CAMP SHENAWANNA

Application for Camp Shenawanna, the Allegany "Y" Camp for boys, are now arriving at the county office from all parts of the county.

The camp opens on Wednesday, July 5th. It is open to any boy living in the county who has reached the age of 12 years.

A good number of older boys are signing up. Those 16 and over, who attend the camp will find a splendid opportunity for leadership training beside the enjoyment of the regular advantages of camp life.

Arrangements have been made with Mr. F. D. Rice of Wellsville, for a piano to be placed in the new 20x40 feet dining tent and used during the entire camp period. Stunt night programs and the prospect of a lively minstrel show by the campers are proving attractive as features of the camp life.

A traveling library of 100 boys' books have just been ordered from the State Library at Albany.

HAZZARD — MAULBY

Married. At the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Maulby of West Clarksville, occurred the marriage of their daughter, Gertrude to Joseph Hazzard of Belmont, in the presence of the immediate family only.

The bride was attired in a blue traveling suit and carried white roses. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Custor, of Scio, under an archway of ferns and daisies. They were attended by Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Montgomery of Hornell.

Amid a shower of rice they departed for a short wedding trip to Buffalo and Niagara Falls. Mr. and Mrs. Hazzard will be at home to their many friends after July 1st.

The bride is one of Clarksville's popular young ladies, while the groom is a prosperous farmer.

They are receiving the congratulations of their many friends who wish them life-long happiness.

CAPLE — GILL

The marriage of Charles B. Caple to Miss Selma Mabel Gill, both of this village, took place at the Methodist parsonage, Wednesday, June 28th, 1922, at 8 o'clock in the evening, the Rev. W. H. Smith officiating. The witnesses were Mr. Harold L. Howland and Miss Mary E. Boyd.

The young couple will make their home in this village.

JAMES E. REDMOND

James E. Redmond died at his home in Greenwood, Friday, June 23rd, following a lingering illness from cancer of the stomach. Mr. Redmond for years resided on his farm two miles east of this village, and during that time was in active membership in the Andover Presbyterian Church. He was a man of high ideals, respected by all.

He is survived by his wife, two daughters, Mrs. Blanche Goodno and Mrs. Florence Dennis, and a son, Walter Redmond.

Funeral service was held Sunday afternoon, at the Greenwood Church and burial made in the cemetery at that place.
