

It Takes Time . . .

Do not be discouraged if you do not make all your money in a day or two, but start in a small way with an account placed in the hands of this bank.

The men who built the world's greatest fortunes started with nothing, and as they earned a little, they saved a part of it.

This bank will help you to do the same thing.

with Johnnie Walker and a brilliant cast

Separated from her husband by the terrific Titanic disaster—struggling on alone to support her beloved son—sending him thru college, and then learning that he has turned to professional baseball, a sport she believes is responsible for the loss of her mate—hearing the cheers of hundreds of thousands of hero-worshippers as her son comes back after a world's series triumph to the obscure boarding house where she lives — and her mother-heart is-breaking! And this is but a cross section of this mighty document!

A SPINNING KALEIDOSCOPE OF LIFE!
Man oh man! What thrills! The fight to save the honor of the game! A mother's heart shattered by bitter blows of Fate! The mighty Titanic—proud Mistress of the Seas—plunging to its doom upon the hidden ledges of an iceberg! The courage of shipwrecked souls! The New York Giants and Yankees locked in the death-grip of a great World's Series struggle while sport-mad mobs go wild in the ecstasy of the moment! And against this massive and vividly colorful background is pictured in the most dramatic—the most human story ever told!

Sunday Drunks
Get Heavy Fine
Evidently President C. H. Watson doesn't propose to have the peace and quiet of Sunday in Andover broken by drunken men on our streets.

Sunday-afternoon a Hornell car drove into Andover. The driver was not intoxicated but William and John Sims of Hornell were, so the officers contend. They were arrested by President Watson and it was evening before they were sober enough for a hearing before Police Commissioner Mullen who awarded them $10 fine to each for intoxication and William brought down an additional $15 on account of threats of violence he made.
