A bill of $1,500 has been presented the village trustees of Bolivar, by F. T. Allen of Bolivar, owner of the sedan, who claims the car should be paid for by the village as Mr. Wendell was in it's employ.

Walsh — Dagon

In one of the prettiest weddings of the season, Miss Nelle D. Walsh became the bride of James J. Dagon of Hornell.

The ceremony was performed by the Rev. P. C. Tracy at the Blessed Sacrament church, on Wednesday morning at 9 o'clock.

The bride was attended by her sister, Miss Marie B. Walsh of Utica, N. Y., while J. Patrick O'Neill of Hornell acted as best man.

The bride was attired in a dark blue ensemble suit with a large ashen of roses hat. She carried a bridal bouquet of orchids and roses.

The bridesmaid wore a dark blue ensemble suit, with orchid hat and carried a corsage bouquet of sweet peas and sunburst roses.

After the ceremony, a delicious wedding breakfast was served at the home of the bride's brother, Edward Walsh, of Greenwood street to the immediate families and a few friends. The young couple were the recipients of many beautiful gifts.

Mr. and Mrs. Dagon left immediately for an extended trip after which they will reside in Hornell.

The bride is one of Andover's talented and popular young ladies while the groom is a leading business man of Hornell. Their many friends extend congratulations.

Attention, Dairymen!

A special meeting of the Dairymen's League will be held at City Hall, Saturday night, May 2nd, for the purpose of electing a delegate to attend the district nominating convention on May 5th, also a delegate to attend the annual meeting at New York and the Sub. Dist. meetings.

HARRY G. SMITH, Secretary.

"The Awakening"

The above production was well played at the Auditorium Tuesday evening, by the Stricker-Sauline Stock Company. The play itself was along the usual lines, but gave many opportunities for superior acting which was met with ability. If laughing is any indication of how a show is received this company must feel that their efforts were well appreciated in Andover, as the house was in an uproar the greater part of the evening.
