

Ask Questions Before-- Not Afterwards

Millions of dollars are wasted on fake securities yearly, because the average person has a tendency to invest first and ask questions afterwards.

That's a thousand times worse than boarding a train and then inquiring where you are bound for, because it costs you a lot more.

When somebody offers to "let you in on the ground floor of a million dollar proposition," ask your questions first. This bank will know, or will find, the answers.

—Mrs. Archie Bloss entertained a party of twelve at bridge at her home one night last week.

—Mr. and Mrs. Fred Metcalf of Rushford, observed their golden wedding anniversary, Sept. 10th.

—Many Andover people attended the St. Angelus day celebration at Hornell, last Sunday and Monday.

—Miss Sara Jones of Alfred, a former member of Andover high school faculty is at Hastings-on-Hudson, this year.

—Ernest Milligan and family moved to Trumansburg, N. Y., last Sunday. Mr. Milligan is employed in the silk mill there.

—The Local Grange has secured Murray Thompson of Avoca, Grange Deputy of Steuben County as speaker for the Grange fair, this year.

—A music teacher of Wellsville has been in town several times the past week to make arrangements with the school board to teach music in the school.

—In a letter to relatives in Andover, Miss Ruth Robinson tells of her work as instructor in the primary department of the Gloversville school and enjoys her work very well.

—At the Allegany County Bee Keepers annual meeting, Sept. 11th, the following officers were elected: W. D. Green—Scio, President; D. I. Browning, Scio—Vice President; L. I. Isaman, Belmont—Secretary and Treasurer.

—Hornell claims the record for growing sunflowers. There has been one in bloom in Maple street, that city, which rears its sunny blossoms 35 feet above the sidewalk. The plant grows from an accumulation of decayed wood and earth which has found lodgement in the crotch of a maple tree. It is thought the seed may have been deposited at that elevation by a bird.

First Carload of 1926 Auto Plates Received

Albany, Sept. 11.—The first carload consignment of 50,000 of the 1926 automobile license plates was received yesterday by Frank Wenzel, in charge of motor car registrations in the state. The new plates have a blue back ground with figures and letters in white. Many more carloads are expected before the end of the month.

Will Hunt in Wilds of Canada

Dr. H. L. Whipple and J. P. Olive leave next week for a hunting and camping trip in Northern Canada. Their camp is located in the woods 135 miles north of Ottawa in the wildest part of the country. Two French guides and a cook have been engaged and a log cabin hired. They motored to this place earlier in the summer and spent a day or two there.—Cuba Patriot.

Republican Caucus

The town caucus of the enrolled Republican electors, for the purpose of placing in nomination Town Officers for the town of Andover, New York and for the transaction of any other business that may properly come before the meeting, will be held at the Village Hall in the Village of Andover, New York, Thursday evening, September 24th, 1925, at 8 o'clock p. m.

By order of Town Committee.

Farm Buildings Burn

The farm buildings, with the exception of the house, on the farm of Frank Norton in West Greenwood, were destroyed by fire the evening of September 10th. The fire was a big one, six buildings burned and the reflection could be plainly seen in the sky from this village.

W. R. C. Entertain

Edward Seaman Relief Corps had as their guests, Wednesday afternoon, at G. A. R. Hall, the members of Wellsville Woman's Relief Corps. A short program and guessing contests was the afternoon entertainment, followed by a five o'clock dinner. A pleasant feature of the evening was an account given of the Department Convention, held this fall at Saratoga Springs, given by Miss Nora Fuller of Wellsville, who attended the meeting as delegate.

Mrs. Eggleston Tells of Trip

A good attendance enjoyed the fine address given by Mrs. Hattie Eggleston, Tuesday evening, at the Baptist church, descriptive of her recent trip abroad.

Mrs. Eggleston supplemented her talk with post card views obtained while enroute. During the trip she visited London, Algiers, Rome, Italy, Venice and many other points of interest. The description given was most vivid and interesting.

Frank Graves operated the projector, throwing the views upon the screen.

A nice collection for missions was received.
