

Among Our Neighbors

South Hill

Mar. 1. — Ash Wednesday, also "week as a lamb" 1st of March.

Miss Eva McAndrew, of Andover, spent last Friday guest of her sister, Mrs. Appier, and family.

Score twice for our Farm Labor Bureau. Next.

Mrs. Jim Dean and children spent Saturday night in Andover with Mrs. M. Garvin.

Dr. Grenolds was a professional visitor at the home of A. M. Mings, Wednesday. Mr. Mings improves his slowly from his recent illness.

Mrs. Bridget Gravin, who has been for some weeks at the home of her niece, Mrs. Appier, spent the week-end at the home of R. McAndrew of Andover.

Jim Dean has now removed his family to their new home, in which their many friends wish for them a full measure of prosperity.

Tip Top

Mr. and Mrs. Guy Drake and son were Canistota visitors Saturday and Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Milo Palmer and Pastor and Mrs. Simpson and children, of Alfred Station, spent Wednesday of last week at E. V. Green's.

Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Rennells and son, of Condersport, Pa., are the guests of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Baker.

Mrs. C. W. Williams and daughter Harriet, took dinner with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Lee, Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Baker spent Wednesday of last week at E. V. Green's.

Mr. and Mrs. Truman Dodge spent Sunday afternoon at W. W. Dodge's.

Miss Rena Stearns of Andover spent Saturday and Sunday with Miss Ruth Baker.

Miss Lillie Greenman of Alfred, was the week-end guest of Miss Eloise Green.

W. A. Kehrer has resigned his position on the railroad and expects to move to Hornell in the near future.

Independence

Feb. 27. — Mrs. S. W. Clarke was a guest of Mrs. W. D. Clarke Friday.

Merle Mattison and sister, Alice, spent the week-end at R. A. Clarke's.

Mr. and Mrs. Will McGraw and children visited Mr. and Mrs. Adam McGraw Sunday.

Mrs. John Bishop spent Sunday at C. M. Crandall's.

Rev. W. L. Greene was in Alfred Sunday.

Christian Endeavor Day was observed at the church, Saturday. All the talks, papers and music were very much enjoyed by all.

Stephen Clarke was home over Saturday.

Chas. Clarke was in Rochester from Friday until Monday.

R. A. Clarke is visiting at Port Allegany.

The committee have completed the repairs on the Parish House.

Mrs. E. B. Crandall spent Wednesday with Anna-Laura Crandall.

Mrs. Floyd Clarke and Mrs. John Bishop were in Wellsville Monday on business.

The local leader of the Home Bureau will start a class in dress-making, Wednesday, March 8th, at the Parish House, from 10:30 until 4 o'clock. Everyone interested in sewing is welcome to come. Tureen dinner. Each one please bring notebook and pencil, yard stick, tape measure, scissors, and 3 yards of paper 18 inches wide any kind.

Elm Valley

The funeral of Aunt Maggie Leonard was held here, at her home, on Saturday. Those from out of town attending the funeral were Mrs. Eva Francisco, Mr. and Mrs. Wallie Francisco, Edward and Sherman Francisco, of Belmont; Mr. and Mrs. T. N. Perkins, W. E. Adams, Wm. Osborn and wife, of Wellsville; Mrs. B. F. Howland and Mrs. A. M. Wood of Andover.

Those attending the funeral of W. H. Howden from away were Mr. and Mrs. Waiman, of Olean, and W. L. Howden, of Portville.

George Dodge is ill at his home with grippe.

Mr. and Mrs. Merle Hibbard and children, of Pikeville, passed Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Dodge.

Twenty-two of Lester Dodge's little friends gave him a surprise party at his home, Saturday evening. Dancing and music helped to pass an enjoyable evening.

Perfect spellers for the week ending Feb. 17th were Wilda Burdick, Doris Burdick, Frederick Sampson, Dorothy Dodge and Harold Sampson.

Many are sick with la grippe.

Jesse Wahl is driving a new car.

A. A. Hineher is slowly improving.

L. E. Howland is taking treatments of Dr. Swarthout, of Wellsville, for a lame back.

Raymond Hardy and family are all sick with grippe. There are five in bed and quite sick.

Miss Carrie B. Leonard is home for a while. We are all glad to see her back here.

The annual meeting of the Telephone Co. is to be held at the school house, March 6th, at 8 o'clock p. m. All are requested to be present.

Mr. and Mrs. Menzo Burdick were calling on Martin Howland, of Andover, one day last week.

Mrs. Dell Hann passed last week in Hornell, the guest of her son, Victor Hann.

Mrs. Charles Dodge, Mrs. Charley Cote and Mrs. Row Wilcox visited the school Wednesday afternoon.

Mrs. Anson Brewster visited at the home of her son, Herman Jaskson, Thursday.

The Boys' and Girls' Club had a social time at the school house, Thursday evening. A jolly time is reported.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Mead were in Hornell Tuesday.

Henry Sweet has moved to the Stearns farm, by the railroad crossing near Andover. We wish them a very prosperous year.

Mrs. Wm. Wahl was in the Valley one day last week.

Mrs. Geo. Guinn and daughter, Edna were visiting her mother, Mrs. Katherine Wahl, last Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Jenks and son Fay, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. C. Hann, of Wellsville, were visitors at their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Simeon Hann, Sunday.

There will be a Home Bureau meeting held at the home of Mrs. Jay Burdick, next Thursday, March 2nd, at 2 o'clock. Hope to have a good attendance.

Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Wahl were in Wellsville Sunday evening, driving their new car.

Miss Florence Burdick and Miss Amy Steves were Wellsville shoppers Saturday.

