

Taking Short-Cuts to Financial Independence.

In your trip—by way of business, farming, industry or other activity—to a position of security and freedom from worries about money, an account at this strong National Bank will point out ways of shortening the journey.

Holding membership in the Federal Reserve System, and having an exceptionally broad service plan, this National Bank stands ready to work with and for you.

Open Your Account TODAY!

The Burrows National Bank

MAIL CLOSING

East
Train No. 1,000 9:15 A. M.
" 26 2:00 P. M.
" 8 5:50 P. M.

West
Train No. 7 10:00 A. M.
Train 1,001 5:45 P. M.

Office Closes
Mondays, Tuesdays, Thursdays and Fridays at 6:00 P. M.
Wednesdays and Saturdays at 7:30 P. M.
JOHN COMMON, P. M.

LOCAL HAPPENINGS

—Charles Church has purchased a new Overland six sedan.

—Regular Meeting of Edward Seaman Relief Corps, Saturday night.

—Two veal calves were stolen last week from G. W. Dolph's barn near Fillmore.

—Mrs. J. E. Appier of West Greenwood Hill, is ill, her sister, Mrs. Whitford of Alfred, is caring for her.

—Mrs. Clarence Meade was operated on Monday at Memorial hospital, Wellsville, for removal of the appendix.

—A daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. Darwin Loring, Monday, June 15th, at Memorial hospital, Wellsville.

—Mrs. George Hanchett of Belmont fell down the stairs at her home last week, breaking the bone in her leg.

—Attorney Harry E. Keller of Cuba has been appointed District Deputy Grand Master for this Masonic district.

—The News is pleased to report the condition of Comrade Chancey Witter who has been very ill for several weeks, as improved at this writing.

—Mrs. Henry Stephens and Mrs. Delia Hunt entertained a party of ladies at six o'clock dinner, Wednesday evening at their home on Dyke street.

—Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Clarke are selling their household goods at private sale, preparatory to leaving Andover in the near future to make their home in California.

—Ground has been broken on the C. L. Earley property on North Main street for the building of a gasoline service station to be conducted by his son-in-law, G. L. Borden.

—Miss Margaret Hunt of Angelica has gone to New York to resume her work as play director of the Gray Mouse institution for dependent Italian children in New York City.

—Dean J. N. Norwood of Alfred, sailed Saturday, for England, on a visit to his mother. He was accompanied by his son, John. Dr. Norwood will also visit Holland before his return in September.

—Paul Gontor of Wellsville had his right hand badly crushed Monday in a power ice cream freezer. The tendons of the hand were severed and it was found necessary to amputate part of the thumb.

—Gifford A. Williams of Bolivar has resigned as ganger for the Tide Water Pipe company, after 22 years in its employ, to accept a position with the Forest Oil company, with headquarters at Sawyer City, Pa.

—The Canisteo Times publishes a letter received from Dr. O. K. Stewart of Hornell in which he tells of their delightful trip across and mentions the fact that he has signed up for another tour so will not return in July but now expects to arrive in New York, August 18th.

—Surrogate court news for May: May 1.—Probate of the will of Amy K. Crandall, late of Little Greene, letters issued to Walter L. Greene.

May 15.—Judicial settlement of the accounts of Emily L. Swain, as exrx. of the will of Charles S. Swain, late of Burns, May 22.—Proof of will of Delos D. Remington, late of Andover, letters issued to Delwin M. Greene.

—The forecast on United States wheat crop is 661,000,000 bushels, the smallest since 1917.

—The Coterie Club will meet with Mrs. E. J. Loughlen on Wednesday afternoon at two o'clock.

—The residence of A. L. Jones on Barney street has been moved to the front of the lot and placed on a new foundation.

—The house of John Rhoad at West Cuba was destroyed by fire last week, nothing was saved from the second floor.

—Mr. and Mrs. W. F. O'Connell entertained the members of the Five Hundred Club at a 6:30 dinner Wednesday evening.

—Alex Williams, a teacher last year in the Belmont high school, has been engaged as principal of the Leicester high school.

—Postmaster and Mrs. John Common entertained a company of friends at a dancing party at their home, Monday evening.

—Mrs. Joseph Herman is ill at her home on Rochambeau avenue. Mrs. Herman suffered an attack of appendicitis, Saturday morning.

—Two horses and six calves were burned to death in a fire which destroyed a barn on the farm of Melvin Eaton at Black Creek, last week.

—Charles Bessey of Wellsville had his right leg broken, above the ankle, while at work in the Kerr Turbine, Monday. A heavy casting tipped over on him. Both bones were broken.

