

THIS WEEK'S CROSS WORD PUZZLE

by DENZEL BAKER, Andover, N. Y.

HOW TO SOLVE A CROSS-WORD PUZZLE

The first letter of each word is indicated by a number placed in the blank white spaces, and by referring to the list of words given below, you will find the definition. For instance, number one, horizontal gives the definition of a word which will fill in all the white spaces to the first black space to the right. Number one vertical gives the definition for a word which will fill in all the white spaces to the first black space below. The black spaces indicate the end of a word, and no letter is placed in them. When completed, the puzzle must read both horizontally and vertically or across and down.

Numbers 14 and 16 vertical are the big boys in this puzzle. They are both nine letter words—but find them and you have keys to work out every other word in the clever arrangement. Virtually all of the words are easy—and of the 59 in the brain teaser only a very small per cent. of them will cause you to thumb the leaves of a dictionary. There's an evening of keen pleasure wrapped up in this small package. Try it out.

HIGHLIGHTS ON STATE CROPS

From New York State Dept. Farms and Markets Feb. 3, 1925.

Receipts of Western New York and Hudson Valley apples at the first of the week were moderate and prices particularly for fancy fruit of all varieties were well sustained, says the State Department of Farms & Markets. Western New York A 2 1/2 inch Rhode Island Greenings sold at $6.50-7.00, and McIntoshes at $12. The King's Bolkens and Winter Bananas brot $6.00. Western New York Kieffer pear receipts on Tuesday were limited. Although the fruit was only fair in quality, trading was active at $5.00 per barrel.

Market for State Vegetables Firm. Relatively light receipts of potatoes and active buying have resulted in a stronger market and higher prices. Western and Northern New York No. 1 round whites sold at wholesale on Tuesday at $2.65-3 per 180 pounds, sacked offerings at $2.25-2.50 per 150 pounds. The light supply of fancy and medium sized cabbage in the railroad yards met a fair outlet and jobbing transactions ranged from 28-32 per ton. Foreign red cabbage brot from $2-2.50 per 100 pound hamper. Western New York old-crop carrots were limited in quantity and the market closed steady. A carload of upland stock brot $1.75 per 100 pound sack. There was a firmer tone in the onion market the frosted stock received scant attention. The best Western New York yellows brot as high as $3 per sack, the frosted as low as $1.50.

Live Poultry Further Declines. The high prices of live fowls and chickens last week were evidently beyond what the consuming public would pay for the city slaughterers were compelled to carry over many birds. As a result, buying on Monday and Tuesday was slow and prices much lower. The market Tuesday closed as follows: Colored fowls and chickens 32c; leghorn fowls 28-30c; leghorn chickens 26-28c a pound.

Country Veal Advances. Because of a shortage in immediate supply country-dressed calves have advanced three cents a pound over the close of last week. The demand is about normal. The latest prices per pound: Choice 21-22c; fair to good 18-20c; common 12-14c small 11-13c.
