

Ask Questions Before Not Afterwards

Millions of dollars are wasted on fake securities yearly, because the average person has a tendency to invest first and ask questions afterwards.

That's a thousand times worse than boarding a train and then inquiring where you are bound for, because it costs you a lot more.

When somebody offers to "let you in on the ground floor of a million dollar proposition," ask your questions first. This bank will know, or will find, the answers.

Before You Invest—Investigate

The Burrows National Bank

MAIL CLOSING

Train No. 1,000	East	9:15 A. M.
" 26	"	2:00 P. M.
" 8	"	5:50 P. M.
Train No. 7	West	10:00 A. M.
Train 1,001	"	5:45 P. M.

Office Closes
Mondays, Tuesdays, Thursdays and Fridays at 6:00 P. M.
Wednesdays and Saturdays at 7:30 P. M.
JOHN COMMON, P. M.

LOCAL HAPPENINGS

—Grant Fuller has just recently purchased a Stephens touring car.

—W. R. C. birthday party this (Friday) afternoon at the home of Mrs. J. H. Backus.

—Mr. and Mrs. William Merry of Seio celebrated their golden wedding anniversary August 16th.

—The 59th annual reunion of the First New York Dragoons was held yesterday at Letchworth Park.

—Regular meetings of Andover Lodge No. 786 I. O. F. will begin next Tuesday evening and each Tuesday evening thereafter.

—Guy Wood has been appointed agent for Ford cars and products, announcement of which will be made in these columns next week.

—A new orphanage building is to be built at the I. O. F. home at Lockport. More than $60,000 has already been raised for this purpose.

—Friends of C. B. Richardson will be happy to learn that he has taken possession of a hotel in Athens, Pa., and expects to move his family there very soon.

—Mrs. George Burke has a Rhode Island Red hen, one year old, which recently laid an egg that measured 8 3/4 by 6 inches and contained three full-sized yolks—Belfast Blue.

—Among the list of persons drawn to serve as Grand Jurors at the term of Supreme Court at Belmont, commencing September 8th, we note the name of E. Rogers Crandall of Andover.

—The heavy line of traffic thru Andover the last three days, enroute to the Hornell fair indicate that Andover and vicinity sent their usual big delegation to the annual event in the Maple City.

—Three young cattle belonging to Allen Nourse and Bert Smith of Fillmore, were found last week under a tree in a pasture belonging to the former, dead. They had evidently been struck by lightning.

—Mr. and Mrs. Earl E. Kemp entertained Prof. W. W. Palmer and family Monday night to dinner and cards, giving them a good send-off Tuesday morning for Niagara Falls, N. Y., where the professor will teach next year.

—Announcements have been received of the birth of a little daughter, Marjorie Laverne to Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Shafer of Torrance, California. Mrs. Shafer is the daughter of Atty. and Mrs. L. G. Backus of Monrovia, California.

—Get your supper at the S. D. Baptist church, Tuesday night.

—Mrs. O. J. Fuller of Alfred has a broken arm as the result of a fall.

—Miss Frances Beebe entertained the Entree Nous Club, Thursday evening.

—Mrs. E. J. Loughlen is giving a house party at the Guttinger home in Hornell, this week.

—Frank Gilder has had his residence on the corner of Dyke and Main streets, reshingled.

—Boyd Rogers recently had one of his toes badly injured while on the farm, by getting the toe in the chain to a binder.

—The S. D. Baptist Ladies' Aid Society will serve a thirty-five-cent supper at the church Tuesday night, September 1st. You are invited.

—The remains of Miss Addie Ewell, former resident of Wellsville was brought to that village for burial this week, from Philadelphia, where her death occurred.

—Mrs. Cornelius Johnson, aged 75 years of age, died from a stroke Tuesday evening at her home in Rexville. Her husband, three sons and four daughters survive.

—The Ladies' Aid Society of the Presbyterian church meet with Mrs. Owen, September 2nd. Everybody bring what they were solicited for the August meeting. Bring your own dishes.

—Mrs. James Guinn and Mrs. Edward Mullen gave a shower in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Guinn of Port Jervis, at their home on First street, in which many beautiful and useful gifts were received.

—A one dollar bill which had been raised to appear as a ten dollar note was discovered at an Olean bank in the daily deposit of a proprietor of a restaurant of that city. The work is believed to be that of petty counterfeiter.

—Mrs. Warren Trask, 29 years of age, living on the Alfred-Almond road, died Tuesday evening at Bethesda hospital, Hornell, where she underwent a surgical operation last Friday. The body was taken to Ithaca for burial.

