

Among Our Neighbors

South Hill

May 10. — With the old axiom in mind that "Cleanliness is next to Godliness" our housewives are now taking their inning at the spring house cleaning.

A large acreage of oats is being rapidly sown in this locality.

Doctors Grenolds and Loughien, of Andover, have been recent professional visitors on the hill.

Mrs. Appier and little son were guests of her parents in Andover, from Saturday until Tuesday.

And now when in quest of premium groceries in our home town, we may spend some cash (of those large milk checks) in hardware supplies and vice versa. Andover is nothing if not progressive.

Dr. Davis, of Wellsville, was a business visitor on the hill Tuesday.

Mrs. P. A. Dean has received word of the serious illness of her sister, Mrs. Ellen Conwell, in the Bradford Hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Holmes motored from Andover Sunday for a short visit on the hill. Frank visited the lease on Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Dean spent Sunday in Andover.

Elm Valley

Mr. Richardson is having some repairs made on his premises.

Arbor Day was observed at the school, on Friday. Three trees were planted; two flower-beds made; the school grounds were raked, altogether making a great improvement.

The pupils perfect in spelling for the week ending April 28th were: Dorothy Sampson, Doris Burdick, Eloise Caple and Harold Sampson.

There will be an ice cream social at the school, Friday night, and a program, 10c, May 12th. It is the ending of Mrs. Church's very successful term of school.

Perfect Spellers for the week ending May 5th were: Dorothy Sampson, Doris Burdick, Nathan Hardy, Eloise Caple and Wilda Burdick. Mrs. Church, teacher.

Davis Hill

A. A. Burdick, of Alfred Station, was a business visitor on the hill recently.

Miss Monica Padden is a guest of her brother, Joseph.

LeRoy Davis lost a valuable horse recently.

Floyd Slocum was elected trustee, at the school meeting, May 2nd.

John Padden is ill, at the home of his brother.

Elmer Walden purchased a horse of P. C. Lynch & Son this week.

Carroll Burdick was under the doctor's care the first of the week.

Workmen of the county road are hauling stone from the Bess and Robinson farms.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Nevol and daughter, Marjory, were guests at the home of Clifford Burdick Sunday.

Wisor Cook is ill this week.

Voorhees Hill

May 10. — Mr. and Mrs. James Lewis and Mr. and Mrs. Abram Slocum were at Independence Saturday night to see John Lewis.

Mr. Jones, of East Valley, was on the hill Monday, on business.

At the annual school meeting, Tuesday night, R. B. Church was elected trustee, Abram Slocum re-elected collector, and G. A. Simkin, clerk.

There was a good attendance.

Funeral services for the late Jacob Halladay were held Saturday afternoon at 2:30, at the M. E. Church, at Wellsville, the pastor, Rev. E. A. Mathews, officiating. Interment at Woodlawn.

Tip Top

Miss Esther Baker, of Arkport, spent Saturday and Sunday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Baker.

Mrs. E. V. Greene spent Friday in Almond, guest of her mother, Mrs. Anna Tucker.

Mrs. Mary A. Greene, of Alfred, passed Saturday with her son, E. V. Greene.

Mrs. F. M. Lea was a Hornell visitor Saturday.

Mrs. Polly Greene, of Alfred Station, is the guest of Mrs. N. M. Lanphear.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Helmar, of Hornell, spent Saturday evening at Albert Baker's.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Baker entertained relatives from "Coudersport," Pa. Sunday.

Births

April 29th, to Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Durbin, of Wellsville, a daughter, Marion Ida.

May 1st, to Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Kalkhof, of Wellsville, a daughter, Dorothy Marie.

May 2nd, to Mr. and Mrs. Haskins of Alfred, a son.

May 2nd, to Mr. and Mrs. Ray Haskell, of Whitesville, a son, Thomas Edgar.

April 29th, to Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Chapin, of Whitesville, a daughter, Mary Eleanor.

Marriages

Miss Elta Perkins, of Stanards, and Eldyn Benjamin, of Wellsville, were among those recently married in the county.

Deaths

Horace Carlyl died at his farm home near Fillmore, May 5th, aged 64 years. Funeral service and burial were at Wiscoy.

Paul Babcock, formerly of Allen town, died May 5th, at Buffalo, following an operation performed for appendicitis five days previous. Deceased was born in 1833, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Babcock of Allen town. The body was brought to the home of the parents.

T. B. Cummings died April 30th, at his home in Little Genesee. Deceased was 77 years of age, and had been ill since four years ago, when he was injured while employed as a brakeman on the Pennsylvania railroad.

It's Going to Be a Big Event

That Everyone Should Attend, Our

EXPANSION SALE

BEGINS SATURDAY, MAY 13th

This event was primarily planned as a celebration of the attainment of our next step in a policy of progressive expansion. The purchase of the Smith Tea Room and possession of the entire building enables us to carry out our long wished for tea room and soda fountain as a department in this great store of departments. Naturally such a celebration calls for an expression of gratitude which this store has always expressed in terms of extraordinary savings.

And our determination to do the sensational in price cutting was further strengthened as the work of transforming the tea room into one of which we could be proud, progressed and we found

THE NEED FOR READY CASH

—so urgent that we have decided to turn vast amounts of merchandise into cash by the power of DRASTIC REDUCTIONS. And in this effort every department must share. Not a single line of merchandise from basement to fourth floor (exception where we are duty bound through agreements with manufacturers) will escape price sacrifices.

Seven Great Sale Days

Our Expansion Sale will begin Saturday morning, May 13th, at 8:30 a. m., and continue for seven days—through Saturday, May 20th. Since the main object of the sale is to obtain ready cash, all Sale Prices are For Cash Only.

Friday's Hornell Evening Tribune-Times will carry our full scale announcements, getting hundreds of sensational bargains. Be sure to read it carefully and then come prepared to take advantage of the tremendous savings that will go to those who attend the celebration and Cash Saving Sale.
