

The Courage of Columbus

It shone forth in his three years' pleading for ships before the Queen of Spain; again in his persistent westward course in the face of mutiny.

Persistence is a form of courage as needful to-day as in Columbus' time.

In financial matters its first evidence is the ability to build a practical surplus as a safeguard for the future, or as a basis for those larger accomplishments which lead to wealth.

 home on Chestnut Street, recently purchased of Mrs. Ellen McCann.
 Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Ruger have moved into the rooms vacated by Chas. Baker and family, in the Hayden Rogers residence, on Greenwood Street.
 The Baptist Church is being repainted this week and new porches are being builded on the parsonage, the latter being a gift from Mrs.
 Eggleston.
 The body of Chris Jessen arrived in Wellsville Saturday, from Switzerland, where his death occurred. Interment was made in Woodlawn Cemetery.
 Judge J. W. Willett, of Tama, Iowa, was elected Commander-in-Chief of the Grand Army of the Republic at the annual Encampment recently held at Des Moines.
 Mrs. Eliza Cooper is moving from her home on Baker Street, into part of Miss Minnie Clair's residence, on Greenwood Street. Her son, Reed Cooper and family, will occupy the Cooper home on Baker Street.
 W. N. Rice brought the editor a basket of fine strawberries, picked from his beds, Wednesday. He picked eleven quarts of as fine strawberries as one need ever wish that day. It would make one think it was June instead of October.
 A large party of friends and neighbors surprised Mrs. Edward Cable on her birthday, Sept. 29th, at her home on Rochambeau Avenue.
 The evening was very pleasantly passed with games and delicious refreshments served.
 At the annual meeting of the Allegany County Athletic Association held in Belmont, Sept. 23rd, the following officers were elected for the year: President, Supt. H. J. Steere, Wellsville; Vice President, Dist. Supt.
 J. D. Jones, Cuba; Secretary, Prin. L.
 R. Tubbs, Andover; Treasurer, Prin.
 H. M. Eaton, Alfred.

Miss Agnes Trainor is having her residence, on Church Street, newly painted.
 Edson Langworthy is having his residence on Greenwood Street repainted.
 The removal of the church sheds from the Methodist property on Greenwood Street, is an improvement to that part of our village.
 The Ladies Aid of the Presbyterian Church met with Mrs. A. C.
 Frisbey, Wednesday afternoon. Mrs.
 Frisbey and Mrs. Barney, hostesses.
 Mrs. Ella Jenkins brought a basket of fine grapes to the office recently which had been gathered from vines in her lot on Baker Street.
 Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Vars and son Kenneth, who left Andover some weeks ago for an extended automobile trip, are now in St. Petersburg, Florida.
 Floyd A. Loop, of Bolivar, lost two valuable cows last week, which were poisoned from eating a quantity of paint which had been left within their reach.
 Albert Green has rented the apartment on the second floor of Mrs.
 Augusta Hinchey's house, on Pleasant Ave., and will move there from the F. S. Potter farm.
 The Elm Valley Ladies Aid Society will meet with Mrs. Lottie Wall, at the home of her parents on Main Street, next Thursday, Oct. 12th. A fourteen dinner will be served.

 leased the hunting and fishing rights on 1200 acres of land, located between Cuba and Black Creek. The Club will develop and propagate game and fish in this territory and post it against all invaders.
 Local potato buyers opened the market here Monday at 45c per bushel. This price, however, did not last but one day, yesterday cobblers were caring at 35c. Not many potatoes are being drawn as yet this season, as compared with other years.
 Wallace E. Sawyer, of Bolivar, has the contract of laying a six-inch gas line for the Pavillion Natural Gas Co., from Dansville to Mt. Morris, a distance of 16 miles. The pipe is to be laid two and one-half feet below ground. The line is to supply gas to consumers at towns along the route including Avon, Perry, LeRoy, Catedonia and others.
 Talk about a bolt from a clear sky being some surprise! It has nothing on the automobile coming down a steep sidehill, from a dirt road concealed by pine trees, leading on a state road, as C. M. Estell, of Friendship; Burr Ward, of Almond, and W.
 F. O'Connell and the editor of Andover, can testify. Fortunately, no fatalities were listed, but serious bruises and cuts were sustained by the latter pair, the automobile body being badly ruined. This occurred six miles the other side of Ithaca last week Wednesday, as the party were enroute for Syracuse.

Don't worry over the cost of wall paper. You can paper a good-sized room with Russian rubles and German marks at the cost of one smoke.

OUR CHURCHES

BAPTIST

A. D. Shepard, Pastor.

"Like father, like son." A church-going son makes a proud father; but a stay-at-home father is not proud of the son who follows his example.
 Change the boy's habit or change the boy's example.

Morning worship, 10:30. Subject:
 "Ye are Not Your Own."

Bible School, 12 M.
 The Baraca and Philathea Classes will hold a gospel service at 3 o'clock, at the Railroad Valley school house.

 ly of Procrastination." Leader, Miss Emily Blodget.

Evening worship, 7:30. Theme,
 "Paths of Righteousness."

The Missionary Circle meets with Mrs. Wm. Dodge, Tuesday afternoon.
 All who can go will please be at the church at 2 o'clock. The first chapter of the "Home Mission study book," "The Trend of the Races," will be studied under the leadership of Mrs.
 A. D. Shepard.

Bible study, prayer and testimony meeting on Thursday evening.

The Teacher Training Class will meet for its first session, Saturday evening, October 7th, in the church parlors. The Keystone Training Course for Teachers (first year) will be the study book. If you think of taking the course, plan to be at the first meeting, if possible.

PRESBYTERIAN

Royal E. MacGowan, B. D., S. T. B.
 Pastor

Sunday, October 8th. — Morning Service, 10:30 a. m. A Rally Day program by the Sunday School will take the place of the regular morning service. There will be special music and appropriate exercises by the members of the school.

 The pastor will give a brief address on the subject, "What Makes a Successful Sunday School?" Everyone, especially the members of the school and their parents, is invited to be present.

Evening Service, 7:30 p. m. A Rally Day program by the Christian Endeavor Society will take the place of the regular evening service. Everyone who is interested in the work and society of our young folks is invited to attend. After the service, the Christian Endeavor Society will hold a business meeting and make plans for the coming season.

The usual sessions of the Sunday School and Christian Endeavor Society will be merged in the special meetings named above for this Sunday.

Mid-week Service every Thursday evening at 7:30. On Thursday evening, October 12th, we will continue our study of "The Landmarks of Christian History," our special subject for the evening will be "The Spread of Christianity in the Roman Empire and the beginning of the Roman Catholic Church."

"Liberalism in religion affirms that all that is free, that to attempt to cram it into dogmatic formulas, and thus arrest its growth, is a crime against nature and an impiety against God. The true liberal keeps his mind open to every influence that will increase his knowledge, enlarge his mind, and improve his character. He seeks to grow as the plant grows, as the tree adds layer to layer, as the whole creation develops the ever-increasing purpose of its maker. In a word, the liberal thinker is an evolutionist in his philosophy. He believes with the poet,—

"Thru the ages one increasing purpose runs, and the thots of men are widened with the process of the suns."

We welcome YOU to all the services of our church.
