—George E. Brown is moving his family into the Benton property on Hill Street, which he purchased last Fall, and has been undergoing repairs.
—Arrangements are being perfected for a subscription and card party to be held at the Auditorium and I. O. O. F. Hall, Friday evening, Dec. 29th.
—Several people will read the Andover News the coming year as a Xmas present from friends in the home town. No gift will be greater enjoyed.
—Phillip Swarthout, of Nite, was seriously injured when a truck which he was driving went over a steep embankment. The steering gear became locked causing the machine to leave the road. Mr. Swarthout suffered a severe cut in the head and an injury to the stomach. He was unconscious for two hours.

—Word came to Andover that Miss Marie Walsh, who is teaching at Utica, had the misfortune to fall on an icy walk, while going to her school, breaking her leg above the ankle.
—Boyd & Rogers have sold another thoroughbred Short Horn to a Mr. Wilkinson, living near Troupsburg. Thus Andover purebred stock is being gradually distributed over the country.
—At a special election, recently, Alfred voted to bond the town for paving a section of the main street of that village from curb to curb. The proposition carried 110 for to 10 against.
—Let us have the lighted candles in our windows Christmas Eve. It is a beautiful custom and we noticed them in several homes of our village last year. Why not make it more general this year?
—F. R. Emery gathered 80 eggs one day last week from his flock of 120 White Leghorn chickens, 90 of which are pullets. They also made a week's record of 480 eggs. Not so bad for December!
—Don't worry over that belated Xmas gift. Call at the News for a magazine subscription. Our stock is never exhausted; we can furnish the best of gifts for all, from the little tots to their grandparents.
—Died, December 15th, at Iberville, Quebec, Mrs. Mary Eliza Whelan, in her 83rd year. Mrs. Whelan was grandmother of Rev. Charles H. Whelan, pastor of the Methodist Episcopal Church of Andover.
