LOCAL HAPPENINGS

—A Rotary Club has been organized at Canistota.

—L. H. Atherton is moving into the flat over the Hogan Hardware.

—Glen Ruger has moved from main street to his new home on Dyke street, recently purchased by him from Leon Bloss.

—George Wereley, News Linotype operator is handicapped in his work by a fall Monday in which he suffered a broken bone in his left hand.

—Donald Herrick of Nile had his wrist broken and badly cut while working in the foundry at Friendship last week. He was taken to the Cuba hospital.

—Donald Stillman of Friendship has sued J. L. Olmstead of Richburg for damages to the amount of $3,000 as the result of an automobile collision on the Bolivar-Richburg road.

—Mr. and Mrs. N. Z. Lawrence of Hornell celebrated their 50th Wedding anniversary on Monday, May 18th. They were married at the S. D. B. Church at Nile, May 18 1875.

—Three Richburg men paid fines of $20, each last week in a civil settlement for spearing fish in a creek which is inhabited by trout. They were caught in the act by two game protectors.

—A card received this week from our genial friend E. A. Gamble of Buffalo, formerly an Alfred resident is mailed from San Antonio, Texas and shows a fine picture of the Alamo, a historical building erected in 1718.

—Belmont has a new 500 gallon combination pumper and chemical fire truck, which was delivered to them Thursday. The truck is a Larabee Chassis with a Buffalo Fire Equipment company body, making a very efficient fire-fighting outfit.

—The fine band music Memorial Day was made possible by the cooperation of Alfred and Andover musicians. A number of Andover boys went over and played with the Alfred band at their services Friday afternoon and the Alfred boys assisted here Saturday.

—William J. Richardson, president of the Citizen's Bank of Wellsville, has given Keuka College, $100,000. The presentation was made at the dedication of the new Hegeman Hall. The board of trustees have voted to change the name to Richardson Hall in honor of the gift.

—The two most vital changes to local sportsmen in the 1925 game laws are the changing of the open season on black bass from June 15th to July 1st, and the changing of the cottontail rabbit season back to October 15th, instead of October 1st, as it has been for the past two years.

—Thomas Phelan, Jr., of Olean nearly lost his life at Cuba Lake Monday afternoon. Phelan in bathing, found himself in fifteen feet of water and unable to swim. Benj. Lutz and Lee McCaighe went to his assistance and after strenuous efforts succeeded in bringing him to shore.

—Michael VanSickle of Angelica, an employee on the dairy farm of James Young near there, narrowly escaped severe injuries Sunday when the Ford touring car he was driving overturned on an embankment on the Angelica-Canaseraga road. His wife who was riding with him sustained a fractured leg and numerous cuts and bruises when the car overturned.

—W. F. O'Connell has purchased a new Steudebaker Brougham.

—Harry Joyce is assisting in the State Bank during the summer vacation.

—The Whitesville News tells us that "measles are rampant" in that village.

—Miss Anna Gallagher entertained the Entre Nous Club Thursday evening.

—Andover still grows. We now have twenty-four hour police protection. The Village Board has engaged W. C. Gleason as day traffic officer and police.

—A forest fire in Allegany Park which burned over an area of 1,200 acres the first of the week is believed to have been started by two men who were hunting on the mountain.

—R. A. Pease was pleasantly surprised Sunday evening upon returning from church to be accompanied home by a company of his neighbors who had been invited for a social hour in honor of his birthday.

—The Allegany County Fireman's convention and parade will be held in Richburg on Wednesday and Thursday, July 22 and 23. It is expected that about 30 fire companies and 15 bands will march in the big parade.

—Edward Miles of Rexville died May 17th, at Warren, Pa., where he had been employed for two weeks. Deceased had no relatives, he was taken from a home in New York when a small boy and had been cared for by different families in the community.

—The low, underslung appearance of a Mercer car passing thru Canaseraga recently aroused the suspicions of state troopers. Upon stopping the car and examining it a false bottom was discovered with 30 gallons of alleged alcohol in the tank under the floor boards.

