Power Insurance

It is hard to realize that electric light and power service is scarcely more than a generation old. Great improvements to lower rates and give better service are still being developed.

Community after community has found it advantageous to link up local distributing systems with Niagara power service. Now these communities are interconnecting their lines as a further insurance of adequate power service in times of unusual demand or stress of storm or accident.

This is the super power service now being developed in the Niagara power zone.

Cars Bump at Elm Valley

A Ford roadster, driven by P. C. Lynch of this village and a Buick sedan, bearing a Cattaraugus county license came together last Friday morning, near the Wahl farm at Elm Valley.

Mr. Lynch was going toward Wellsville, on his way to his lease, the Buick was coming toward Andover and Lloyd Cornelius had stopped to unload some milk cans from his truck on the side of the road. Mr. Lynch thought there was ample time to pass the truck before the Buick got there, but just as Mr.