—Buffalo has been hit by a reform wave. One man is fined $10 for selling a loaf of bread on Sunday and another fined $25 for swearing at a woman, according to this week's court news.

—The cinder and oil treatment given the side streets in the village last year, are holding up fine. A great improvement over the six or eight inches of mud we often had to meet in traffic.

—The home of Jerry Wardner at Angelica was badly damaged by fire June 6th. Mr. Wardner was away from home at the time and it is thought that fire was the result of spontaneous combustion.

—The Angelica Red Cross and Progress Club have jointly instituted a Child Welfare Station at Angelica. Miss Wakely, northern Allegheny nurse, is in charge of the station. It is located at the Armory.

—The frame work of the New W. R. Case Cully Company, factory in Fair Oaks street, at Little Valley, was blown down in the storm of Monday evening, June 8th, and the loss is estimated at $10,000. The storm hit Little Valley with unusual severity.

—The class of 1925 of Alfred, presented the University a beautiful gateway, made of blue stone and tapestry brick, which they had build- ed on University street at the entrance to the campus. The gate- way was designed by a Chicago firm who have made the plans for the college's expansion.

—Buffalo, June 15.—An earth- quake shock of moderate intensity was recorded on the seismograph at Conesus College between 5:49 and 5:53 p. m., yesterday, officials of the institution announced today. The shock was estimated to be about 1,000 miles from this city, altho the direction is undetermined.

—Mrs. Jennie Carr gave a very good report of the sessions of At- bekah State Assembly which she at- tended at Utica as delegate from Andover lodge, at the regular lodge meeting Wednesday evening. Over 300 past noble grands received the Assembly degree at Utica and a state membership of nearly 80,000 was reported.

—The first ceremonial of Em- mans Shrine, of Hornell, was held at Hotel Sherwood, Tuesday even- ing, June 16th. A class of 35 were initiated. The patrol team of Mount Sinai Lodge of Elmira, worked the degree. Among the other Shrine teams in attendance were one from Joffa Lodge of Binghamton and Labanon Lodge of Buffalo. The ceremonial was one of the most elab- orate presented in Hornell by Ma- caryte Boyer of Andover were in this class.

—A barn on the O'Hagan farm on Greenwood Hill burned Friday night with all its contents.

—John Dyke of Belmont had his hand broken while working for a drilling company at Bolivar.

—Miss K. Pearle Jones of Oramel has secured the position of Superin- tendent of the Cuba Memorial hos- pital.

Amos Burdick, Sr., Reunion

The seventeenth annual family reunion and picnic of the descend- ants of Amos Burdick, Sr., will be held Wednesday, June 24th, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Burdick East Valley.

Please bring dishes, silver, sand- wiches, lemons and sugar for your own family and one dish to pass. The program committee asks that all those on the program to please come prepared.

ADELAIDE SHELDON, Sec'y.

Births

June 4.—To Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Stives of Bolivar, a son, Samuel, Jr.

June 12.—To Mr. and Mrs. Har- old Hall of Rushford a nine and one half pound son.

June 6.—To Mr. and Mrs. Edwin J. Hall of Friendship, a daughter, Mildred Mae.

Marriages

June 10.—Miss Pearl McKelvey of Bolivar and Clyde A. Witherspoon of Rew City, Pa.

June 8.—Miss Helen Munkus and E. J. Brownell, both of Wellsville.

June 8.—Miss Edna Keough and George Brennan, both of Wellsville.

June 5.—Miss Onalee Townsend and Charles Baker, both of Belmont.

June 6.—Miss Hazel Mae Learer of Burns and Everett C. Myers of North Tonawanda.

June 5.—Miss Doris R. Lang- worthy of Shinglehouse, Pa., and Frank William Maxson of Rushford. Mr. and Mrs. Maxson will make their home at Genesee, Pa., where he has been appointed pastor of the M. E. church.

June 6.—Miss Gladys Wheeler of Wirt and Frank J. Sperta of Friend- ship.

June 5.—Miss Reba Feathers of Belmont and Charles F. Page of An- gelica.

Deaths

Norman W. Heselton passed from life, June 8th, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. B. E. Heselton in West Union. Deceased was born in Whitesville 82 years ago. Funeral services were conducted from his late home, Hill Crest Farm.

Mrs. Arla B. Watts, 67 years of age, died in the David A. Mountain Physicians' and Surgeons' home at Canadea, June 8th. Deceased was the widow of the late Dr. F. E. Watts of Olean.

Mrs. Allen Canfield died suddenly June 10th, at her home in Cuba, of apoplexy. Aged 22 years.

