LOCAL HAPPENINGS

—Guy Wood drove in a new Ford roadster from Buffalo, Wednesday.
—The usual fall epidemic of gripple cold is prevalent in the community.

—The grape crop is only about 45 per cent of normal this year but it brings a good price to the grower.

—The condition of Miss Clara Gardner, who was taken to Willard State hospital two weeks ago for treatment, remains unchanged.

—Ralph Burgett has purchased a new Ford touring car from the Corner Garage.

—The power house on the O. E. Crandall lease in Beers Hollow, town of Bolivar was destroyed by fire last week. The wooden power, belt and tools were burned and the engine badly damaged.

—Joseph Meek, janitor at Bolivar High School was painfully burned about the head and hands with a gas explosion, which occurred as he attempted to light a fire in the furnace at the school house last week.

—Announcements have been received of the arrival, October 3rd, of Gordon Raymond Inskip at the home of Cashier and Mrs. H. A. Inskip of Kenmore, N. Y., formerly of Andover. The News extends congratulations.

—Farmers in the vicinity of Canisteo have for a year past suffered heavily from chicken theft. Last week Henry Hodge was caught conveying several fine fowls to his auto from the poultry house of Otis Hulbert. He was arrested and held on $100 bail for a hearing.

—A Chevrolet coupe, owned by Clifford Lee of Wellsville, was stolen from East Pearl street, that village, Sunday evening. After a vigorous search by officials at towns in the vicinity, the car was found Tuesday near the home of Will Coyle on the Eleven Mile, where it had been abandoned. With the exception of the batteries being run down, the machine was found to be in fairly good condition.

—Mrs. Basil J. Wilkinson, who has been the very efficient librarian at the Cuba Library since its opening, has resigned her position, taking effect September 30. She will leave today for Orlando, Fla., where she has been appointed to a good position as librarian in the public schools. Mr. Wilkinson will follow in the course of a few weeks, and will probably go into the electrical business for which he is quite well equipped by training at Mechanics Institute and in service during the war.—Cuba Patriot.

—Mrs. Lynn Trowbridge entertained the Patre Nous Club, Friday evening.

—Mrs. Mary Cone of Independence has been taken to the Willard State hospital for care.

—Mrs. Nancy Lockwood of Hume, 86 years of age, has in five weeks pieced a quilt with 1755 pieces in it.

—Rev. J. A. Hassold, the new pastor of the Presbyterian church, is now nicely located in the manse and busily engaged with his church activities.

—Wellsville lodge of Elks have purchased the Wm. Duke residence on East Pearl street, that village, and will remodel the same into a fraternal home.

—Ernest S. Hand of Almond has purchased a new Ford roadster from the Corner Garage.

—James Carrier of Canisteo claims to have had $850 stolen from his pockets while attending the Bath Fair.

—The S. D. Baptist Ladies' Aid Society will meet with Mrs. Jennie Flint next Tuesday afternoon for a business and social meeting. Tureen supper.

—Surrogate News items for month of September: Sept. 30.—Proof of Will of Abram C. Frisbey, late of Andover, letters issued to Frank S. Clark and A. D. Fuller.

—James Monahan has purchased a Ford coupe from the Corner Garage.

—As a rule, business men are not given to poetry, but the most successful rhyme ever conceived is "wise" and "advertise"

—Robert Mingus is driving a new Ford truck.

—Charles Page of this village has sold his farm on Hartsville Hill to Menzo and Herbert Burdick.

—Reed Cooper has rented the Paul Caple property in Elm Valley and will move his family from the Hallowell place on Grove Street thereto.

—Reda, eight year old, daughter of Deo Feenaughty of Belmont had the misfortune to fracture both bones in her left arm in a fall, Friday night.

—A tire thief has been reported to Andover police as being a visitor to this locality. The garages have been informed of this and are not buying any tires or tubes from strangers.

—Charles Lynch had the misfortune to lose one of his black team horses, Tuesday night. The horse, a valuable one, was kicked by another horse the last of the week and blood poison developed from the injury.

—The new McCall fall dress patterns are now on sale at Cheesman's Drug Store. Call and look over the Fall style quarterly. The McCall patterns are worked so plainly that anyone who can read can use them with success.

—At the annual convention of the Allegany county division of the Christian Endeavor, held October 3rd, at Angelica, Miss Elizabeth Randolph of Hornell was elected president. The next state convention of the Christian Endeavor will be held at Saratoga Springs in July, 1926.

—A large delegation of Andover Rebekahs were in Wellsville, Thursday afternoon, attending the meeting at I. O. O. F. Temple. The outstanding feature of the afternoon session was the school of instruction in charge of the state president and vice president. A six o'clock dinner and the putting on the work and drill of the degree by Fillmore Rebekah lodge in the evening. All the lodges of the county participated in the meeting.

—Raymond Lynch has purchased a Ford roadster from the Corner Garage.
