Alfred University

(Press Club)
(Too late for last week)
President Davis announced a most pleasing bit of news at the Student Assembly, Wednesday. The American Association of Universities, an aristocrat in educational circles as it were, has recognized Alfred as an "A" class university. All prominent colleges and universities abroad recognize these universities and give their graduates credit for work done in them. This recognition is the last and most valuable of four classifications that Alfred has received within the last year.
An exceptionally enthusiastic mass meeting was held Wednesday evening. This was the last football mass meeting that the six Senior players will attend. All of these men thanked the students for their support and promised to fight their hardest in their last game against Thiel Saturday. Professor Seidlin gave a talk on foot ball and made an announcement concerning the wrestling team. The six Seniors on the team are Ahern, Bliss, Teat, McMahon, Witter and R. Campbell.

Knowing what's advertised, you know how to shorten the time and lessen the expense of your shopping trip, and with your knowledge of values, kept up to date by regular reading of the ads, you'll find that economies are possible in a majority of your purchases.
Every actual price-concession which a merchant makes has "advertising value" but only to the extent to which it is made known.

You Hold the Proof in Your Hand

Quality of work, its intelligent execution, its up-to-dateness in type styles, its all around workmanship and proper printing, may be judged from the appearance of the newspaper turned out by a shop. No Comment is needed to call your attention to the obvious conclusion that work from The News-office will possess the desirable features that go to make "good printing." The paper in your hands is an outspoken and convincing solicitor for the printing department maintained by this establishment. Your better judgment tells you to come to this office when you need printing. The work you get is just a little better than it needs to be.

Toyland is Open!

At 11:00 a.m. we are in the places in Babcock's Toyland Saturday morning, and then we want all good little girls and boys to come here and bring their parents to see the greatest display of toys they have ever seen.

That's true. Years ago, before the toy makers had their benches to "shoulder arms", there were plenty of all kinds of toys, but the children of those days have since grown up or passed into their "teens", and we say again, this is the greatest showing of toys the children of today have ever seen.
