—Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Temple welcomed a little daughter at their home on Pleasant Avenue, Saturday Nov. 7th.
—The Kings Daughters of the Presbyterian Church will serve supper in the parlors of the Church, Wednesday evening Nov. 22nd.
—Mrs. Chas. W. Nash of Albany has been elected State Regent of the Daughters of the American Revolution.
—Will C. Bassett, died at his home at Bennetts Tuesday Nov. 7th. Deceased was born in Independence, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Bayles Bassett.
—A son of a Veterans Camp has been organized at Scio, which Bert Nicholson of that place is commander. The camp will be known as Keenan Camp No. 29.
—President Harding has issued the annual Thanksgiving proclamation for the observance Thursday November 30th as a day of Thanksgiving, supplication and devotion.
—Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Thompson lost nearly all of their household goods in the fire which consumed the Cheesman farm buildings at Bennetts Creek last week. Mrs. Thompson was formerly Miss Reva Clarke of this village.
—E. L. Gieuke has resigned as principal of Rushford High School. The situation from the start of the school year has been unpleasant between the Principal and his pupils. Hollowen pranks brought the feeling to a crisis and the resignation followed. B. J. Hayes is taking Mr. Gieuke's place in the school.
—The fireman's day last week Thursday was a big success in every way. The receipts were highly pleasing to the fireboys. The Reynolds Co. at Alfred came over with a check of $200.00 swelling the receipts. Everything was pulled off just as advertised and all were good. J. A. O'Leary drew the door prize, but returned it to the company.
—Under the "good of the order" at the meeting Saturday night of Edward Seaman Relief Corps, the competing side with Mrs. Wm. Wahl as captain, served dainty refreshments and a social hour was enjoyed in honor of Past President, Mrs. Addie Coleman, who expects to leave Andover next Monday for St. Petersburg, Florida, to pass the winter.
—Lloyd Sinsabagh of Bolivar has been sentenced to Auburn State prison for a term of not over 5 or under 2 1/2 years. Sinsabagh who is 20 years of age was found guilty of committing rape on Miss Ruth Crandall of Bolivar on the night of April 6th. Wm. Gunnip is charged as an accomplice to the crime and will be tried at the February session of court at Belmont.

—Mrs. Emma Scribner is ill at her home on Center-street.

All persons having fancy work for the Fair kindly hand the same to Mrs. Roxie Brundage not later than Saturday November 11th. In order that the same may be properly marked and displayed for sale.

The public is invited to attend this Fair and Supper and join with the Lodges in a pleasant evening.

Don't forget the date. Thursday afternoon and evening, November 16.

Tidbits From Our School

Tuesday being election day the school was closed after a vote by the cabinet and faculty. All welcomed this vacation for it gave them more time to prepare for the exams of the first ten weeks of school which were held Wednesday and are being held today Friday.

The Senior Class is now planning a supper to be held at the school house in the near future. This supper will be held to celebrate Thanksgiving and elaborate plans are already in progress. Watch for this big event and support it.

A dinner party was given at the home of Miss Gertrude Beebe, Tuesday evening, at seven o'clock. Fourteen boys and girls were invited and all report a most enjoyable time. The Spanish language which was spoken by all the boys present flowed fluently and completely mystified those of the feminine gender who were present. They in turn tried to converse in French but were sadly lacking in a good vocabulary and thus their efforts were all in vain. How about that boys? Bertha and Coral were among the guests and they enjoyed themselves to a very pleasing state of raptness.

The next number of the Senior Entertainment course falls on the date of December 4th. Don't forget it.

Many High School Students were present at the Legion's Banquet, Monday evening.

SIDEWALKS

When gentle spring comes round the bend, when March and April showers descend, when eager bushes burst their buds and welcome every drop that thuds, our town has forty kinds of muds. When I wade home from mill or store, fair Hannah meets me at the door and uses certain frigid tones that chill the marrow in my bones. "Now, Robert, for the love of Pete, do have a heart and wipe your feet. Before you plodded home yestreen, my kitchen floor was white and clean, but when you'd crossed it left and right the way you mused it was a sight; for you have feet the size of a Jumbo and all of them are thick with gumbo." I stop and work with groan and sigh beneath my wife's exacting eye. My muscles have rheumatic feels as I twist round to reach my heels. Ere I'm admitted to the shack, I have lumbago in my back. If we had walks on every street we should not need to wipe our feet, O let us don old pants and sashes and bring some cinders and some ashes, or lay some rods of good cement, which all our hobnails cannot dent. Our town will not be safe and sane till we have paves o'er hill and plain. When Deacon Jones his wife's floor smirched, she used such words that she was churched. He had to testify, of course; and now she's suing for divorce. So if we bring home mud, our ladies are almost sure to give us Hades. I am not one of those rash guys who dare the lightning of their eyes; for every gentle dame has power to make each rain a thunder shower.

AMERICAN LEGION ENTERTAIN

One of the finest social events of the season was the game dinner given at I. O. O. F. Hall Monday evening by the members of the Thomas M. Lynch Post, American Legion of this village, at which the wives and parents were invited guests. The long tables were beautifully decorated with branches of red-barberries in crystal baskets. The menu was "just the best" faultlessly prepared by chefs E. F. Stearns and Lawrence Cocoman, and nicely served by a company of young ladies. Orchestra music enlivened the evening.

A piano solo, by Miss Elizabeth Cannon, a vocal trio by Mrs. Porter Richardson, Mrs. Jack Dolan and Mrs. Archie Bloss, and remarks by J. Harvey Backus were given in response to the call of the toast master, Archie Bloss. The singing of America by the company, before the serving of the dinner and the Star Spangled Banner at the close of the program gave a patriotic touch.

Following the program dancing was enjoyed by those present.

Those in charge are to be complimented on the efficient management of the evening.

Don't worry over the stinginess of your neighbor. Ten years hence he may have a plenty while you are hunting a square meal.
