower.

Mrs. Horace Dudley, formerly a resident of Angelica, died Feb. 10th, at Grasslands Hospital, New York. The remains were brought to Angelica for funeral service and burial. Deceased was born in 1855 at Amboy, Ill.

George H. Davidson died Feb. 12th at his home in Whitesville. Deceased was born July 11th, 1852, at Chatham New Brunswick. The body was taken to Richburg for burial.

Mrs. Mary J. Buell, of Bolivar township, died of pneumonia, Feb. 14th, aged 72 years.

Mrs. Margraet Fox died Feb. 4th, at her home in Belfast, following a few hours illness.

Miss Julia Robbins, aged 61 years died Feb. 11th, at South Hill, near Whitesville, after an illness of several years duration.

Mrs. Ellen O'Brien died at her home in Belmont, Feb. 21st. Deceased was born in 1860, in Roxbury, Mass.

Mrs. Sarah Ann Clark, widow of the late John Clark, died Feb. 21st, at her home in Allentown. Interment was made at Scio.

George Truman, a respected and life-long resident of Alfred, died last Tuesday morning at the Bethesda Hospital, in Hornell, following an operation performed Sunday morning.

Classified Adverts.

Price: One Cent a Word, Minimum, 25c.

FOR SALE

FOR SALE — Two choice Draft Horses, five and six years old. Will sell one or both. G. A. Simkin, Voorhees Hill, address Wellsville.

FOR SALE — Horse, Farming Tools and Harnesses. Mrs. D. J. McGinty.

FOR SALE — Cottage, Boats, Pop Corn Wagon and 100-egg Incubator, nearly new. Lynn Hammond.

REAL ESTATE — If you are interested in buying or selling Real Estate will be pleased to have you call on us. We have a number of good Farms, all sizes and locations, and at bargain prices; also Village Property. W. S. Calhoun Real Estate and Insurance, Andover, N. Y.

FOR RENT

FOR RENT — The Mead Farm of 105 acres, cash rent. C. E. Hann.

FOR RENT — From March 15th, House on Center Street, previously occupied by James Cheesman. Enquire Agnes DeLaney.

WANTED

WANTED — Family Washes, no ironings. Mrs. Wm. Youmans.

LOST

LOST — Tuesday, a Letter, containing valuable papers, addressed to Frank J. Raufenbarth. $1.00 reward for return.

EXCHANGED — Pair of Ladies' Rubbers, size 4 1/2, with name "Myrtle E. Kemp" marked on inside, were exchanged at Firemen's dinner, Monday evening. Person having same kindly notify Mrs. Kemp.

C. F. BABCOCK Co. Inc.

114-118 Main Street

Hornell, New York

Aren't You Glad It's New Clothes Time?

A new costume, a gay chapeaux, a fresh blouse or two, luxurious silk underthings—and who could be anything but happy every minute of February? Not the dullest month on the calendar by any means! Not if one has lovely new clothes to look her prettiest in. For pure joy in choosing new apparel, come to Babcock's tomorrow.

Dresses of Tempting Loveliness at $9.75

Lymansville Cheirot is the popular fabric from which these dresses were developed. A deft touch of pongee at vest and pockets—the one-piece style of youthful grace and charm—the new colors of spring, copen, brown, rose and blue—the moderateness of the price ($9.75)—ALL APPEAL to the woman in quest of a new spring frock.

Dresses, Special at $3.75

A sensational price it is true, but that does not lessen the attractiveness of the dresses. Made of tricotine, velours and wool poplins. Sorry we have only 14 of these dresses left for we know there will be many more customers than dresses—but the fact that we have so few is the reason for their ridiculously low price.

Silk Lined Tweed Suits

"The World is Made of Tweed—One's Only Choice is Color." says one authority. We are particularly proud of these handsome silk-lined suits at $14.50.

NEW BLOUSES

Arrive for the Special Sale

Smart Tailored Waists of novelty striped voiles for wear with new Spring suits or the popular skirt of Tweed Blouses regularly sold at $1.50.

89c

DO YOU WANT LONG WEAR?

Do you want your Hat to hold its shape and look good all-ways? Then buy a

"STETSON"

They are guaranteed to satisfy. The Spring Stetsons are ready. No other Hat can equal its fine quality. Price $7.00

Jos. Levy Clothing Co. WELLSVILLE, N. Y.