

Among Our Neighbors

South Hill

April 12th. — An April snow storm is on. Dan Apple is busy moving his potatoes to market this week.

Mrs. P. A. Dean and son, John, motored to Hornell last Friday to visit Mrs. M. T. Garvin, who is making a good recovery from her recent operation at St. James Mercy Hospital.

Miss Lenora Dean is home from Salamanca for the Easter vacation of this week.

Henry Garvin of Andover, was a business visitor on the hill one day last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Dean and children spent the past week at the home of John Dean. Herman is soon to return to Oklahoma. Mrs. Dean and children remaining for the summer.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Hurlburt and children are guests this week of his parents at Allentown, N. Y.

Patience ceases to be a virtue with our residents, when trying to navigate some of the desperate highways we have at present, because the proper working was not done on it the past two years. It behooves the proper official to get busy just as soon as possible, and in the meantime we extend an invitation to our road commissioner (if we have one) to take a pleasure (?) trip around the square. There might be danger to a "heavyweight" of landing in China.

EASTER MODES

Gloriously Colorful---Radiantly Individual---Ready for All

Gowns, Wraps, Tailleurs, Millinery

GOWNS, formal and informal—many fashioned of the new "crepey" silks. Wide and flowing sleeves add fashion interest to many of the newest creations. Evening gowns for Easter social functions also possess a halo of importance in our ready-to-wear section.

WRAPS of luxurious fabrics ornate with embroidery, swinging capes, swag-top coats, wraps that are both cape and coat and possess a sumptuous elegance hitherto unattained—all with a fresh novelty and striking individuality that adds much to the charm of our Easter gathering of wraps.

TAILLEURS—the three-piece sort—frock with cape or coat to match—are predicted the sensation of the season. Here you will find lounge types, tailored types and formal types—Paris re-plicas that will be found only at Babcock's.

MILLINERY in such variety of styles that selection can be made in harmony with any suit, wrap or frock. Off the face models in smart lines, sports hats in saucy shapes, small, brightly colored hats for street wear or graceful picture hats for afternoon functions—all are here.
