Change of Ownership

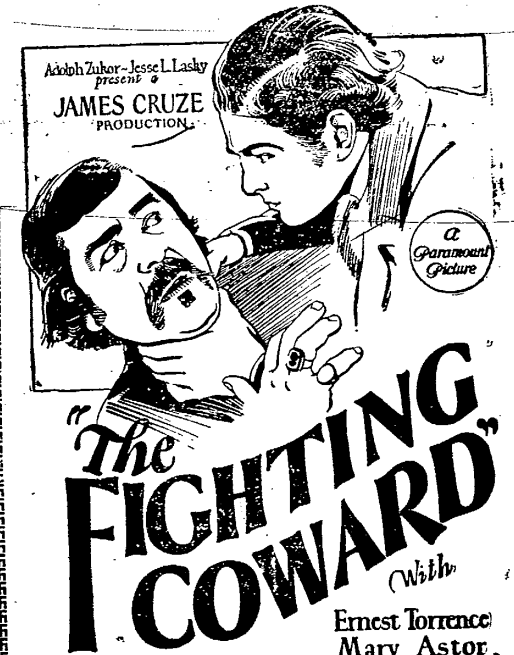

Having sold our store to J. R. Rowe, we desire to thank the people of Andover and vicinity for their generous patronage and kind treatment during the two years we have been with you.

We bespeak for Mr. Rowe a continuance of the fine friendly relations that has always been accorded us

JAMES CRUZE
PRODUCTION

"The FIGHTING COWARD"

Ernest Torrence
Mary Astor
Noah Beery

Gentle as a kitten—then suddenly transformed into a roaring lion, whose growl made brave men quiver and ladies grow fond. That's the lovable, laughable hero in the funniest comedy ever.

This is the fifth James Cruze success in a row. Some of them were "The Covered Wagon," "North of '36." You have seen them both, and can judge for yourself what this big picture will give you.

Also Chapter 6 of serial, "IDAHO and a snappy comedy.

Wednesday Evening, July 15th

"The Mystery of Lost Ranch"

Pete Morrison, Betty Goodwin and "Lightning," the wonder-horse. They're all in "The Mystery of Lost Ranch," a Western romance that is different.

Also a two reel comedy featuring "FOOL PROOF" and a Fox News Reel.
