

CONVENIENCE

Our banking-by-mail plan makes it unnecessary for you to come into the bank when you wish to make deposits or withdrawals.

Simply use Uncle Sam's mail service, as so many of our depositors do.

We will acknowledge promptly all communications, and you will save the time of a visit to the bank.

LOCAL HAPPENINGS

—Miss Helen Folsing entertained the Entre Nous Club, Tuesday evening. —The Steuben County Pomona Grange will be held at West Union on June 3rd. —Mrs. John Will underwent a serious operation for the removal of an inside goitre, Tuesday at the Mountain Clinic at Olean. —The production of the Burlesque Circus, by local talent as a benefit for the Andover Fire Department drew good houses both nights. —As the News goes to press the conditions of two of our residents, Chauncey Witter and Henry Garvin both of whom have been very ill for the week, remains unchanged. —Members of Edward Seaman Relief Corps are requested to meet at G. A. R. Hall at 7 o'clock Sunday evening to accompany the comrades to the services at the M. E. church. —Principal L. A. Olds of the Angelica high school is quarantined with scarlet fever and the Senior class in the emergency have volunteered to fill his place, teaching algebra, geometry and physics. —Mr. and Mrs. J. Bunt moved their household goods to Walkertown, Pa., Monday. Mr. Bunt has been there since the first of February. They will make their home there for the present as Mr. Bunt is employed there. James Wentworth took the goods. —A new potato flour has been perfected and is expected to be on the market this summer. The process of making it is a secret. The advantage of the new product lies in the fact that it does not require yeast and will greatly benefit our potato growers. —Ralph Walker, of the U. S. S. Arkansas, has been honorably transferred to the President's yacht, the Mayflower, at Washington, D. C., due to the fact that Walker was the only man in his division who had a clear record. He left New York for Washington on May 14th. Mr. Walker is a former Wellsville boy. —The second case of sleeping sickness is reported at Olean. The first, Mrs. Marie S. Ray, 25 years of age is dead. Mrs. Carmel Carter, 24 years old attended the Ray funeral and some hours later herself was stricken with the disease and taken to the city hospital, both women are colored. —Cuba is to have a golf club. J. F. Olive of Olive's Pavilion, has purchased 130 acres from the Adams farm to be used for the game. The Patriot says: "Not only is the view magnificent, it is also 1,800 to 1,900 feet above sea level, or quiet a little higher than the course at Lake Placid, which is famous for its elevation." —Louise Johnson, the three-year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Johnson, of Arkport, was seriously, if not fatally, burned Monday when her clothing caught on fire from a bonfire. Her father was cleaning up about the yard and was burning the rubbish. The child went out to play but had not been gone long when her screams attracted the attention of her parents. They rushed to the spot to find her enveloped in flames. The little one died Tuesday afternoon from the injuries.

—Andover... Williams, son of... Williams, formerly a resident of the village, have received invitations to the commencement exercises, May 28th, of the Froesport High school of Froesport, Ohio, of which he is a member of the "Class of 1925." The program as outlined is a fine one. Thomas Williams' name appearing for an oration upon the subject, "Character."

R. E. Temple Leaves Bank

R. E. Temple has resigned his position as assistant cashier of Burrows National bank and accepted a road position with the Commonwealth Bond Corporation, with the Buffalo district agency. His resignation at the bank took effect May 15th.

Mr. Temple has been with the Burrows National Bank for about 14 years, and has many warm friends who will dislike to have him leave Andover, which he will probably do this fall.

The News bespeaks for him a bright future with his new connection.

Mr. J. C. Lever takes the place at the bank, vacated by Mr. Temple.

New City Dad

At a recent meeting of the Board of Trustees of the village of Andover, W. F. O'Connell was elected to membership on the board to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Fay E. Boyd.

Mr. O'Connell is a progressive business man, and will make a valuable addition to the Board of Trustees.

Mrs. Jennie Howard

Mrs. Jennie Howard died suddenly at her farm home on West Greenwood Hill, Monday, May 18, 1925, aged 67 years.

A daughter, Mrs. Dorra Conklin of Hammondsport, N. Y., and a son, Fred Howard who lived with his mother on the farm, survive.

Funeral services were held from the home Wednesday afternoon and burial made in the West Greenwood cemetery.