Frederic Lyon Charles of Cuba, died June 8th, in Springfield, Mass. Mr. Charles was 65 years of age, son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Charles of Cuba. His wife, formerly Miss Christine Howell of Alfred, survives him. The body was brought to Cuba for burial.

Mrs. George Peck died June 9th,

at her home on Brooklyn Avenue, Wellsville. Her husband and a son, Robert Peck, both of Wellsville, sur- vive.

Jerome N. Middaugh was born in the town of Scio, March 21, 1848, and passed away at the home of his daughter, Mrs. W. H. Smith of Scio, N. Y., Tuesday, June 9, 1925. He was the son of Alvin and Mary (Da- vis) Middaugh. He is survived by a son, Ira Middaugh and a daughter, Mrs. Winifred M. Smith.

Mrs. Ralph E. Laning of Rush- ford passed from life Wednesday, June 10th, after an illness of one week. Her husband, Atty. Laning and one daughter survive.

Pauline Deloris, the seven weeks old baby daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leslie C. McElheny of Rushford, died Sunday night, after an illness with pneumonia.

Mrs. T. M. Atwell, for years a resident of Rushford, died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Blanche Kelly, in New York City, Thursday, June 11th, aged 64 years. Her death was caused from a stroke. Her re- mains were brought to Rushford for burial.

F. A. Beach died at the home of his sister, Mrs. James G. Stout at Wellsville, June 6th, after a few weeks' illness. Mr. Beach had been in the Wellsville hospital for a few days and then taken to his sister's home. Deceased was 78 years old and was born on Beach Hill July 22, 1847. He was the son of Columbus Beach and Miranda (Wilcox) Beach.

Deaths

at her home on Brooklyn Avenue, Wellsville. Her husband and a son, Robert Peck, both of Wellsville, sur- vive.

Deaths

at her home on Brooklyn Avenue, Wellsville. Her husband and a son, Robert Peck, both of Wellsville, sur- vive.

HAINES OPTICAL Co.

DR. HAINES
Eye Specialist will be at HOTEL SWINK
June 26

WELLSVILLE: Dr. Williamson's, 14 Madison St. June 27-30.
WHITESVILLE: A. W. Robbins, July 6-8.
GREENWOOD: Hotel, July 9.

Dr. Haines finds satisfaction in taking better helps to schools of the south in winter, and saving his friends in the cost of glasses in the north in summer.

CONSULTATION FREE

259 MONROE AVE.

Real Profit Sharing

We share our savings with our customers. When we are able to make a good purchase on a large scale our customers get the benefit in lower prices.

Make our store your daily marketing place. The quality of our goods will delight you, our prompt service will please you, and our treatment will show you we appreciate your service.

We sell Garden and Flower Seeds that grow—all the well known kind that can be depended on.

H. H. WILLIAMS
THE STORE OF QUALITY

At the AUDITORIUM
Friday and Saturday, June 19 and 20

BROKEN LAWS

I HAVE KILLED MY BOY!

I have never punished him!
I have allowed him to go on wild parties!
I have dismissed as a childish prank his con- tempt for his elders!
I have forgiven his late hours!
I have given him an expensive automobile!
I have laughed when he came home intox- icated!

SEE

in all the smashing emotions of its terrific dramatic sequences the perfectly astounding photoplay

"BROKEN LAWS"

with
Mrs. Wallace Reid and a splendid cast including
PERCY MARMONT, JACQUELINE SAUNDERS,
RAMSEY WALLACE, PAT MOORE, AR- THUR RANKIN, VIRGINIA LEE CORBIN and JANE WRAY

Fifth Chapter of Serial "IDAHO" and a One-Reel Comedy.

Admission to this Special Feature 10 and 35 cents

Wednesday, June 24th

"The Uninvited Guest"

The first Motion Picture to combine natural colors, and undersea photoplay.

A South Sea Thriller filmed in the Tropics

Also a two reel Comedy and a Fox News Reel

Prices 10 and 25 cents

—Coming Soon—
"THY NAME IS WOMAN"

Results are what you want, and results are what you get when you advertise your wants in the News "Want" Columns.

F. L. BLOSS • Corner Grocery

ICE CREAM SEASON

Everyone knows the quality of JUNE'S ICE CREAM, and this year his test is higher; there- fore we are getting a richer, better cream. We will also be glad to serve you with our Ice Cold Drinks, Sodas and Sundaes. Try a Pint of Cream and one of our Cakes!

Prompt Delivery F. L. BLOSS Right Prices

Cash & Carry Grocery

JUST RECEIVED A CARLOAD OF Egg Cases
Same prices as last shipment

B. C. WILLIAMS
Open Every Night Except Tuesday and Friday