SUSIE HALL BARNEY

Word came to Andover of the death last Sunday morning of Mrs.
Susie Hall Barney, wife of D. C.
Barney, of West Union. Mrs. Barney was 61 years of age and well and favorably known thruout this locality in her work in different societies with which she held membership. Her death followed that of her brother-in-law, George D. Barney, to whom she had given untiring care, by only six days.

CANTATA BELSHAZZAR

Next Sunday evening, June 4th, the Vested Choir of the First Methodist Episcopal Church, Wellsville, N.
Y., assisted by the Harmonic Orchestra
Club, will render the cantata Belshazzar.

This cantata is the story of the Fall of Babylon. It opens with the Jews in their quarters by the river Euphrates, burdened in heart and anxious for the future, yet not without faith in the fulfillment of prophecy. Zerubbabel, Governor of the Jews, makes his way to the camp of Cyrus, King of Persia, who is besieging the city. On the night when Belshazzar is given a feast in honor of their god Baal, the water gates are opened, the Persian Army enters; Babylon is captured, and the Jews are returned to their native land.

Those who have heard this talented choir will want to hear them again.
Those who have not will surely want to be on hand next Sunday evening early as the program commences promptly at 7:30. The Harmonic Orchestra will add very much to the enjoyment. The soloists are as follows:

- Belshazzar, King of Babylon John Dickson
- Cyrus, King of Persia C. L. Cochran
- Zerubbabel, Governor of the Jews, Daniel, Prophet of Israel, Ralph White
- Nitocris, Queen of Egypt C. H. Munson
- Antonia, Queen of Balshazzar Mrs. Adah McCann
- Shelomith, Wife of Zerubbabel Margaret Larabee
- Myra, Child of Zerubbabel Mrs. Marion Walchli
- Angel Mrs. Angie Gleason
- Jewish Princess, Miss Bessie Harder
- Ladies of the Court, Magi, wise men of Babylon Mrs. George C. Rosa

No charge for admission, an offering will be taken.

A splendid preparation would be to read the first five chapters of the Book of Daniel.

A Century and a Half Ago.
That pleasant word "picnic" so popular at all times in our country, played havoc with the spelling powers of the French. Their way of rendering it were various, of which let "pique-nique" be a sample. Their appreciation, however, of that rustic entertainment was as enthusiastic as their spelling of it was uncertain.

Nor was this the only word to be mangled, for Baron Closen writes
"Jancke, the nickname given us by the English! Milfort effectively disguises two of our Indian tribes, the Cherokees and the Choctaws, by calling them the Schactoks and the Tachetas, and spells Norwich (Connecticut) both Noreage and Noralge; and Volney delights to tell of "Kentokey." Charles H. Sherrill.

Maybe the price you usually pay will buy more value than you usually get. Read and answer ads for a while and learn.
