—An amendment to the soldiers' bonus act to permit the World War veterans to obtain cash for insurance certificates at their current value, at the end of three years, has been introduced by Senator Jones, (Democrat) of New Mexico, according to dispatch from Washington.

—The News again reminds its readers that all items sent us for publication, hereafter, must be signed. This has been a rule of the office for years. Trusting, however, to the honor of our citizens, we have at times over-looked this rule. It has become necessary to again adhere strictly to the ruling and all items sent us must be signed, not for publication, but in order that the editors may know its source.

—Miss Edna Youmans is recovering from an attack of gripe epidemic.

—Parent-Teachers' meeting will be held at the school house, Friday evening, Jan. 30th at 8 p. m.

—The heaviest snow storm of the season hit Andover Tuesday—about seven inches of "the beautiful" fell that day.

—Regular meeting of Andover Odd Fellows lodge next Tuesday evening at 7:30. Rehearsal of the initiatory degree. Every officers should be at his post.

—Mr. and Mrs. Henry Stephens are moving their household goods from the C. L. Earley residence on Main street to that of Mrs. Adelia Hunt on Dyke street.

—Franklinville will enforce the curfew law adopted in 1914, but allowed to lapse. Children under 16 will not be allowed on the streets after nine p. m., unless accompanied by their parents.

City Chap—"Which is correct, to speak of a sitting hen or a setting hen?" Farmer—"Don't know and don't care. What I'd like to know is, when a hen cackles has she been laying, or is she lying?"—Country Life.

—At the opening of the state sheep growers' convention in Syracuse, it was pointed out that small flocks of sheep on thousands of farms are tiding farmers over one of the worst periods of agricultural distress in the country's history.

—A few days ago a valuable cow owned by Dean Williams of Cameron, died very unexpectedly and under such circumstances that it was decided to hold an autopsy. The examination revealed the fact the animal had swallowed two nails, one of which had pierced its heart.

—Edward Seaman Relief Corps has voted to observe, by months, the birthdays of their members during the year 1925. After their regular meeting Saturday night, refreshments and a social hour was enjoyed in honor of Mrs. Randolph Mrs. Guinn, Mrs. Proper and Mrs. Howland.

—Miss Catherine Taylor, of the Alfred High school faculty, is at Bethesda hospital, Hornell, suffering from burns about the face, neck, chest and arms. Miss Taylor was sitting in front of a gas stove and opened the door when the flames burst out. The local physician rendered first-aid and accompanied her to the hospital.

—C. P. Schultheis, a traveling salesman from Rochester, in the blinding snowstorm Tuesday drove off the highway below Elm Valley, his car overturning in the ditch, pinned the driver beneath the steering wheel. Mr. Schultheis succeeded in crawling out the door and walked into Wellsville, three miles. The car was found to have escaped with a broken fender and door.

—At an executive meeting of the General Conference Commission of the Seventh Day Baptist church, held in the Hotel Henry, Pittsburg, Pa., last week, funds were voted to send Dean J. N. Norwood, of Alfred University, to Sweden next August to attend the World Christian Conference on "Life and Work" to be held at Stockholm from August 19 to 29. While on this mission, Dr. Norwood will also visit S. D. F. churches in Holland and England.
