Winter Sports in the North

E. D. Baker recently gave the News a fine description of the winter sports he enjoyed seeing and participating in at North Bay, Canada, while in that city this winter. The game of "curling" he says, is very popular with all classes and requires a lot of science to be pre- ficient in. North Bay is a city of 14,000 inhabitants and is made pos- sible because of being able to fur- nish supplies to a large lumbering and mining district in the North. It is the focusing point of four rail- roads.