—A deer was seen within 500 feet of a drilling well on the Smith & Woodard oil lease on the Smith farm at South Bolivar, the afternoon of May 15th. The animal was chased out of the woods by a dog, and was in the open field when seen by the drilling crew.

—The body of Mrs. Nettie Miller whose death occurred at her home in Younstown, Ohio, was brought to Scio Sunday and buried at Knights Creek. Deceased was born at that place, and was the wife of George Miller. Her parents were Mr. and Mrs. Martin Murray.

—Protests which have appeared in the Wellsville Reporter from citizens against the use of Memorial Day for other than the purpose it was set apart for by our government "to honor the memory of those who fought for the preservation of this Nation" were timely and should be heeded.

—The Bolivar Breeze says Mrs. Paul Buell was surprised Friday morning, when she saw two deer, a buck and a doe, standing in the Bolivar-Allentown road, this side of Homestead. The animals, it is that had come down out of the woods to get a drink from the creek, near the highway.

—Mrs. R. O. Snyder and Mrs. Robert Brundage entertained at a 1:30 luncheon and bridge party, at the home of Mrs. Snyder, Tuesday afternoon. Covers were laid for twenty-eight. Mrs. Maloney and Mrs. McCarthy of Dansville and Mrs. George Harris of Wellsville were the out of town guests.

—Dorothy Mack, 16 year old Troupsburg girl, attempted to light a fire in the kitchen range, May 13, using as she supposed kerosene oil, she got by mistake a can of gasoline. The explosion set fire to her clothing, burning her so severely as to cause her death within a few hours. The house and all of its contents were destroyed by the flames.

—Lester Berge 8 year old Batavia lad, had an experience which no doubt he will not forget, Sunday, he was playing on a street crossing in Batavia and did not hear the New York Central train approaching on its way to Buffalo. He was hit by the cowcatcher and thrown on the center of the track. The entire train passed over him. The only injuries the lad sustained were some slight cuts on the face.

Tabbits From Our School

The Seniors held a party at the ledges Tuesday night. In spite of the rain, a very good time was reported.

The Toy Shop, given at the Auditorium on Monday night was apparently enjoyed by all who were present. The prizes for the speaking contest were awarded as follows:

- Girls
First Prize Ferne Greene
Second Prize Rose Dawson
- Boys
First Prize Robert Lynch
Second Prize Arthur Downer

Messrs. McKechnie and Lunger of the Rochester Phono Syllabic School delivered a short talk to the Seniors on Tuesday morning, about the continuance of their education. They also presented each member of the class with a commencement booklet put out by that school.

We noticed that Art has registered in one of the books as a "woman" hater. We also notice that he failed to mention the "girls." We wonder why?

It has been observed of late that "cupie" has been training for future paternal duties.

Although a member of the Senior Class, Ellen has not yet learned the difference between a "lamb" and a pony.

The regular meeting of the Parent Teachers Association will be held evening June 9th, at eight o'clock, at the School Building, Tuesday. Everyone should be there to hear the pleasing program which has been prepared.

Andover Typewriter Agency

The News office has arranged with Typewriter Exchange of Almond, to handle their line of new, used and rebuilt TYPEWRITERS, ADDING MACHINES, CALCULATORS, CHECK WRITERS and DUPLICATORS, also to receive orders for rebuilding, overhauling and repairing of typewriters under the usual Typewriter Exchange guarantee and to furnish supplies including RIBBONS, CARBON PAPER, ADDING MACHINE PAPER, Etc., to the local market.

Orders for machines, shop work or supplies left at this office will receive prompt attention. Shop work will be called for; and relief machines furnished during the time repairs or cleaning is being done.

Standard used typewriters will be purchased and cash at standard exchange paid for such machines. Old typewriters or other office machines of standard make will be accepted in exchange for new machines.

We have been careful to select a line that does not compete with our business associates in Andover and vicinity and we feel sure that in working with the Almond Agency, we are assisting local business to a better service in the matter of office supplies and machine service than this section has had in many years. Business men of Andover and vicinity can obtain office machines or supplies of all kinds thru this office.
