Tidbits From Our School

The large red building on Center Street opened its doors admitting the eager throng of pupils Tuesday morning, Sept. 5th. Eighty-six were seated in the Study Hall the first day, and among the crowd only twenty-two boys were to be seen.

Tuesday was spent in the registration of pupils and the planning of the program for this semester. All were glad to welcome Mr. Emmett Dawson, a former pupil and graduate of A. H. S., as the new physical instructor for the coming year.

Table with 2 columns: Grade Enrollment, Instructor. Rows include First, Second, Third, Fourth, Fifth, Sixth, Seventh, Eighth.

Enrollment in High School totaled seventy-one. Principal Levi R. Tubbs teaches mathematics and science; Miss Sara E. Jones teaches English, literature and Spanish, and Miss Elizabeth Latimer, history, Latin and French.

Two school officers were elected by the students body. Harry Joyce is to serve as Editor-in-Chief of the "Tidbits" for the first semester, also Richard Harder for school secretary for the year.

The back seats were reserved for the dignified Seniors, and the prospects show that there will be at least twelve. This is an unusually large class, and we hope that each will have success.

Several rooms have been supplied with new-style seats and many comments pro and con may be heard concerning them. Come up and try them!

Plans are being made for one hour a week to be devoted to religious education and all are interested in the outcome.

We hope that "Plain Bill" will not discontinue his writings, tho the people turn to the "Tidbits" before they read his interesting articles.

That store which has anything to advertise will advertise it - fully, informally is not only true, but is generally known and believed to be true. So, when a store's ad is missing from any issue of a newspaper, the reader assumes that nothing special is happening at that store at that time - which conception is usually right.