—Leon Cook, formerly of Andover, fell from a scaffold while working in North Olean last week. Fracturing his right foot and left ankle. His face, arms and body were also badly bruised and lacerated in the fall of several feet.

—Ernest Holley of Bolivar aged 45 years, suicided last week by shooting himself in the head with a revolver. He leaves a wife and one child. Despondency brought on by heavy drinking is given as the reason for his rash deed.

—Miss Virginia Lasher the little Fresh Air girl who was entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Eggert for a fortnight, returned, Sunday, to remain with Mr. and Mrs. Eggert. The little Miss made the trip from New York alone.

—Miss Ella B. Wright a member of the faculty of Andover High School last year has entered the State University at Columbus, Ohio, where she is taking the Master of Arts course. This will qualify Miss Wright for a college position.

—Several from Andover attended the Hinchey reunion held at Island Park, Saturday, August 22nd. There were 68 in attendance. Officers for the year are: President, Eugene Smith, Olean; vice pres., C. E. Burdick; secretary and treasurer, Earl Beedick.

—The ball game between South Hill and Andover Sunday night was over. However the "Old Timer" demonstrated that they could still play ball if they were "Not as young as they used to be."

—Bootleggers are bolder than ever. Last Sunday one tried to sell a gallon of alcohol to a young lad of high school age. The lad was a total stranger to the man. However the deal was not made. It isn't a case of youth corrupting youth as it is adults.

—The Rushford Hotel, one of the oldest landmarks in Western New York, was destroyed by fire last week. The fire started at the rear of the buildings and was beyond control of the town's fire apparatus when discovered. The hotel was built one hundred years ago.

—The D. C. Ackerman Hose company of Richburg was awarded a cash prize of $25 for the company coming the longest distance to attend the annual parade of the Southwestern Association of State Volunteer Firemen, which was held at Westfield, N. Y., recently.

—Francis Wells is the new clerk at the Sugar Bowl. Harry Dreyas having severed relations with the popular store to start in business for himself. The Sugar Bowl is a very popular ice cream and candy store, manufacturing most of the products it sells right here in Andover.

—Mr. and Mrs. Claire Backus entertained a company of eighteen at their home Sunday in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Rabuck of Philadelphia, Pa. The out of town guests were Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Rabuck, Miss Hazel Rabuck of Philadelphia; Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Fiske of Bradford, N. Y.; Mr. and Mrs. Colegrove, E. I. Marsh and Miss Isabelle Loughlen of Eldred, Pa.

—A card received by the News this week from Mrs. Herman Woy, nee Miss Caroline Rhinehart reads: "We are touring up here in the beautiful state of New Hampshire, among the White Mountains. This card will give you an idea of the wonders of the Mowhawk Trail. A fine trip if you ever get the "wanderlust." The picture of the famous Hairpin Turn and surrounding scenery is most attractive.

—Sub. Dist. county meeting of the Dairymen's League will take place at the Christian Temple gym, August 31st, at 8 P. M. The program: Speaker—Atty. E. Hornburg; stage play, "A Gypsy Girl," a pencil study, (cartoonist Zschiegner; Zither music, Braunschweiger girls; after program, light refreshments. Please notify members where meeting will take place and try and come. Secretary, Dyke Local.

OUR CHURCHES

WEDNESDAY EVENING
Rev. Walter L. Gosens, Pastor.
Sabbath services at 2:30 o'clock; the pastor will speak.
Bible School following the church services.
Prayer and devotional meeting at 7:30 o'clock Friday evening. Union service Sunday evening in Presbyterian church.

M. E. CHURCH
Rev. A. W. MacDougald, Pastor
Sunday morning service at 10:30 o'clock. Message by the pastor.
Sunday school at 11:45 o'clock.
Union Sunday evening service in the Presbyterian church at 7:30 o'clock.

FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH
Rev. Clara C. Conrad, Pastor
Sunday morning service 10:30. Sermon by the pastor.
Bible school, 11:45.
Christian Endeavor 6:15. Topic: "What is the Gospel—Why Preach It."
Prayer and Praise meeting Thursday evening at 7:30.

Healthographs

Every home should have in stock some of the common articles and drugs essential to any household emergency.

