EVERYBODY IS INVITED

To County Bible School Convention at Canaseraga, May 25th and 26th. Every Bible School member belongs to the association and will be recognized as delegate.

Registration and exhibit open at 10 a. m. Thursday. Program will begin at 11 a. m. with an hour of worship and intermission, led by Prof. F. H. Wright, of Houghton. In the afternoon Rev. T. Basil Young, New York State Association's new educational leader, speaks on "Leadership Training and Evangelism," followed by discussion opened by Prof. W. C. Whitford of Alfred. President J. S. Suckey, of Houghton Seminary will present "The Ultimate Goal" and the session will close with an hour in departmental conferences.

Thursday evening Every Man in Every Bible School is urged to "show his colors" and march in Men's Parade, to be formed at Baptist Church, promptly at 7 o'clock! Evening's address will be "The Task of the Adult Department," by Rev. T. Basil Young. Friday, devotions at 9:30 a. m., and the forenoon will be devoted to "How" messages, where every school can find something needed. Miss Elizabeth Harris, state superintendent Children's Division, will close this session and speak in afternoon on "Instructing the Child." The Nine Districts will open the afternoon and some one of them will receive the District Banner. No Bible School worker can afford to miss Friday-afternoon, getting the year's record and having a part in determining the future policy of the association.

Friday evening there will be a strong, inspirational program. Let's All Be There to prove to Miss Harris and to Dr. Booth C. Davis, President of Alfred University, our loyal and willing acceptance of them as substitutes for Dr. Joseph Clark, and to close the convention with sincere consecration for the new year. According to Dr. Joseph Clark, last May's Andover convention "led all rural conventions" since he became State Superintendent. Let's make this convention break our own record! If you cannot attend every session, remember that "a part of a loaf is better than none." Come and enjoy! Give Help and Get Benefit.
