Reportorial

Palm Sunday, April 9th.
J. J. Dougherty has purchased LeRoy Jordan's Overland Coupe.
There are more than 900,000 telephone stations in New York City.
Mrs. Clarke Rogers entertained the Chautauqua Reading Club Monday afternoon.
Miss Edith Brainard has been seriously ill for two weeks at her home on Church Street.
Frank Peterson, at one time a resident of this village, lost his barber shop at Warsaw by fire recently.
The Woman's Missionary Society of the Baptist Church will meet with Mrs. Burrows, Tuesday afternoon, April 11th, at 3 o'clock. Every member is urged to be present.
The Andover Board of Education, at the Tuesday evening meeting, voted to offer contracts to all of the present faculty of Andover School.
The hardware store of Roy M. Carter, at Friendship, was robbed of goods to the amount of $200 last week. The burglary is believed to have been the work of amateurs.
M. W. Martin, of Waverly, has purchased John Strait's farm in Railroad Valley, and taken possession of the property. Mr. Strait's family moving to their new home between Almond and Hornell.
Mrs. Margaret Failing, whose death occurred at her home in Canisteo, recently from the effects of a stroke, was a sister of Jefferson Brewster of this village. Mrs. Failing was 80 years of age.
Rev. and Mrs. A. D. Sheppard and two daughters arrived in Andover Wednesday from Kenmore, N. Y. They are to make Andover their home. Rev. Mr. Sheppard being the pastor of the Baptist Church.
Lester, the four-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Green, of Shovel Hollow, had the large bone in his right arm broken last week Thursday. Dr. Grenolds reduced the fracture and the little fellow is coming finely.
A project is under way to dam the gorge at Caneadea. The power thus generated would be enormous and the promoters, of whom John Conner of Mount Morris is said to be the leader, believe that manufacturing concerns will thus be induced to locate in the vicinity. Options have been secured on all farm land which will be inundated by the work.

The question is being asked quite generally in Andover this week, who is responsible for the subpoenaing of Dairymen League members only, before the Grand Jury in Belmont, to testify in illegal liquor selling charges in Andover. We didn't know of any place in Andover where dairymen only were the patrons.
Mrs. A. O. Kemp is reported ill with the epidemic cold this week.
Jay Rogers has returned to Hornell after a visit with Andover friends.
Dr. E. J. Loughlen was called to Hornell Tuesday by the illness of his wife, who was at the home of E. A. Guttinger in that city. Mrs. Loughlen was able to accompany the doctor home.
April 1st Andover's postoffice changed hands, Dr. Common becoming our new postmaster. F. S. Potter is working in the office as clerk. Miss Frances Beebe is also retained.
A false report regarding an automobile wreck was afloat Tuesday evening, that nearly paralyzed Andover people with grief until it was learned that there was no truth in the story. People should be very careful how they report accidents.
Mrs. A. C. Ehret was taken to Bethesda Hospital last Saturday afternoon, where she has been in a very critical condition, but Dr. Ferguson informs us that her chances for recovery are favorable. Alfred Sun.

The body of Benjamin O. White was brought from Los Angeles, California to the home of relatives at Scio for funeral and interment Thursday. Deceased was a son of Isaac White formerly of Scio, and died from injuries received in an automobile accident.
A very interesting program was given under the good-of-the-order-at Rebekah Lodge, Wednesday night. The contest, under the direction of Captains Mrs. Lee Trowbridge and Mrs. Emma Clair, is gaining in interest. Answer to roll call and help your side win.
Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Porter were deeply shocked Wednesday by word of the sudden death of Mayor John W. Horton, of Cranston, N. J. Mayor Horton was a close friend of Mr. Porter, was a 32 degree Mason, and a man of great influence in social and political circles. He was on a week-end fishing trip at his country camp in West Greenwich, in company with a party of friends. The men had accompanied a carpenter, who was to repair the building, to the attic when without a word Mayor Horton sank back into the arms of one of his friends and expired within fifteen minutes. Deceased had been mayor of Cranston since 1914.

ANDOVER GRANGE

Andover Grange will hold their regular meeting April 12th. C. B. Raymond, Farm Bureau agent, of Belmont, will be present and it is hoped all members will attend, as he will be sure to have a message of interest to all. There will be a program and a good time.

House Cleaners, Attention!

Don't neglect the most important part of your Spring cleaning (the waste pipe in your home).

DO NOT TEAR THEM OUT

I, Mr. Blue Seal, will do the work. Just place a little Blue Seal in each Sink, Lavatory, Bath Tub, Toilet and Slop Sink and it will eat its way to the cesspool, cleaning the pipe as it goes, giving a good, clean track for the waste water to travel over and at the same time kill all odors that are always found around disposals.

Small Cost. Absolutely Guaranteed.
