

Taking Short-Cuts to Financial Independence

In your trip—by way of business, farming, industry or other activity—to a position of security and freedom from worries about money, an account at this strong National Bank will point out ways of shortening the journey.

Holding membership in the Federal Reserve System, and having an exceptionally broad service plan, this National Bank stands ready to work with and for you.

Open Your Account TODAY!

The Burrows National Bank

MAIL CLOSING

East
Train No. 1,000	9:15 A. M.
" 26	2:00 P. M.
" 8	5:50 P. M.
West
Train No. 7	10:00 A. M.
Train 1,001	5:45 P. M.
Office Closes
Monday, Tuesday, Thursday and Fridays	at 6:00 P. M.
Wednesday and Saturdays	at 7:30 P. M.
JOHN COMMON, P. M.

LOCAL HAPPENINGS

—Tomorrow the ever-glorious Fourth.

—Mrs. Harvey Richmond of Whitesville is suffering from a broken ankle.

—Twelve graduates of Alfred University held an Alumni dinner at Shanghai, China, April 16th.

—A cow was killed by lightning on the Hartman farm near Dansville during the electric storm, Sunday.

—The News is very glad to report that Mrs. Joseph Herman of Rochambeau avenue is gaining from a two week's severe illness.

—Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Lewis, of Bolivar, celebrated their golden wedding anniversary, at their home in that place, Friday, June 19th.

—In the annual readjustment of post offices, effective July 1st, Bolivar post office is advanced from a third class office to a second class.

—R. V. Akin has purchased the Tracy residence on Pleasant avenue, of Mrs. Marguerite Hallet, and will move to Andover from Jamestown, soon.

—Miss Olive Chase, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Chase, formerly of this place, was a member of the graduating class of the Du Bois, Pa., High School, this year.

—The local Rod and Gun Club received 19 cans of brook trout, Tuesday morning, from the State Commission. They were immediately planted in our near-by streams.

—Workmen have been busy this week, oiling several of the county roads in this vicinity. The Greenwood road east of Andover and the Elm Valley road have been oiled.

—There is an abundance of strawberries, both home-grown and wild. Mr. Rice says that last year he sold his first berries the first of July, this year he sold his first a month earlier.

—Alfred Roach of Cuba, Lewis E. Goldman of Olean were arrested by officer Easton of Cuba, last week, and placed under $2,000 bail for bootlegging. Two jugs of liquor, and a car were confiscated in the arrest.

—Lenford Horton is assisting in the Bloss Grocery.

—The side streets in the village of Wellsville are receiving a fresh coat of Tarvia this week.

—The Coterie Club will meet at the home of Mrs. W. F. O'Connell, Tuesday afternoon, July 7th.

—Roy Hazlet of Whitesville suffered injuries to his right hand and knees in jumping from a runaway truck in West Union.

—The Union Church of Almond have a drive on to raise $4,000 to make improvements and additions to their present church property.

—Gordon Scott was admitted to Jones Memorial hospital in Wellsville, Tuesday morning, to undergo an operation on his ear and face.

—The Daily Vacation Bible school began last Sunday at Independence with an enrollment of 23. Three are going from Andover each day with Pastor Greene.

—It seems Andover has had another new industry opened here recently. If you want you can easily find it as there are many specimens of its work on our streets.

—Miss Minnie A. Clair, Miss Nina M. Bolton, Mrs. Bessie B. Snyder and Mr. and Mrs. B. A. Clair were dinner guests at the home of Miss Mary Snyder, Saturday evening.

—Thomas F. Wilcox, a former resident of Cuba, died June 21st, at his home in Coudersport, Pa. Mr. Wilcox was a Civil War veteran and served two enlistments in the Civil War.

—The Allegany Holstein breeders made a tour of the prize herds in this county, Thursday, visiting most of the prominent herds and enjoying a basket picnic at Cuba Lake while enroute.

—Miss Amelia Tubbs, teacher of music and seventh grade at the Belmont high school, left for her home at Salamanca. She will attend summer school at Rochester.—Evening Tribune.

—Charles Kurtz of Belmont caught a rainbow trout in the Genesee river last week, weighing three and three-fourths pounds and measuring 21 inches.

—Another freak of nature was discovered last week in the water well driven at Keuka Lake. The well is 22 feet deep and gives an abundance of clear, sparkling water that is colder than ice water.

—Wyoming county has the distinction of being the first county in the state to send in its census returns. Many other counties now have their lists in and the complete work of tabulation is making rapid progress.

—The Federal Post Office Department has reiterated its ruling that no persons except authorized postal authorities can ride on any mail vehicle. So don't ask your mail carrier for a lift as he cannot help you along no matter how much he would like to.

—Miss Mary Mills has signed her contract to teach in the Canisteo Academy. This is Miss Mills' first annual contract as teacher in the Canisteo school and her 45th year as a teacher.

—Burton J. Hayes of Bunkford and Harry J. Weir of Alfred, both successfully passed the recent competition examination for the position of examiner in mathematics, in the State Department of Education.

—The highway from Olean to Cuba and thru to Buffalo, via Hinsdale, was opened to traffic Saturday. The road in the village of Hinsdale is still under construction, necessitating a small detour. The Little Valley-Randolph road is also open.

—Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Willard of Alma were very unfortunate in sustaining accidents within two days of each other this week. Mrs. Willard fell, striking on her chin and fracturing the lower jaw. Mr. Willard fell two days later fracturing four ribs.

—A verdict of $800 damages was given George Smith of Troupsburg, last week, in a suit against the town of Troupsburg. Mr. Smith went thru a bridge with a load of coal and claimed negligence on the part of the town for the condition of the bridge.

