Sabbath services at 2:30 p. m., sermon by the pastor.
Bible School following the church service.
"Forget not the assembling of yourselves as the manner of some is."
PRESBYTERIAN
Royal E. MacGowan, B. D., S. T. B., Pastor

tion of all those who seek to interpret this universe in the forms of that that are expressive of the human intelligence at its best. Worn-out creeds and sectarian dogmas are like stones to hearts that are hungering for bread. God speaks to us in the language of to-day, revealing Himself anew to expanding souls that are capable of receiving Him.
We welcome YOU to all the services of OUR church.
The girls of Miss Emma Polsing's Sunday School Class gave a surprise party in the church parlors, Tuesday evening, for Mrs. R. E. MacGowan. Games were played and refreshments served by the class.

Style is Harder to Get Than All Wool

There would be no distinction for our Suits and Overcoats if their only virtue was all-wool. Anyone can give you all-wool cloth, but style is a hobby with us and there are many new features that you should see to know what's correct.

Our values this season are by far the best we have offered in some time.
