RESOLUTIONS OF RESPECT

Again that unwelcome yet relentless visitor, death, has entered the portals of our lodge room and summoned our brother, Giles Caple, to the home beyond.

And whereas, the Allwise Father has called our brother, who was faithful to the teachings of Friendship, Love and Truth, therefore, be it resolved, that Andover Rebekah Lodge No. 303 be draped in mourning for thirty days, and that we tender to the family of our deceased brother our sincere sympathy.

DEATH

Andover friends were pleased to learn of the death of Wm. J. McAndrew, Tuesday morning, at the Mountain Clinic Hospital in Olean. Mr. McAndrew had been in ill health for several months, death resulting from cancer of the stomach. He is survived by his wife and seven children. Funeral services were conducted at Blessed Sacrament Church, Thursday morning.

CHILDS — TAYLOR

The marriage of Paul Warfield Childs, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Childs of Andover, and Miss Mary Annette Taylor was solemnized Wednesday, August 23rd, at high noon, at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Taylor of Greenwood. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Benjamin, pastor of the Methodist Church of that village, and the bride and groom were attended by Miss Louise Earley and Herman Wigger, of Andover. Miss Taylor was beautifully gowned in white tulle and carried a shower bouquet of white sweet peas and forget-me-nots.

Following the ceremony a three-course wedding breakfast was served. There were thirty-five guests in attendance.

Mr. and Mrs. Childs are enjoying a wedding trip including Rochester, Buffalo and Niagara Falls.

The bride and groom are both popular young people in our community and the News extends hearty congratulations for a happy and prosperous wedded life.

W. R. C. PICNIC

Edward Seaman Relief Corps held their annual picnic Tuesday at Island Park, Wellsville. The weather was ideal and the event in every way most enjoyable. Thirty-five were seated at the table loaded with a bountiful dinner. The courtesy of Wellsville in furnishing to the public gratis, the use of their park, fine tables and seats the cooking house equipped with gas hot plates made it possible to serve hot coffee and food with the meal, which adds greatly to a picnic dinner. The social afternoon and auto drive home completed the pleasant day for which the committee in charge received many compliments.

SPECIAL SERMONS ON "THE PERSON OF CHRIST"

The Rev. W. H. Smith, pastor of the local Methodist Church, has announced a series of special sermons on the above topic, the aim being to unfold the New Testament teaching concerning our Lord, in as plain and simple a manner as possible. These sermons will be delivered at the morning services. The dates and themes are as follows:
 August 27, "Jesus: The Son of Man."
 September 3, "Christ: The Son of God."
 September 17, "The GOD-MAN."