Equip your medicine cabinet or drawer with:

- One 1-ounce medicine glass, graduated.
- One half pound absorbent cotton.
- One package antiseptic (borated) gauze.
- Six each of 1, 2, and 3 inch bandages.
- One roll of one-inch adhesive.
- One roll of clean old linen or cotton cloth.
- One small blanket or old woolen pieces.
- One piece (good size one yard square) oilcloth.
- One pair scissors.
- Two bent glass drinking tubes.
- One enamel fountain (quart)
- Syringe.
- One bed pan.
- Two hot water bottles (small, rubber).
- One eye cup.
- One atomizer.
- Lysol.
- Biclorid of mercury.
- Hydrogen peroxide.
- Tincture of Iodine.
- Mineral oil.
- Castor oil.
- Milk of magnesia.
- Epsom salts.
- Alcohol.
- Glycerine.
- Olive oil.
- Camphorated oil.
- Vaseline (tube.)
- Cold cream.
- Talcum.
- Compound tincture benzoin.
- Powdered mustard.
- Baking soda.
- Aromatic spirits ammonia.
- Oil of peppermint.
- An ounce of turpentine.
- Powdered alum.
- Boric acid powder.

Carefully label all drugs and keep them where children are absolutely safe from them. Keep medicine fresh.

H. G. SORNER, H. O.

Rogers — Bartholomew

Roy G. Rogers of Sardinia, N. Y., and Miss Elsie A. Bartholomew of North Collins, N. Y., were married by Rev. A. W. MacDougald at the Methodist parsonage, Monday afternoon, August 24th. The couple were attended by the bride's parents, her two sisters from North Collins and two gentlemen friends from Buffalo.

Notice

On account of the discontinuance of the John E. Cannon Co., store, all accounts now due either the James P. Cannon Co., or the John E. Cannon Co., are to be settled at The Burrows National Bank.
JOHN E. CANNON CO.,
JAMES P. CANNON CO.,
of Andover, N. Y., June 18, 1925.

APRONS

WE have just received several dozens of Bungalow Aprons. You surely can find what you want in this assortment.

Prices--$1.19, $1.25, $1.50, $1.89

J. RUSSELL ROWE
DRY GOODS AND VARIETIES
Successor to A. C. McFetridge

At the AUDITORIUM
Friday and Saturday Evenings,
August 28th and 29th

MEIGHAN'S MASTERPIECE

The lovable, fighting hero of Peter Clark MacFarlane's powerful novel is a perfect-fitting Meighan role. It gives his million-dollar personality full play. A picture of big dramatic punch and heart-winning romance, splendidly produced. You can bank on this one.

Also a two reel Will Rogers Comedy and a real of FABLES.

Wednesday Evening, Sept. 2nd
RICHARD DIX in
"MANHATTAN"

Rich, young, handsome—and he found New York tame and adventuresome. Till he met a pretty girl and—oh, boy! How things hummed! Don't fail to see Dix's debut in stardom. As the fighting lover-hero of Jeffery Farnol's novel, "The Definite Object."

Directed by R. H. Burnside, creator of the famous N. Y. Hippodrome spectacles.

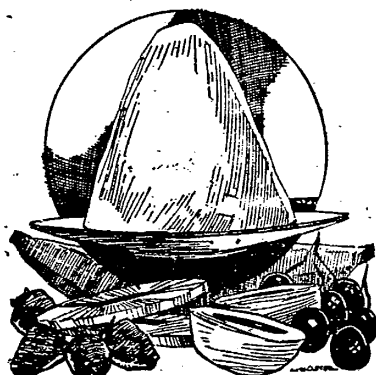

Also a two reel full-of-fun comedy and a Fox News Reel.

Prices 10 and 25c for Both of the Above Productions

COMING SOON

A Double Feature Program.
Fred Thompson in "DANGEROUS COWARD" and "MERTON OF THE MOVIES."

WELLSVILLE LAUNDRY & DRY CLEANING CO.
Launderers Dry Cleaners Carpet Cleaners
180 North Main St. WELLSVILLE

FRESH FRUIT ICE CREAMS

Our soda fountain is the mecca for parched throats and fevered brows these days—and pilgrims who come here are never disappointed—because it is rich, ripe, fresh-fruit season. They are to be had frozen into creams—into cooling ices—or temptingly crushed and dipped over your favorite flavored cream.

Don't try to resist this call.
And make it TODAY.

The Sugar Bowl

F. L. BLOSS • Corner Grocery

Save Your Coupons!

K & B FLOUR and K & B COFFEE
Both Highly Guaranteed Products are for the exchange of coupons giving away valuable things for the home

Fruit Jars, Jar Rings and Certo for Canning

Prompt Delivery F. L. BLOSS Right Prices