Two Million Vets File Claims for National Bonus

Washington, D. C., Jan. 13.
 More than one-half of the World War veterans eligible for adjusted compensation have already filed their applications with the Army, Navy and Marine Corps, according to an announcement made here by the national legislative committee of the American Legion. A total of 2,168,000 applications is now on file. Only sixty-four veterans have stated that they do not desire compensation.
 The war department has received 1,875,000 applications; the navy department 257,000; the marine corps, 36,000. The number of veterans eligible under the law was estimated by the senate finance committee at 4,293,000.
 Approximately 600,000 adjusted service certificates were mailed out to veterans in the first distribution. These certificates represent $750,000,000 of adjusted compensation insurance. Under the law, certificates could not be issued until January 1. They are being sent out at the rate of 20,000 daily.
 Some 30,000 checks for cash payments of $50 and less have also been prepared and are ready for distribution. Under the law, these cannot be mailed until March 1, next. On adjusted service certificates for veterans who have died since making application for compensation the government is prepared to make immediate payment.
