Even Mrs. Mary Teresa Norton, elected from the Weifth New Jersey district, embracing ten wards in Jersey City, would not find any pleasure in pratting amout acting honestly and ridiculing dry congressmen | for playing politics.

Mrs. Norton and other national legislators of her i 'ind are not dece ving anyone, for they like the dry: lare playing the rankest kind of politics. This babble labout "courage of convictions" is thread-bare from 1 Jover-use by congressmen who do nothing but play poli-

Reading

'l U did and are they reading literature that will be) beneficial and uplifting?

The answer would be, in all probability, from the person not giving it much thought and not seeking the facts, that reading is not as wide-spread as it once was because of the tendency of the times. The age in which we live on the surface seems to one whose customs would not be conductive to read-Reading requires time and time is about the dearest commodity on earth these days, due to the muliplied activities of men and women. But the facts are the opposite. In the ten years; since 1914, the number of books and pamphlets has more than doubled. In 1923, the last year for which government statistics are available, 359,000,000 copies have been issued, exclusive of newspapers and maga-
