Reportorial

—Joseph Padden, of Davis Hill, is reported ill.

—At Odd Fellows Hall Tuesday evening a smoker is to be enjoyed after lodge.

—Mrs. J. J. McCarthy, of Voorhes Hill, died Tuesday morning, at the Wellsville Memorial Hospital.

—Helen O'Connell, who graduated from the Warsaw High School this year at the age of fourteen years, has won a Cornell University scholarship.

—The streets at the corner of Main and East Greenwood, are being broadened and will be a decided improvement in times of congested traffic at that place.

—A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. Earl Slocum of Albain Street, Hornell, Thursday morning. This makes Mr. and Mrs. Slocum the neat little family of three sons.

—E. J. Wilson, of Bolivar, is building a $7,000 cottage at Cuba Lake. Stone for use in the porch columns are being hauled to the site at the Lake from Rock City, near Little Genesee.

—Craig Hitchcock Post, American Legion, Belfast, has been allotted $1,000 in money from the war chest. A Belfast citizen will donate in addition to the sum, one-third of the amount received from the war chest.

—Mrs. Ella Bundy was surprised by a visit of sixteen of her friends Saturday Sept. 2nd, her birthday. A delicious supper, furnished by the ladies, was served and a beautiful birthday cake presented Mrs. Bundy by Mrs. W. F. O'Connell.

—Five thousand Union men marched silently in a simple Labor Day parade, last Monday in Hornell. Two bands and a life and drum corps marked time for the marchers. The hearty cheers accorded them as they marched along was simply acknowledged by a howl from the leaders.

—Archie Peck, of Rochester, formerly a resident of Hornell, is to be a guest of the American Legion at their National Convention, in New Orleans, next month. Mr. Peck was decorated at Chamont, France, with the Congressional Medal of Honor together with several other medals for bravery in the World War.

—Andover Lodge No. 786 won the prize for the largest number of members in attendance at the county picnic, held at Island Park, Wellsville, Labor Day, also the ball game between members of the Andover and Wellsville Lodges, the score being 8 to 5. A class of seven candidates was initiated into the Past Grands Association in the evening.

—Leon Stone, 22 years of age, a well known business man of Arkport, was found Sunday afternoon dead, with a bullet hole thru his head, near the Shawmut crossing at Canaseraga. A gun was clutched in his right hand. No reason for the rash act can be given by his friends. Saturday night he called on Miss Sara Boylan of Canaseraga, to whom his approaching marriage had been rumored. After the call he went to a barber shop and left about mid-night to walk to Arkport. That was the last time he was seen alive.

THE WEATHER

Following are the weather observations taken by the Andover Cooperative Station for the week beginning August 31, 1922.

Table with columns: Day, High, Low, Range, Rain, Wind. Rows for Thursday, Friday, Saturday, Sunday, Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday.

Table with columns: Day, Barometer. Rows for Thursday, Friday, Saturday, Sunday, Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday.

—Mrs. Ida Hall Lewis, of Belmont, has a broken arm, the result of a fall.

—Monday evening, Sept. 11th, will be the regular meeting of Anna W. McArthur Chapter, O. E. S.

—Calvin Slocum is seriously ill at his home on Dyke Street. His daughter, Mrs. Rena Reed of Canisteo, is the nurse in charge.

—The Blo-Bo Orchestra played for the dancing party at Wellsville, Monday evening and received many compliments on the excellence of their music.

—A big Cole 8, belonging to Nick Vessa, of Elm Valley, was nearly consumed by fire between here and Tip Top Monday. The machine was driven by "Ted" Mack.

—Gerald and Gordon Steadman, of Alma, were arrested last week on a charge of hunting without licenses and taking rabbits out of season. Both plead guilty and paid fines.

—Supt. and Mrs. J. D. Jones, of Cuba, who have been passing the summer in Europe, arrived home Aug. 27th. They witnessed the production of the "Passion Play" at Oberammergau. The theatre held 10,000 people, and there was no standing room unoccupied the day they were in attendance.

FOR RENT — Furnished Rooms, on BAKER Street. George Hartrum.

W. C. T. U. COUNTY CONVENTION
The forty-third annual convention of the Womans Christian Temperance Union of Allegany County will be held at Almond, Sept. 14th. The film "Safe-guarding the Nations" will be shown in the evening.

SWAIN REUNION
The Swain family to the number of sixty, held their family reunion Labor Day, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Orvis. A picnic dinner was served and a fine program of music, readings, etc. given.

A business meeting was held at which the following officers were elected for next year:
Pres. John Swain, Canaseraga.
Vice Pres. Geo. Swain, Wellsville.
Sec. & Treas. Mrs. Neva Hess, Arkport.

Program Committee, Mrs. Mabel Capte, Elm Valley.
It was voted to hold the next reunion on Labor Day, 1923, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Crosby, at Adrian, N. Y.

WITTER FAMILY REUNION

The first family reunion of the descendants of the family of Sheridan Witter, was held Wednesday, August 23rd, 1922, at the home of C. G. Witter, on Third Street of this village.

There were numbering about fifty who sat down and did justice to the bountiful dinner, after which the meeting was called to order by M. A. Green of Burdett, N. Y., and the following officers elected:

Pres. Dan E. Witter.
Treas. C. G. Witter.
Secretary, Jesse Witter.

After the business meeting a short program was given. Among the interesting numbers were several selections on the violin by Mr. Witter. It was voted to hold the next meeting at Island Park, Wellsville, N. Y.
