THE U. S. WEEKLY MARKETGRAM

Latest Price Quotations Received From the U. S. Bureau of Markets Covering Produce and Feeds

(Washington, D. C., for the week ending July 31, 1922.)

Hay Increasing receipts of new timothy hay weakened market during week and prices declined $1 to $2 per ton.

Feed Weakness principal factor in feed markets. Offerings particularly of wheat feeds and new crop cottonseed meal good.

Fruits and Vegetables Peach markets generally weaker during the week. Demand slow. Georgia Elbertas and bellies down 25 to 75c in city markets.

UNSHAKEN TESTIMONY Time is the test of truth. And Doan's Kidney Pills have stood the test in Andover. No Andover resident who suffers backache, or annoying urinary ills can remain unconvinced by this twice-told testimony.

Dairy Products Butter markets weak and unsettled during the week. Closing prices 92 score: Chicago 32 1/2; Boston 35 1/2; New York 34c; Philadelphia 35c.

Corn Early in past week wheat markets broke on increased hedging pressure and generally favorable outlook for Dogs Foretell the Weather. Pralirie dogs seem to have some kind of knowledge of the weather, if observers at the New York zoological park are right.

One and Same Stone. "Few realize," said a jeweler, who was discussing the increasing popularity in stones of the semi-precious varieties, "that the garnet and the carbuncle are one and the same stone."

The World's Antiseptic. The sun bath establishments of the higher Alps are flourishing as it seems to be established as a fact that is with a smooth cut cabochon—that is with a smooth almost round or domed top without almost any faceting.

Thought Opals Lucky. Queen Victoria was not superstitious about opals. In striking contrast to her unfortunate contemporary, the Empress Eugenie of France, who had a deep-rooted fear of them, Victoria thought them to be both beautiful and lucky and had a parure of opals and diamonds made for each of her daughters—as a wedding gift.

Almost All. A little girl had spent the whole morning at the zoo with her father and read all the notices and placards very curiously. As they passed the turnstile she returned home the rather sad: "Well, I think we have seen everything, don't you, dear?" "Everything but the pickpockets they talk about," she replied.

Koreans Refuse Hair-Cuts. Koreans do not cut their hair or beard, believing that by so doing they would dishonor their parents. Any hair that may happen to fall out is saved, and with finger-nail puttings, put in the coffin, so that a dead man or woman may go back to another earth-inlet.

The Gold Ridge. Johannesburg, South Africa, is almost the crest on "the Rand," a 50-mile ridge of gold-bearing conglomerate. The world's greatest stream of gold has flowed from this region since 1800, when production passed that of all North America.

Women Run Model Farm. In Surrey, England, is a model farm conducted solely by women. The holding consists of nearly 100 acres of land, with one main house and several cottages in which the workers live.

Ten Per Cent Will Do. A Washington scientist has discovered that people who eat peanuts liberally have a fine growth of hair. We shall expect a commission from the peanut venders for passing this information along.—Boston Transcript.

The Oxygen We Breathe. It has been found by scientific experiments that the average adult consumes about 30 ounces of oxygen in 24 hours, and during that period inhales and exhales 1,440 gallons of air.

Oysters Increase. If all the progeny of one oyster lived and multiplied, and so on through six generations, the heap of shells would be eight times the size of the earth.

Training a Child. The best way to teach a child to be honest is by always telling him the truth. Encourage him to do likewise and let him see that you are living up to your responsibilities.

No Ghouls Wanted. Editor (after a surfeit of old jokes): "M-m-m, Yes! But I would like to meet a humorist who is not an exhumarist."—London Mail.

Child's Idea Worth Fortune. The gimlet screw, the idea of a child, brought many millions of dollars to its inventor.

Song Heard a Mile. The nightingale's song may be heard at a distance of a mile on a calm night.

Trackless Trolleys. More than 100 miles of trackless trolley lines are in operation in England.
