

Why We Advertise

There are two important reasons why this Bank advertises. First, to show the people the advantages we have to offer. Second, to build up a good, strong, reliable bank in this community.

We are anxious to be of service, to meet the banking needs of our customers. The stronger our bank the better our position to render service. That's why we are talking to you each week. We feel that our interests are mutual. If you are not already a patron of our bank, we invite you to join us. In union there is strength.

MARTIN T. HOWLAND

Martin T. Howland was born at Howard, N. Y. in 1846, son of Hiram and Clarissa Trowbridge Howland. November 4th, 1866 he was united in marriage with Amelia Rosebush. Mr. Howland was by occupation a farmer but for the past six years he has been ill and confined to an invalids chair. He suffered from a complication of diseases and the pain endured has been intense, until death came as a welcome release, Tuesday morning, Nov. 7th.

Two children survive, A. E. Howland of Elkland, Pa., and Mrs. Wm. Lauterborn of this village, who has cared for her father during his illness. Also two sisters, Mrs. Cordelia Cole and Mrs. Emma Baldwin of Wellsville. Three brothers B. F. Howland, R. Howland and L. E. Howland all of Andover. Five Grandchildren Roy and Miss Anna Courtney of this village, Ernest, Harry and Harold Burdick of Wellsville.

Funeral services were conducted by Rev. Whelan at the house Thursday, Nov. 9th, and burial made in Hillside Cemetery.

FRANKLIN F. SNYDER

Funeral services for the late Franklin F. Snyder, of Alfred, who died, after a long illness of complicated diseases, October 26, 1922, were held Sunday afternoon from the home of his daughter, Mrs. Elmer Roberts, of Belmont, Reverend Elizabeth Randolph officiating.

Mr. Snyder, who has spent the greater part of his married life near Andover and Alfred, was moved to Belmont several weeks ago to make his home with his daughter.

He was born in Danville, August 19, 1849, the son of Chauncey and Sara Snyder, the youngest son of six children, all of whom have passed on before. He was married October 31, 1869, nearly 53 years ago, to Angeline Green, who survives with four children, two daughters, Mrs. Elmer Roberts, of Belmont; Mrs. Louise Meyers, of Hornell, and two sons, Edwin E., of Alfred, and Fred S., of Belfast. Mr. Snyder is also survived by six grandchildren and two great-grandchildren.

In early life, Mr. Snyder was united to the Seventh-day Baptist Church of Andover, of which he is still a member.

Burial was made in the Alfred Rural Cemetery.

MORRIS S. CRANDALL

Morris S. Crandall died at the home of his brother, W. B. Crandall at Sistersville, W. Va., Oct. 27, on his 54th birthday, the cause being Addison's disease.

Mr. Crandall was well known in Andover, being the step-son of Mrs. Clara Crandall of this village, and for several years resided at the Crandall home on Dyke street.

He is survived by two half brothers Frank and George Crandall and one brother Wilfred B. Crandall, with whom he had lived the past year.

The body was taken to Whitesville where funeral services were held Sunday afternoon and burial made in the family plot in Rural Cemetery in that village.