—Dr. Storer has rented the J. P. Smith residence on Main street and will move his family and office there in the very near future. Mr. and Mrs. Smith and family are moving to Bradford, Pa., where Mr. Smith is engaged in the oil business.

—Dick Rullison, ten-year-old Belmont lad fell from a bicycle under the rear wheels of a heavy milk truck driven by Earl Strait of Belvidere. The rear wheel went over the left leg, crushing it terribly. He was taken to the Olean hospital.

—Seventy-four fresh air children, taken by the Hornell Rotary are now in camp at Richmyers' Park at Almond. Mrs. Alice Tanner is the matron in charge. A new children's camp has been constructed at the park, with a two story building, 30 by 40 feet, which has a kitchen, living room, dormitories for girls and boys, matron's quarters and bath.

—The Allegany-Steuben Ayrshire Breeders' Club, held their annual meeting and outing at Island Park, Friendship. About 150 members and their families were in attendance. Among the prominent speakers were A. E. Champlin, director of agricultural school, Alfred; H. L. Smith, instructor of animal husbandry, Alfred University, agricultural school.

—A pleasing part of the services in the Baptist Church Sunday morning was a duet sung by Rev. Conrad and his guest Mr. Ullrich of Waterloo.

—J. L. Williams moved the upper part of his tenant house, known as the Lee property, on Elm street to a cement foundation he has made on Barney street. Mr. Williams moved the wing of the building to a site on the street near this one some months ago. He will remodel both into bungalows.

—Mrs. William Butler of Perry, died at the Warsaw hospital, Wednesday June 24th. She was the daughter of Elmer S. and Clara Wilson Wood, and lived in this vicinity when a small child. Mrs. Butler was also a niece of Mrs. A. R. Baker, A. M. Wood and Guy S. Wood of this village.

The funeral was held in Perry, Saturday morning and the body brought to Wellsville that afternoon where interment was made in Woodlawn cemetery.

W. R. C. Notice

During the months of July and August, Edward Seaman Relief Corps will hold only one regular meeting each month. The meeting for July will be held Saturday evening, July 18th.

Notice

The barber shops of Horton and Wallace and Floyd Farwell will keep open tonight (Friday), to accommodate their customers, but will not open up Saturday evening, July 4th.

HAINES OPTICAL Co.

DR. HAINES Eye Specialist

HOTEL SWINK June 26

WELLSVILLE: Dr. Williamson's, 14 Madison St. June 27-30.

WHITESVILLE: A. W. Robbins, July 6-8.

GREENWOOD: Hotel, July 9.

Dr. Haines finds satisfaction in taking better help to schools of the south in winter, and saving his friends in the cost of glasses in the north in summer.

CONSULTATION FREE 259 MONROE AVE.

AUCTION

On account of ill health the undersigned will sell at public auction at his farm, located in Fulmer Valley, known as the M. G. Stout farm, five miles south of Andover and six miles east of Wellsville--

TUESDAY, JULY 7, at One O'clock Sharp the following property:

PAIR BLACK MARES BROWN MARE FIVE MILKING COWS One Good Three Months Old Heifer

These cows are all tested and good milkers Also quantity FARMING IMPLEMENTS

All sums under $10.00 cash; over that amount three months time on good, approved bankable paper; 5% off for cash. GEORGE H. FULMER

F. L. BLOSS • Corner Grocery

ICE CREAM SEASON

Everyone knows the quality of JUNE'S ICE CREAM, and this year his test is higher; therefore we are getting a richer, better cream. We will also be glad to serve you with our Ice Cold Drinks, Sodas and Sundaes. Try a Pint of Cream and one of our Cakes!

Prompt Delivery F. L. BLOSS Right Prices

Real Profit Sharing

We share our savings with our customers. When we are able to make a good purchase on a large scale our customers get the benefit in lower prices.

Make our store your daily marketing place. The quality of our goods will delight you, our prompt service will please you, and our treatment will show you we appreciate your service.

We sell Garden and Flower Seeds that grow—all the well known kind that can be depended on.

H. H. WILLIAMS THE STORE OF QUALITY

Farwell Party
Mr. and Mrs. Wm. S. Clark and Miss Lillian Warfield were entertained at five o'clock dinner at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Vivian Sweet, last Wednesday.
In the evening they were delightfully surprised by a number of friends and neighbors, with whom a merry time was spent in games and reminiscences.

At the AUDITORIUM Friday & Saturday, July 3-4

D.W. GRIFFITH presents AMERICA

A thrilling story of Love and Romance by ROBERT W. CHAMBERS

See the heart-shaking ride of Paul Revere—the most famous dramatic scene in the century.

See Morgan's Riflemen, the wild riding Virginians—immortal lovers on horseback, who saved the day for General Washington, and routed America's most astonishing villain.

Ride with them Thrill with them Love with them Dazzling Romance Mad Adventure

Also Chapter 7 of Serial "Idaho" and a Snappy Comedy

Prices for this Special Patriotic Picture, 10c & 35c

Wednesday, July 8th "The Rejected Woman"

Starring Alma Rubens and Conrad Nagel

This great motion picture of modern life is dedicated to that vast company of women who still believe in love, true and unselfish, love that is slowly being strangled in an age abandoned to the mad pursuit of gilded pleasures.

A photoplay of power and beauty—a frank and vivid pictORIZATION of our dancing, petting, drinking generation, a great human document that you will place among the films which you have truly enjoyed.

Also a 2-Reel Mermaid Comedy Featuring "HIGH LIFE" and a Fox News Reel

Prices, 10 and 25 cents

Cash & Carry Grocery

Why Carry Dishes on Your Picnic Trips?

We Have Complete Sets Six Paper Plates, 6 Cups, 6 Spoons Table Cloth and 6 Napkins for 25c each

B. C. WILLIAMS

Open Every Night Except Tuesday and Friday