Alfred University

(Press Club)

The annual meeting of the trustees of Alfred University was held last week at the Lawyers Club, New York City. V. A. Baggs resigned his office as president. R. E. S. Rogers, of New York City, general manager of the Phoenix Mutual Life Insurance Company, was elected president of the board. The report of the architects, Childs and Smith of Chicago, was received. The plans submitted are for the future campus. They are very comprehensive, providing for all needs for 25 or 30 years. The board voted to proceed at once to raise funds for a new gymnasium and for equipping a new athletic field near the campus. The gym is to be placed on the north side of Pine Street opposite the dairy building. The cost of the new building and the field will be $100,000. Next year a new professorship of Economics, Sociology and Politics is to be established. The present professor of Political Science and History is overworked. The budget adopted for general expenses this year is $175,000.

GARDNER & GALLAGHER

IT'S FINE TAILORING THAT MAKES OUR CLOTHES DISTINCTIVE

Sometimes it is wisdom to see how much you can spend for an article instead of how little. This is particularly true of cheap clothes, because cheap clothes certainly are the most wastefully expensive thing a man can risk money in. No effort is spent in trying to make our clothes down to a low price. They are made as good as the best tailors can build them, out of the best materials obtainable, then the price is fixed as low as they can be sold to allow maker and seller a living.

We've a splendid collection of styles, materials and colorings ready for your Fall needs.