Mrs. Richardson, Mrs. Charles Dodge, Mrs. Simpson and Mrs. Hann were visiting the school Friday afternoon, and were very much pleased to see the children elect their officers for the next month. They did it in a very business-like manner. Their teacher has taken a great interest in their education.

Mrs. Nancy Page, of Almond, is visiting her son, Menzo Burdick.

Sunny Side

There have been a number of hunters thru here lately, but they don't seem to come at the right time, or to find the trail of the fox. The little animals have become less afraid and venture quite close to human abodes in the daytime. One was seen within a few rods of the school house and another further down the hill was seen traveling at a leisurely gait along a line fence.

John Lewis is hauling logs for the Sampson brothers to the Elm Valley saw mill.

Our mail carrier has been covering this part of his route with a car instead of a buggy.

Catherine Rockwell and Mary Hull were business callers in Hornell Sunday.

Mr. Ross, who represents the Baine Silo Company, was here last week in the interest of that company.

Mr. and Mrs. Grover Goudy have returned to Ed. Greenan's after spending part of the winter near Olean.

Voorhees Hill

Feb. 28. — Miss Jessie Patton, of Stanards, spent Wednesday and Thursday with her brother, Floyd and family.

Our school has two new pupils enrolled, Max and Roger Baker.

Perry Van Schaick has purchased a horse to replace the one he lost last week.

Mrs. Ella Grantier, of Quaker Bridge, N. Y., was a guest last week at the home of G. A. Simkin.

Miss Etta Perkins and her friend were Sunday guests of her brother, Burritt Perkins and family.

Mrs. A. M. Moyer, of Kansas, is visiting her niece, Mrs. Margaret Adams, and other relatives.

George Gavitt is helping P. H. Van Schaick for a few weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Grant Sherwood spent Saturday night and Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Church.

John Higgins is staying in Wellsville a few days for medical aid, suffering from toxine poisoning following grippe.

Alfred University

Mrs. Theodora D. Davis died in Shanghai, China, February 23rd. She was Miss Anna Sullivan before her marriage. Mr. Davis is an agent for the White Motor Company in the East.

Prof. Charles Binns, Prof. Arthur Bradasch, Messrs. Clair Peck, Leon, Ell and Sanford Cole are attending a convention of the American Ceramics Society in St. Louis, Mo.

Dean and Mrs. Kenyon left for Daytona, Fla., Sunday.

Charles B. Johnson is now in the comptroller's office in Albany.

Walter King '20 married Mrs. Merle Christianen, of Detroit, Mich., in the city, February 21st.

Winston Bee, a young Chinese, has just registered for his college course in Alfred.

The first of "The Potboiler" will give their play before the History Club, of Almond, Wednesday night.

Dr. Norwood was re-nominated at the village caucus as trustee for the next two years. J. B. Shaw was nominated for president.

The "Male of Dreams," "The Hour Glass" and "The Potboiler" the three one-act plays presented by the Wee Playhouse, Thursday evening, were well received.

"The Male of Dreams" was a severely lyrical pastiel with a whimsical Pierrette and a whimsical Pierrot. "The Hour Glass" was majestic; "The Potboiler" amusing. The stage decorations and settings were extremely interesting and beautiful.

The footlight Club's play "The Importance of Being Earnest" given Saturday evening, was successful.

Mr. Leon Dougherty as Algernon, and Mr. Edgar Buttle as the Rev. Canon Chasneble D. D., deserve special mention in their parts.

The Glee Club went to Ellmore Monday and gave their program before a large and appreciative audience.

Col. W. W. Brown, of Bradford, Pa., is the oldest living Alumnus of Alfred University.

NEW SERIES Overland

The Finest Sedan Ever Sold for so Little

Good-looking with its blue and black finish, its four doors, its tan velours interior.

Unvaryingly dependable, and 25 miles to the gallon of gasoline is common.

Easy-riding because Triplex Springs ward off road shocks.

The comfortable way to motor at lowest cost.

Sedan
$895

complete, f. o. b. Toledo
Roadster -- $595    Touring -- $595    Coupe -- $650
JOS. McDONOUGH, Agent
ANDOVER, N. Y.

C. F. BABCOCK Co. Inc.

114-118 Main Street    Hornell, New York

Our Page of White Sale

In Friday's Tribune-Times is Crowding this Store With Eager Purchasers

Spring Blouses

IN OUR WHITE SALE

TAILORED WAISTS
Specially Purchased For This Sale    Your Choice of Fine Cotton and Silk Blouses
Smart, fresh, new styles—blouses regularly sold at $1.25 to $1.50 89c
White Sale Price    Regular $2.25 to $8.50

Hundreds of White Sale Offerings--Plan to attend and save money on-Muslin Underwear, White Silks, Muslins and White Cottons, Sheets, Pillow Cases and Bed Spreads, Laces and Embroideries, White Gloves, Handkerchiefs, Towels, etc.

Paris Has Found New Ways to Make the Spring Coat Smart

—and American genius has produced the fabrics of new and wondrous beauty and adapted them to Parisian modes. The feature of the mode is the sleeves and after that the prominence of long slender lines. Babcock's are now showing a brilliant assemblage of new Spring Coats and Wraps.

Coats—Capes—Wraps
of Shawskee, Jerome, Pondora, Valkara, Velour, Normandy and other favorite Spring fabrics.

Coats for Sports Wear of Polo Cloth, Chinchilla, Plaid Back Polo Cloth, Normandy, Tweeds, Camel's Hair and Herring-bone fabrics.

A Marked Decrease in the Prices of Spring Coats Will Be Noted

THE BALANCE OF OUR OVERCOATS at Actual Cost

On account of broken sizes it's hard to quote prices, but you can take our word for it. If you find the Coat you want you carry away a prize

Jos. Levy Clothing Co.
WELLSVILLE, N. Y.